D-BACKS ORGANIZATION

A THRILLING RUN

THE FIRST 13 YEARS OF D-BACKS BASEBALL

The 2011 season looks to be a season of improvement for the Arizona Diamondbacks, who under the direction of new Executive Vice President and General Manager Kevin Towers, hope to build upon the team's past success.

Following an offseason that saw heavy roster turnover, and the hiring of interim manager Kirk Gibson on a permanent basis, the D-backs are poised to compete in the ultra-competitive National League West in 2011.

In September 2010, the team introduced Towers as its new General Manager in what would be the beginning of many changes for the D-backs.

When Towers was hired, it was clear that change would be coming, and did it ever.

In the offseason, former big league managers Alan Trammell and Don Baylor along with former players Charles Nagy and Eric Young joined Matt Williams and Glenn Sherlock on Gibson's coaching staff.

As expected, Towers embarked on a major overhaul of the D-backs' roster. The bullpen immediately became a huge area of emphasis for Towers, and he wasted little time in making improvements.

J.J. Putz was signed to serve as the team's closer. Relievers Daniel Hernandez and Kam Mickolio were acquired in a trade with Baltimore in exchange for Mark Reynolds. Former Pittsburgh Pirates All-Star Zach Duke and former Detroit Tiger Armando Galarraga were acquired to bolster the starting rotation.

The pitching staff wasn't the only area that saw significant turnover, however. Veteran infielders Melvin Mora and Geoff Blum are set to take over the third base duties.

In December, Towers brought in outfielder Xavier Nady and catcher Henry Blanco. Nady figures to see time in the outfield while providing insurance at first base. Blanco, meanwhile, will serve as Miguel Montero's backup behind the plate.

It looks to be an eventful summer at Chase Field as the many new faces make their D-backs debuts. Chase Field and downtown Phoenix will be on national display when the 2011 All-Star Game comes to the Valley in July.

With plenty of new faces throughout the organization along with the return of young stars such as Justin Upton, Chris Young, and Daniel Hudson, the D-backs are loaded with talent heading into the 14th season of Major League Baseball in Arizona.

Of course, although the D-backs are 13 years old as a competitive entity, they were actually born 15 years ago on March 13, 1995, when Major League Baseball awarded franchises to Arizona and Tampa Bay at a record cost of $130 million per franchise.

And the foundation for the Valley's entry into MLB had actually been laid five years before that when the Arizona Legislature passed a bill authorizing Maricopa County to assess a quarter-cent sales tax for the express purpose of building a baseball-only facility.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for an air conditioned $354 million downtown structure complete with retractable roof, swimming pool in right field, and nostalgic dirt path between the mound and home plate were held Nov. 16, 1995, and included the novelty of an actual game between two Little League teams on a specially built kids-size field.

With Opening Day still some three years away, Buck Showalter, late of the New York Yankees, was hired as the team's first manager.

The assembling of the team officially began with the selection of left-handed pitcher Nick Bierbrodt in the team's first-ever amateur draft in 1996, and the signings of first baseman Travis Lee and pitcher John Patterson.

Shortly thereafter, infielder Jay Bell of the Kansas City Royals became the first Major League player to sign with the team, and lefthander Brian Anderson of the Cleveland Indians was the first player chosen by the team in the expansion draft.

Finally, the big day everybody had been waiting for arrived — March 31, 1998, Opening Night at Bank One Ballpark.

The Colorado Rockies were the parties of the second part, Andy Benes was the D-backs' starting pitcher, and Lee got the team's first hit and also hit the team's first home run.

This was the start of a great "honeymoon" for the team, and nobody was the least bit surprised or even slightly bothered when it lost 31 of its first 40 games.

And it's not like there weren't any highlights. Center fielder Devon White drove in 85 runs, stole 22 bases, and tied with Lee for the club lead in home runs with 22. Benes won 14 games.

Omar Daal was 8-12, but had a fine 2.88 ERA, and Gregg Olson's 30 saves earned him club Pitcher of the Year honors. David Dellucci, who quickly became a fan favorite with his acrobatic catches in the outfield, hit a solid .260.

As a team, the D-backs finished strong, playing .500 ball over the final 24 games, including an expansion record-tying seven-game winning streak in September, and finished at 65-97, which left them last in the N.L. West, but was quite respectable for an expansion team.

The club also had 21 sellouts and drew 3,602,586 fans, and everybody went home for the winter happy with the team's first season.

During the offseason, the D-backs went on a spending spree that netted pitchers Randy Johnson, Armando Reynoso, and Greg Swindell, and center fielder Steve Finley. Then-General Manager Joe Garagiola Jr. acquired Luis Gonzalez and Tony Womack in trades that turned out to be steals. And during the season he reeled in Marlins closer Matt Mantei.

Gonzalez, who came over from Detroit with a nice chunk of cash in exchange for outfielder Karim Garcia, would become the face of the franchise and deliver the winning hit off closer Mariano Rivera in Game 7 of the 2001 World Series.

But the rest, as they say, is history.

Johnson went on to lead the Majors in strikeouts (364) and complete games, and would go on to win 17 games and the first of his four Cy Young Awards here while posting a 2.48 ERA.

Gonzalez, meanwhile, had one of several career years he would fashion with the D-backs, hitting .336, with 26 home runs and 111 RBI, and putting together that hitting streak.

And he had plenty of help. Matt Williams hit 35 home runs and had 142 RBI, and Bell was good for 38 and 112. Womack stole 72 bases while hitting .277 and Mantei saved 22 games while striking out 49 in 29 innings as the D-backs went from 65 wins to 100 to take the West by a landslide.

They lost their first-ever playoff game to the New

Danny Bautista slides head-first at home plate on Tony Womack's game-ending single that staked the D-backs to a 2-1 victory over the Cardinals, propelling Arizona into the NLCS against Atlanta.

York Mets, 8-4, but came back behind some gutsy pitching by Stottlemire and five RBI by Finley to win Game 2, 7-1. With the Division Series moving to New York, the Mets won Game 3, 9-2, and then won the series in Game 4, 4-3.

The 2000 campaign was most notable for another great award-winning season from Johnson and the in-season acquisition of pitcher Curt Schilling.

As for Johnson, he again led the Majors in strikeouts (347) and tied for the league lead in complete games (eight) and shutouts (three) while putting together a 19-7 record and 2.64 ERA.

Gonzalez did his bit, hitting 31 home runs and again driving in over 100, but otherwise, due mostly to a series of injuries, especially to slugger Williams and closer Mantei, the D-backs had a 15-victory drop off and slipped to third in the West.

The disappointing season led to the dismissal of Showalter, with Bob Brenly coming down from the broadcast booth to take over as manager — and the stage was set for one of the greatest seasons in the history of Arizona sports.

There will never be another year like 2001. This is not to say the D-backs will never win another World Series, but rather that there will never be an experience as exhilarating as that first one, especially when you factor in the Yankees, the grim background of Sept. 11, and the dramatic twists and turns of the series itself.

The regular season was exciting enough, what with Gonzalez hitting those 57 home runs and driving in 142, Johnson racking up a third-straight Cy Young Award with 21-6 mark and a 2.49 ERA and Schilling going 22-6 and 2.98.

But the fun was just beginning.

The D-backs took out the St. Louis Cardinals in the Division Series, with Womack delivering the key hit in Game 5, then blew the Atlanta Braves away in five games in the Championship Series.

And now it was the upstart D-backs, who were all of four years old, against the lords of the realm, the Yankees.

Schilling and the upstarts overpowered the Yankees 9-1 in Game 1 here, and won Game 2 behind Johnson 4-0. With the series shifting to Yankee Stadium in the very shadow of Ground Zero, the "aura" and "mystique" of the Bombers that Schilling had poked fun at seemed to kick in.

The Yanks won Game 3 in fairly routine fashion, 2-1, behind Roger Clemens and Mariano Rivera, but the next night, with the Yanks down 3-1 and two out in the ninth, Tino Martinez hit a two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim, and Derek Jeter drove in the winning run with a fly ball in the 10th.

The following night, with the series tied at 2-2 the Yanks went into the ninth down 2-0. This time Scott Brosius hit a two-run home run off Kim, the Yanks survived a bases loaded situation in the top of the 11th and Alfonso Soriano drove in the winning run in the bottom of the 12th to send the series back to Phoenix with the Yankees leading 3-2.

Could anything top the drama in New York? Well, yes it could, but not right away.

Behind Johnson, the D-backs blew Andy Pettitte and the Yankees away 15-2 in Game 6, sort of the lull between dramas, as it were.

In Game 7, Schilling and the D-backs clung to a 1-0 lead over Clemens and the Yankees through six innings on Danny Bautista's RBI double, but Martinez tied it with an RBI single in the seventh, and when Soriano led off the eighth with a home run the Yanks took a one-run lead that loomed as large as 10 with Rivera and his 23 straight postseason saves warming up in the bullpen.

But Grace opened the home ninth with a single, and the usually smooth-fielding Rivera threw wildly to second on a sacrifice. One out later, Womack lined a double into the right field corner to drive in the tying run and advance the potential winning run to third.

Counsell was hit by a pitch to load the bases, and with the infield drawn in Gonzalez hit a soft little bloop that barely reached the outfield grass, Bell scored and pandemonium ensued.

The D-backs were World Champions, and fittingly, the winning pitcher — working in relief with just one day of rest — was Johnson. It was his third win of the Series, and earned him co-MVP honors with Schilling.

With the Big Unit and Schilling at their peak, the D-backs seemed to be favorably positioned for a repeat.

And indeed, the D-backs won six more games in 2002 than they had the previous year and claimed their third division title in five years, with Johnson going 21-6 and annexing a fourth straight Cy Young Award, and Schilling going 22-6.

But injuries, including the late season loss of Gonzalez, left the depleted D-backs in no shape to deal with the Cardinals, who swept them in the Division Series.

The injury-driven downward spiral continued in 2003, only more swiftly. Johnson went down on April 12 with a knee problem that would require surgery and limit him to 18 starts. Schilling had an appendectomy in April, broke a bone in his pitching hand in May and wound up making only 24 starts, and relievers Mike Koplove and Mantei also went down.

And that was just the pitchers. Among position players, Counsell missed two months with a thumb injury.

Pitchers Brandon Webb and Jose Valverde topped a list of 13 rookies that played for the big club that year. Webb had 10-9 record with a 2.84 ERA and opposing hitters batted only .212 against him, the third best figure in the National League. Valverde took up some of the slack in the depleted bullpen, racking up nine saves in May alone.

The downward spiral hit warp speed in 2004 when so many players went down with injuries, the club fielded its least experienced team since expansion, and lost 111 games.

But there were slivers of a silver lining even in this cloud, most notably Johnson's perfect game in Atlanta. He finished the season 16-14 and was second in the Cy Young race behind Clemens, though Johnson had better numbers in ERA (2.60 to 2.98), innings pitched (246 to 214) and strikeouts (290 to 218).

With the team in free-fall, Brenly was replaced as manager by Al Pedrique.

With Josh Byrnes installed as Senior Vice President and General Manager, and former bench coach Bob Melvin rejoining the team as manager, the upward spiral began in 2005. Schilling and Johnson were gone, but Gonzalez and Counsell were healthy again, Tony Clark had a sensational year with 30 home runs and 87 RBI in just 349 at bats, Troy Glaus hit 37 home runs and the club recorded a 26-win improvement at 77-85.

The upward spiral hit a slight hiccup in 2006, an emotional year of transition in which the D-backs said goodbye to veterans like Gonzalez and Counsell, and symbolically handed the torch to the what was hoped — and did turn out to be — next generation of winners.

Webb had quite a year, fashioning a 16-8 record with a 3.10 ERA, making the All-Star team, and capping it off by winning the Cy Young Award.

In 2007 the D-backs fooled the experts who, while lauding the team's collection of young talent, felt it was a year away from contender status in the West.

Oh, how wrong they were — the D-backs won 90 games, captured their fourth division title and beat the Cubs in the NL Division Series.

Center fielder Chris Young became the only second rookie in Major League history to have a 30-20 season and Webb made a strong run at another Cy Young Award, finishing second (18-10, 3.01).

In 2008, Webb and newcomer Dan Haren — acquired via a trade with Oakland in the offseason — each spent much of the season in the discussion for the National League Cy Young Award, with Webb eventually finishing second. He shattered his previous career high in wins with 22.

Haren was also brilliant, nearly mirroring Webb's totals in innings pitched and earned runs allowed. He led the D-backs in strikeouts with 206 and matched that with an absurdly low 40 walks, equating to less than two per nine innings.

The offense in 2008 saw breakout seasons by Upton and Stephen Drew, with continuing progression from Conor Jackson, Chris Snyder, Reynolds and Young. Drew was the team's best offensive player in the second half of the season, hitting .326, and reaching base 110 times with 23 doubles in 64 games. He led all big-league shortstops in extra-base hits for the season.

Upton got off to a terrific start, posting a .372 on-base percentage in March and April, with six doubles and five home runs. After battling back from an injury that kept him sidelined midseason, he finished as strong as he started, belting six doubles and four home runs with a .353 on-base percentage in September.

The feel-good story of the year was, undoubtedly, that of Davis. Diagnosed with thyroid cancer days before the start of the season, Davis spent six weeks on the disabled list, returning in dramatic fashion. He started in Atlanta on May 23, 44 days after his last start, and threw seven innings, allowing one run on just five hits and two walks to pick up a win.

The 2009 season was marred by time lost due to injuries, and it began almost immediately. Webb made his Opening Day start, but never took the mound again for the D-backs, as shoulder stiffness necessitated surgery. Jackson dealt with an illness early in the season, and after being diagnosed with Valley Fever, he, too, was shelved for the year. Snyder played through back pain, and was eventually shut down for six weeks midseason, and then again for the year in late August.

The year wasn't all bad news, by any means. Haren was brilliant, making his third consecutive trip the All-Star game, and second as a member of the D-backs. He finished fifth in N.L. Cy Young Award voting after going 14-10 with a 3.14 ERA in 229 1/3 innings.

Justin Upton had a breakout season, batting .300 with 26 home runs, 20 stolen bases, 85 RBI and 84 runs. His .366 on-base percentage led all D-backs regulars. Upton was named to his first All-Star Game in 2009, accompanying Haren to St. Louis.

Reynolds was the D-backs' other significant power bat, exploding for 44 home runs and 102 RBI, with a career-high .543 slugging percentage. He was one of only five N.L. batters to clear the 40-home-run barrier.

The D-backs celebrate winning their fourth NL West title in Colorado on Sept. 28, 2007.

Stephen Drew hit for the third cycle in franchise history on Sept. 1, 2008 (as seen above), and was named the D-backs' Player of the Year by the Arizona chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in 2008.

On May 7, 2009, the team replaced Melvin at manager with A.J. Hinch, who brought with him new hitting coach Jack Howell and pitching coach Mel Stottlemyre Jr.

Following the season, the D-backs made some significant changes to the roster, adding veteran bats and arms. Starting pitchers Edwin Jackson and Ian Kennedy were acquired in a three-way trade to join Webb and Haren in the rotation. Atlanta Braves first baseman Adam LaRoche and second baseman Kelly Johnson both signed in free agency.

Despite the plethora of new additions to the D-backs' roster, the team fell to the bottom of the NL West yet again in 2010.

Another major shakeup in the front office and manager's chair took place on July 1 when both Byrnes and Hinch were relieved of their duties. Former Vice President, Player Personnel Jerry Dipoto took over Byrnes' post on an interim basis while bench coach Kirk Gibson assumed the role of interim manager.

The struggles on the field continued for the D-backs during the second half of the season. In the end, Arizona finished with a 65-97 record and in last place in the NL West.

Despite not achieving the desired team results, 2010 saw several players achieve great success on the baseball diamond.

Kennedy and Johnson certainly did not disappoint in their first seasons in the desert. In his first full season in the Major Leagues, Kennedy earned nine wins with a 3.80 ERA. Kennedy showed dominance at times including his start on Aug. 26 when he tossed seven innings of one-hit baseball against the Padres.

Johnson experienced a breakout year at the plate with 26 home runs, 93 runs, 166 hits and 71 RBI.

Johnson's success at the plate was in full swing on July 24 against the Giants when he became the fourth player in team history to hit for the cycle.

Centerfielder Chris Young bounced back in 2010, and represented the D-backs at the All-Star Game in Anaheim. Young batted .257 with 27 home runs and drove in 91 runs.

On Aug. 7, fans packed Chase Field in the number retirement ceremony honoring Gonzalez. The pregame festivities were not the only reason to celebrate for D-backs faithful that night.

After leading off the game with a home run, Young struck again in the bottom of the ninth inning with a walk-off home run to seal the 6-5 victory over the Padres.

A pleasant surprise for the D-backs came in the form of right-hander Daniel Hudson who was acquired from the White Sox near the trade deadline.

Hudson quickly made an impact on the mound by winning his first three starts, and compiling a 7-1 record with a red hot 1.69 ERA. Hudson threw at least seven innings, and surrendered a combined four runs in his first three starts.

Kelly Johnson had a career-best season in 2010.

D-BACKS WORKING TOGETHER AND GIVING BACK IN ARIZONA

Established in 1997, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation focuses its efforts on three main areas of need: homelessness, indigent healthcare, and children's programs of all types, including education and youth baseball field development. Through fundraising activities, the team's charitable arm has raised and donated more than $17 million to the Arizona community. The cornerstone of giving for the foundation is the "Diamonds Back" Field Building Program, which has built or refurbished 30 youth baseball fields in Arizona since 2000.

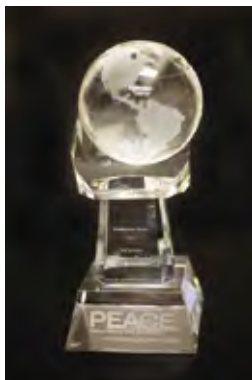

To say the Arizona Diamondbacks have a passion for community giving is an understatement.

For the last 14 years, the organization's ownership group, employees and players, along with the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, have been "working together" with numerous non-profit organizations and "giving back" to those who need a helping hand throughout Arizona. Whether it has been $100,000 Grand Slam Award grants, building youth baseball and softball fields in underserved areas or assisting dedicated fans through a downturn in the economy, money raised by the D-backs has been kept in Arizona to help those that are less fortunate.

Since forming the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation in 1997 a year before the expansion team took the field in 1998, the organization and the Foundation have made charitable contributions totaling $25.8 million to non-profit organizations throughout Arizona over the last 14 years. The organization's total giving includes $17.2 million in donations from the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and an additional $8.6 million from the club for sponsorships of local charitable events and cash contributions for multi-year capital campaigns to various organizations. The D-backs, who donated $2.4 million to local organizations in 2010, give back more each year than the combined totals of other the professional sports teams in Phoenix.

To summarize the D-backs commitment to establishing a footprint in communities throughout Arizona, the organization became the first professional sports team to win the inaugural 2010 United Nations NGO Positive Peace Award, beating out other finalist MLB teams such as the Texas Rangers, Kansas City Royals, Chicago White Sox as well as the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers and Atlanta Hawks and NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers, Kansas City Chiefs and Indianapolis Colts. The award, which names the D-backs the most positive team in the world and is viewed as a 21st century peace prize, honors and recognizes organizations positively impacting their communities through corporate responsibility. The D-backs were specifically awarded for their work with the Southwest Autism Research & Resource Center (SARRC) and the Boys & Girls Club of Metropolitan Phoenix.

2010 United Nations
NGO Positive Peace Award

True to its mission statement, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation focuses on three areas of need: homelessness, indigent healthcare and youth education programs of all types. The Foundation began awarding Grand Slam Award grants in 2002, including $100,000 to youth programs such as Junior Achievement of Arizona to prepare children to succeed in a global economy and to Great Hearts Academies' Teleos Prep Academy to be the first of its kind in the metro Phoenix area to deliver a top-tier, college prep education in a low-income community. The $100,000 grants have also assisted with indigent healthcare concerns in the Valley by providing Clinica Adelante a 39-foot mobile medical clinic to provide healthcare services at 17 schools in 11 rural communities and establishing a D-backs Good DeedWorks program with SARRC to provide teens with autism disorders training, mentoring and volunteer experiences as a means of occupational therapy. Additional grants were awarded to homeless causes such as the Desert Mission Food Bank to provide a refrigerated truck to deliver food throughout the Valley and to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul's evening meal program. Overall, 24 Grand Slam Awards totaling $2.3 million have been distributed from 2002-10 in addition to more than 800 program grants since 1998 totaling $3.7 million.

In their existence, the D-backs have been leaders within the sports industry by developing innovative programs that target specific needs.

After hearing that many of their fans were facing troubling times during the recent economic downturn, the D-backs became the first professional sports team to create a season-ticket scholarship program following the 2007 season to provide season tickets for fans who lost jobs or suffered a change in circumstances. The team rewarded 20 families a total of 75 lower-level season tickets valued at $115,000 for the 2011 season and have given out a total of 179 tickets worth $365,000 to 57 families during the four-year existence of the program.

The D-backs have also been leaders in developing diversity programs in local communities. Since 1997, the D-backs and the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation have donated $8 million to Hispanic-based foundations or community-based programs that serve the Hispanic community. Since 2009, the D-backs and Managing General Partner Ken Kendrick have contributed nearly $200,000 to the Tuzos Soccer Club to underwrite the league's expenses with costs for registration, field-use fees, uniforms and equipment. The Club allows players from low-income families the opportunity to play in high-level tournaments, where players can be seen by college and soccer coaches and have the opportunity to receive scholarships. The club has also provided D-backs tickets to students that excel at Title 1 elementary schools in the shadows of Chase Field through its President Pass program with St. Joseph's Hospital & Medical Center and middle and high school students through its D-backs Honor Roll program with University of Phoenix. The D-backs have also partnered with the Native American Baseball Invitational (NABI) to host an inter-tribal Native American youth baseball and softball tournament featuring more than 700 children representing 32 tribal nations throughout the country for the past 12 summers.

Since 2000, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation has built or refurbished 30 baseball fields as part of the "Diamonds Back" Field Building Program that have cost nearly $6 million. With the aid of APS, local businesses and monetary donations from individual players, the program has allowed children from across the state to play baseball and softball at quality facilities. The fields generally feature new lights, an electronic scoreboard, new fencing and backstops, new irrigation and new grass and dirt.

A staple in the community during his eight-year career with the D-backs, Luis Gonzalez wanted to continue to give back to youth-based charities after joining the D-backs front office near the end of the 2009 season. He created "Going Gonzo for Kids" as a multi-faceted fundraising initiative to capture the D-backs and his shared passion for positively impacting the lives of children. "Going Gonzo for Kids" raised $100,000 during the 2010 season and immediately gave the money back to children's charities such as Boys & Girls Club of Metropolitan Phoenix, St. Peter's Mission School, 100 Club of Arizona, Home Base Youth Services, Southwest Human Development, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Maggie's Place, Special Olympics of Arizona and SARRC.

To help fund the Foundation's unique programs throughout Arizona, the D-backs have been innovative in how they have fundraised to support their giving ways.

In 2007, the D-backs became the first professional sports team in Arizona to partner with Arizona's Department of Motor Vehicles to offer a branded license plate for their fans. Since then, nearly 9,000 fans have registered their vehicles with a D-backs license plate and $17 of the $25 annual fee goes directly back to the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation each year.

In just four years, the Foundation's signature event – Evening on the Diamond – has been ranked by the Phoenix Business Journal as the seventh-largest fundraising event in the Valley. Evening on the Diamond raised $1.3 million in 2010 and has raised more than $5.2 million since 2007. The nearly 800 people in attendance each year, including D-backs players and coaches, enjoy dinner on the infield at Chase Field followed by live per-performances from nationally-renowned entertainers such as Jay Leno, Bill Cosby and Kenny Loggins.

D-backs front-office employees have also been generous with their time and donations. Employees registered more than 1,000 hours of volunteer service in 2010 with organizations such as St. Vincent de Paul and Boys & Girls Club of Metropolitan Phoenix. The D-backs also raised $59,000 in their annual campaign drive among employees for the Valley of the Sun United Way and have totaled $218,000 in contributions since 2006.

As generous as the organization has been in the past with giving back to those in need throughout Arizona, 2011 is looking to be an All-Star year in community giving for the D-backs. With the 82nd annual All-Star Game coming to Chase Field on July 12, 2011, and the ancillary events surrounding the game, Major League Baseball and the D-backs will work hand-in-hand to establish programs that will have a significant impact in the community. Nearly $2 million will be given back to local community projects supported by the D-backs and MLB as part of the All-Star Legacy program.

A board of D-backs and Maricopa County appointees are responsible for annually approving all grant applications. The Arizona Diamondbacks take great pride in being recognized as a leader in community giving. Our commitment to the needs of our state will continue be a cornerstone of our corporate mission.

D-BACKS GROWING ORGANIZATIONAL CULTURE

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Arizona Diamondbacks is to provide industry-leading entertainment in a clean, safe and family-friendly environment and to make a positive impact on its fans and civic partners by focusing on team performance, fan experience, financial efficiency, workplace culture, and community contribution. In doing so, the organization will consistently compete for championships, treat its customers to quality service and entertainment, invest in its product, employees and fans, and establish and maintain a position of leadership in the community.

While success on the field and financial stability are utmost priorities for the D-backs from a business perspective, the team emphasizes one other thing equally as much — strong corporate culture.

The culture is evident, of course, in the organization's "Circle of Success," and can be seen in First Friday luncheons, quarterly employee outings and other events. The "Circle of Success" focuses the organization's efforts on performance, community, culture, financial efficiency and fan experience, the culture has been re-energized in the D-backs front office.

The organization's investment into its employees has not gone unnoticed. Beginning in 2007, and for four consecutive years, the D-backs were named one of the "Best Places to Work" in Phoenix by the Phoenix Business Journal and BestCompaniesAZ. The D-backs received the same honor by PHOENIX magazine in 2008.

On the first Friday of every month, D-backs employees are treated to lunch, along with an interview segment between President & CEO Derrick Hall and a special guest, which has included influential people inside the organization as well as externally, such as Major League Baseball executive Laurel Prieb and local musician Roger Clyne.

It is at these meetings that Hall also introduces the organization's Employee of the Month, who earns a personalized D-backs jersey, plaques, an executive parking space for the month and a spot on the team's prestigious President's Council.

The ownership group and executive management team met with small groups of employees through "General Partnership" lunches and "President Roundtable" meetings to communicate the organization's goals and objectives while also taking suggestions from employees. Through feedback from employees, a President's Council was formed, comprised of select members of the executive management team and a rotating committee consisting of the organization's Employee of the Month winners.

The President's Council meets regularly to discuss wide-ranging organizational topics, including selecting Employees of the Month and scheduling quarterly employee outings, which have included bowling and golf tournaments, a yearly softball tournament held at Chase Field, and community projects such as volunteering at St. Mary's Food Bank.

The President's Council is also treated to an annual trip prior to the start of the season. In January 2011, the group travelled to Los Angeles to see a live taping of NBC's "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno" and visit Disneyland, allowing the group to take in an experience at a facility that prides itself on great customer experiences, much like the D-backs.

The organization also has D-backs University, a comprehensive educational learning experience for employees to enhance their current abilities while also having a chance to learn additional skills for future career development. Through this process, employees were provided an eight-week Spanish course to enhance their language skills.

When team employees are not hard at work at Chase Field, or enjoying complimentary tickets and discounts on team merchandise, they are likely to be taking advantage of the exceptional holiday and vacation policy provided by the D-backs.

Holidays are important and observed by D-backs employees. They receive a birthday holiday, two weeks of paid holiday break, and 11 paid holidays each year. Four days off per year are also provided for employees to participate in a community service project of their choice. The D-backs realize that rest and relaxation is necessary for its employees, thus granting employees frequent half days and up to 20 days of paid vacation leave each year.

While the team has several avenues to honor team employees, the organization wanted to find a way to pay tribute to game-day employees who are, to many D-backs fans, the face of the franchise. This includes employees from game operations, guest relations, guest services, Levy restaurants, security, Team Shop, ticket offices, traffic support systems, and suites and premium services.

These standout employees are honored on the field in a pregame ceremony and presented with an engraved wooden bat and a special lapel pin by Hall and a D-backs player. Each employee also receives a framed picture of the presentation to commemorate this special recognition.

The A-Game All-Stars policy is part of the larger FAWTSY (Find A Way To Say Yes) customer service policy which is adhered to by the entire organization to further improve upon the extraordinary fan experience at Chase Field.

The D-backs also have an annual United Way campaign, during which two D-backs employees are given the opportunity to take leadership roles for presentations throughout the company.

While the D-backs take a great deal of pride in their presentation to those outside Chase Field, it's equally important to express the gratitude for the hard work done by those inside the ballpark. With monthly events and larger-scale annual occurrences, the D-backs are putting a strong emphasis on employee culture, to show appreciation to all team employees.

STADIUM NAME	Bank One Ballpark March 31, 1998-Sept. 22, 2005 Chase Field Sept. 23, 2005-present *Bank One Ballpark renamed Chase Field on Sept. 23, 2005

With constant improvements to Chase Field, including great new corporate sponsors, D-backs fans have a new and improved ballpark experience each season.

In 2009, the D-backs introduced the very successful All-You-Can-Eat Seats, which allow fans to enjoy a D-backs game and all their favorite ballpark food. Conveniently positioned one level below the St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center Sandlot kids' area, the new family-friendly section features its own private lounge with plenty of space to move around plus extra-wide seats with added leg room. Fans can enjoy unlimited ballpark fare, such as hot dogs, popcorn, chips, peanuts, soda and water.

For Opening Day 2007, the initial stage of D-backs President & CEO Derrick Hall's vision for an expansive, interactive kids' area at Chase Field was completed, when a Wiffle ball field was launched at a previously underused area on the upper level in left field. In August of that year, the area began to grow, incorporating Futures Field, a playground and a batting cage. Over the offseason, the area received an upgrade thanks to a partnership agreement with St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center.

The partnership with St. Joseph's enhanced the character of the area, which was refurbished with a "sandlot" look and feel reminiscent of old-style baseball fields while promoting a healthy and active lifestyle for kids.

In addition to the St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center branding elements, the team added a toddler playground, and remodeled the kids' playground clubhouses in an effort to be more user-friendly to accessible-needs children, maximize available space and to ease congestion within the playground.

In 2008, the D-backs also introduced the most notable and sizable change to Chase Field — dBTV.

Towering high above center field is the most magnificent video board in Major League Baseball, a 136-foot-by-46-foot high definition LED board, made by Daktronics.

Based in Brookings, S.D., Daktronics is one of the world's leading manufacturers of electronic video boards and other large display systems. The company also worked with the D-backs and the Maricopa County Stadium District on installing Chase Field's sound system, which was updated in 2006, and the LED ribbon display installed prior to the 2007 season that rings the second deck of the stadium. The ribbon runs 1,119 feet and is the largest of its kind in Major League Baseball.

The LED (light-emitting diode) video board is so wide that it is capable of displaying two true high-definition 16:9 images side by side. It also provides the D-backs video crew with many display options, including using it to show one wide video display, or to segment into multiple windows showing a video, animation, still images, a scoreboard and more.

The board has 880 native lines of resolution and provides video in up to 4.4 trillion colors. The board is eight times bigger than the previous CRT video board that was used for the D-backs' first 10 years.

New in 2011, the D-backs and visitors lineup boards on each side of dBTV are high definition boards as well, allowing the team to now integrate every Chase Field video board into the in-game video presentations.

The LED board technology has helped to keep Chase Field among the world's most innovative and technology-driven stadiums. It's not the first time Chase Field has been considered innovative, however.

Nestled among Jefferson Street to the north, Fourth Street to the south and Seventh Street to the east, Chase Field is the epicenter of the downtown Phoenix sports experience. When ground first broke on the building in November 1995, it was always intended to be among baseball's most unique parks. Then-named Bank One Ballpark was the first to feature a pool, is fully air-conditioned and features a retractable roof.

The RideNow Powersports Pool sits 415 feet from home plate and has been the recipient of many home run balls. The first was hit by Mark Grace, though not during his three years as a D-backs first baseman. He hit it prior to coming to Arizona, as a member of the Chicago Cubs, on May 12, 1998.

With all of the amenities and unique facets of the facility, one can easily imagine that it took significant time to build. The project began more than two years before the D-backs ever played a game, but it took all of that time — 28 months in total — to complete the structure, at a cost of $354 million. The park was designed by Ellerbe Beckett, with Bill Johnson serving as the design principal, John Watson as project manager and the Huber Hunt & Nichols company working as the managing contractor.

The designers borrowed from the downtown Phoenix warehouse district in their concepts, using red brick and exposed green structural steel. They even borrowed a real warehouse, in fact, incorporating the former Arizona

Citrus Growers' Packing House as the south façade of the building, currently used as a commissary for Chase Field's concession stands.

On Sept. 23, 2005, the stadium name was changed to Chase Field (from the previous Bank One Ballpark) after the merger between Chase and Bank One.

The ballpark was officially opened when the D-backs took on the Colorado Rockies on March 31, 1998, though it has since been used for many events other than baseball.

During the 2004 elections, President George W. Bush held a rally for supporters at the ballpark.

The park is more known for its sports-related uses, of course. Arizona State University and the University of Arizona played two "Challenge at Chase" games at the park in 2006 and 2007, with the Arizona Wildcats winning both times. The stadium hosted the first-ever outdoor college basketball game, when the ASU women's team hosted Tennessee Dec. 27, 2000. The Sun Devils played at the ballpark again on Dec. 18, 2006, though the basketball game was cut short with just over four minutes to go because rain began to fall through the opened roof. Chase Field was also the former home of the Insight Bowl, part of college football's yearly bowl series. The final Insight Bowl played at Chase Field was won by ASU 45-40 over Rutgers.

The field has also been used to host the Professional Bull Riders Built Ford Tough Series, AMA Supercross, several international soccer matches and monster truck competition in the Monster Jam series.

One of the signature non-D-backs events that Chase Field has hosted was indeed baseball, though. Prior to the 2006 season, Major League Baseball and the International Baseball Federation used the facility to host the opening round of the first World Baseball Classic. The United States defeated Mexico, 2-0, in the first game played at Chase. Of course, the ballpark will host the 82nd annual MLB All-Star Game on July 12, 2011.

One of the main reasons Chase Field is considered such a desirable host for sporting events is, of course, its retractable roof. Made with nine million pounds of structural steel and operating with similar technology as draw bridges and overhead traveling cranes, the roof is opened and closed with a pair of 200-horsepower motors taking a little more than four minutes. It also incorporates more than four miles of cable strung through a pulley system. It opens from the middle, so the two segments of the roof can be opened or closed either in unison or independently, depending on need.

The roof opens and closes to its own music, which was composed to time out at exactly the four and a half minutes needed to move it.

On game days, the roof is left open to help grow the natural grass that is used on the playing field. The surface consists of Bull's Eye Bermuda, which is considered the most suitable grass for a retractable-roof stadium. Should sunlight prove to be insufficient, requiring more light on some days, large incandescent lights provide a substitute.

A decision is then made on a day-to-day basis of whether the roof will remain open or closed at game time. The main factor is, of course, the weather. If there is inclement weather, or the threat of inclement weather, the roof will be closed, as it will during day games in the summer when Phoenix temperatures are regularly well over 100 degrees. Because Chase Field is positioned directly north-south, the roof is rarely open during day games even in comfortable weather because of the effect that the afternoon sunlight has on fans along the first-base line.

For those hot summer games, Chase Field is air conditioned using the Northwinds cooling system, which was designed to cool down the highly populated facilities in Downtown Phoenix in 2001. The system cools the ballpark in less time than the prior air conditioning system did, which allows for the roof to remain open longer during the day time.

The air conditioning, along with the LED board and pool area, is all part of the overall Chase Field experience, along with the food and in-game entertainment, of course.

In nearly a quarter mile of concession stand area, fans can order nearly any kind of food imaginable. In addition to standard ballpark fare offered at many stands, fans can order from SUBWAY, Fatburger, Macayo's, Cold Stone Creamery, Panda Express, TCBY and Mrs. Fields, and Streets of New York, which is new to Chase Field this season. D-backs concession areas proudly serve Oscar Mayer hot dogs and Pepsi and Aquafina products.

Like the combination of a dirt strip to the mound and a retractable roof, the in-game entertainment is a blend of old and new. While the game operations crew plays current hits with the state-of-the-art sound system, the D-backs also incorporate organ music by Bobby Freeman, who has been with the organization since its inception.

With a hot dog in hand, singing along to "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" played on the stadium organ, and all sorts of video playing on the new high-definition board all in air-conditioned comfort, the Chase Field experience is second-to-none.

CHASE FIELD GROUND RULES

HEIGHT, WEIGHT: 6'0", 200
BATS/THROWS: Right/Right

Phoenix, Ariz.

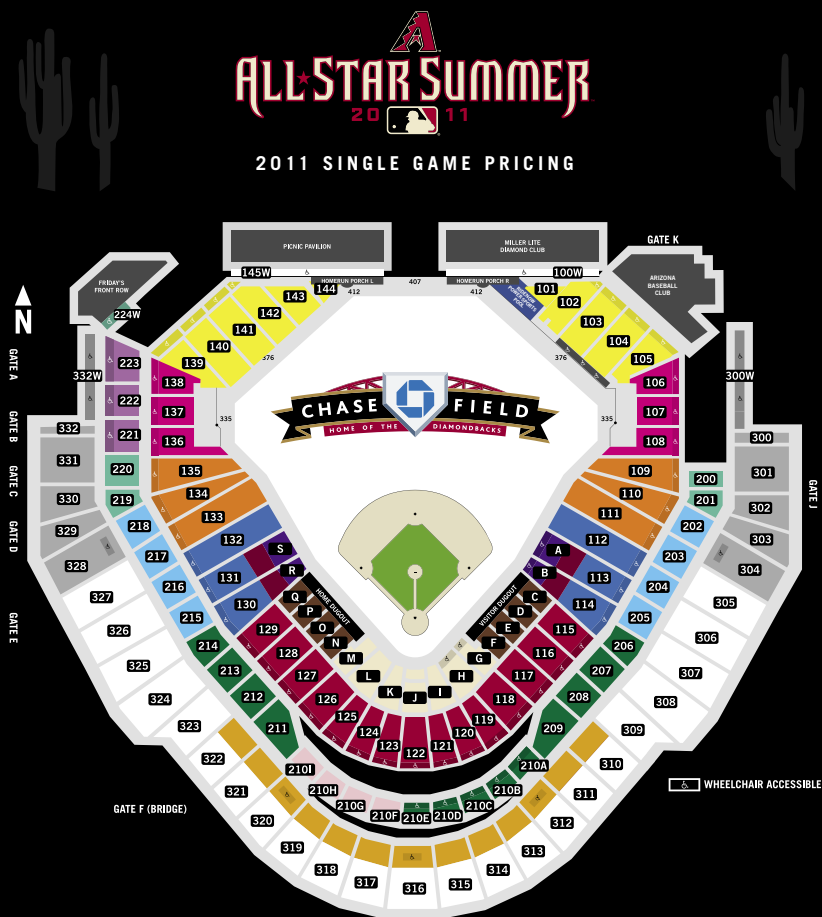

RESIDENCE: Baxter's Den
at Chase Field

D. Baxter the Bobcat came out of the bag on June 23, 2000, at Chase Field. The idea for the mascot came from Brantley Bell, son of former second baseman Jay Bell, who explained to his dad that the team should have a "BOB" cat as a mascot since the team played in the BOB (Bank One Ballpark). Bell informed management about his son's idea and the mascot was developed.

Today, Baxter has gained acceptance throughout the baseball world for his athleticism and an infamous "fur" ball. In addition to his numerous game-day responsibilities, Baxter also serves as an ambassador for the D-backs organization, venturing off the field to visit hospitals, schools, community festivals, and corporate functions throughout the Valley and the state of Arizona. At every home game, Baxter can be found signing autographs and taking photographs with all of his adoring fans.

For more information on Baxter, call 602.462.6630.

D-BACKS USHER IN NEW ERA AT SALT RIVER FIELDS AT TALKING STICK

When the Arizona Diamondbacks first teamed up with the Colorado Rockies and the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community, the group had only one goal in mind — to build the best Spring Training facility in Major League Baseball.

Now, 15 months after the three partners broke ground on the new facility, the D-backs, Rockies and the Salt River Indian Community welcome baseball fans to Salt River Fields at Talking Stick.

The project began with the desire to relieve taxpayers of the burden that is typically associated with building sports facilities. Salt River Fields is the first professional sports facility to be built on Indian land, and henceforth, was built without the use of any taxpayer funds.

The name Salt River Fields at Talking Stick is a reference to the Salt River Indian Community's cultural heritage. "Salt River" alerts baseball fans they are visiting the Salt River Indian Community, while "Fields" refers to the 12 practice fields located throughout the facility and the Community's rich agricultural history. "Talking Stick" is a reference to the traditional Pima calendar on which carvers recorded historical events and milestones. The Pima and Maricopa cultures are featured through language, story and architectural design throughout the facility.

This new state-of-the-art facility is spread over 140 acres in the Northeast Valley near Indian Bend Rd. and the Loop 101 Freeway. The location will be quick to get to for fans in the East Valley, while being accessible to the West Valley on the Loop 101 Freeway. Salt River Fields is located only 21 miles from Chase Field in downtown Phoenix and 16 miles from Phoenix Sky Harbor Airport.

Salt River Fields can seat 11,000 baseball fans, with 7,000 seats in the seating bowl and 4,000 on the outfield lawn seating. The facility was designed to have the most shading among all Cactus League parks to ensure the maximum comfort for fans. Virtually all fans sitting above the cross aisle will be in the shade for the entire game each day, and approximately 85 percent of the fans in all 7,000 fixed seats will be shaded as the game progresses. Of course, fans who want to soak up the Arizona sun in March can stretch out on the outfield lawn seating, which has the largest capacity of any Cactus League ballpark.

The D-backs have organizational philosophies that focus on fan friendliness and made sure the facility was designed to keep fan interaction with players a top priority. Because of this, Salt River Fields offers a fan experience unlike any other facility. The main stadium is located in the middle of the facility, with the 12 practice fields, batting cages and clubhouses rotating all around it. Fans will be able to mingle throughout the facility to get an up close look at Major League players as they go through practice sessions. There is no facility in Major League Baseball better suited for fans to interact with players, collect autographs and take photos. On-site parking can accommodate approximately 3,000 cars.

The main stadium also boasts a high definition video scoreboard that features LED technology, which at 1,150-square feet is the largest video board at any Spring Training ballpark in the country. The stadium also includes three Party Deck areas (Pepsi Patio, Miller Lite Taste Zone, Coors Light Cold Zone) that provide an outstanding view of the on-field action and a great place to socialize with guests in a standing-room-only bar-style lounge area.

The facility was designed by the architecture firm HKS Sports & Entertainment, which boasts a portfolio including Cowboys Stadium in Dallas, Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis and Miller Park in Milwaukee. Mortenson Construction was the general contractor that built Salt River Fields at Talking Stick. Their portfolio includes Target Field in Minneapolis, Coors Field in Denver and the Edward Jones Dome in St. Louis. Mortenson Construction and HKS also teamed up to build the Camelback Ranch Spring Training facility in Glendale, Ariz.

More than two million man hours were consumed to build Salt River Fields from November 2009 to February 2011, enabling the facility to be the largest sports project in the Southwest during that period. Many Community members were employed during the process as 15 Native American-owned construction vendors were used.

The more than 2 million square feet of Tifway 419 sod was planted offsite at West Coast Turf's sod farm in Eloy, Ariz. during the summer months in 2009 and then installed on the practice fields at Salt River Fields beginning in June 2010. The sod on the practice fields went through normal cycles of growth and a fall overseed prior to the turf being laid down in the main stadium in December 2010. A three-acre man-made lake at the facility is used for irrigation of all of the practice fields.

With unmatched views of Camelback Mountain, the McDowell Mountains, Four Peaks, Red Mountain and the Superstition Mountains, the facility incorporates the natural beauty of the Sonoran Desert ecosystem, reflecting Arizona's natural architecture, including native colors to natural materials.

Salt River Fields also achieved LEED Silver certification from the United States Green Building Council (USGBC) after its completion, becoming the first Spring Training venue in the country to receive such recognition.

D-BACKS TO HOST 82nd ANNUAL MLB ALL-STAR GAME

The Arizona Diamondbacks will host Major League Baseball's All-Star Summer in downtown Phoenix from July 8-12, 2011, as Chase Field will play host to the 82nd annual Major League Baseball All-Star Game on July 12, 2011.

This will be the first time in the 14-year history of the D-backs that the team will host the Midsummer Classic, as the D-backs are the 28th big league team to host an All-Star Game. Commissioner Bud Selig announced at a press conference on April 11, 2009, that Chase Field would be the site of the 2011 All-Star Game.

The All-Star festivities will not only expose downtown Phoenix to the world and be a memorable experience for D-backs fans, but also serve as a significant vehicle to drive business to the Valley.

The economic impact of an All-Star Game is significant for the host cities, as visitors make use of hotels, transportation, restaurants and tourist attractions. The Greater Phoenix Convention and Visitors Bureau estimates that the 2011 Major League All-Star Game will have a $67 million impact on the Valley, which, if the number holds true, would be the third-highest financial impact among Major League Baseball All-Star Games played in the last 12 years. The estimated figure will almost double the $35 million of economic impact the 2009 NBA All-Star Game delivered to the Valley.

The All-Star Game is broadcast in 219 countries and territories and in 20 languages, and will showcase Chase Field to more than 100 million homes. The Major League Baseball All-Star Game is the most popular and highest rated All-Star Game in professional sports. The 2010 game in Anaheim reached 29.5 million TV viewers, drawing a 7.5 rating according to Nielsen Media Research. That rating was higher than the 7.1 rating the NFL drew for the 2010 Pro Bowl and was nearly twice as high as the NBA's 3.8 rating. The 2010 State Farm Home Run Derby reached 18.2 million viewers, and the average viewership of the event exceeds that of the NBA's All-Star Saturday by 26 percent as the most highly watched All-Star skills competition in sports.

More than 2,000 members of the media from throughout the world are expected to be credentialed for the All-Star Game at Chase Field.

Fan voting to elect the starting position players for the National and American League teams will begin on April 26, 2011, both online and in person at Major League ballparks throughout the country. In 2010, baseball fans across the world filled out more than 20 million paper ballots, which were distributed to Major League teams, minor league teams and in 1,700 Lowe's locations nationwide. Baseball fans also helped pick competitors in the State Farm Home Run Derby and cast 52 million online ballots in the Sprint All-Star Final Vote.

One of the most popular annual elements of All-Star festivities is the MLB All-Star FanFest, which will take place from July 8-12 at the Phoenix Convention Center. More than 118,000 tickets were sold to the 2010 All-Star FanFest at the Anaheim Convention Center, the fourth-highest attendance in the 20-year history of the event.

Major League Baseball will work hand-in-hand with the D-backs to establish programs that will have a significant impact on the local Phoenix community. A portion of the funds generated from Taco Bell All-Star Sunday on July 10, 2001 at Chase Field will generate more than $1 million that will be given back to local community projects supported by the D-backs and MLB as part of the All-Star Legacy program.

E.G. (KEN) KENDRICK

Managing General Partner

A charter member of the ownership group that brought baseball to the Valley of the Sun, Ken Kendrick's involvement in the general partnership took on added significance in 2004 when he assumed the role of Managing General Partner of the Arizona Diamondbacks. Kendrick has taken an active role in the day-to-day operation of the D-backs and is the organization's designated representative when Major League Baseball owners convene during the course of the year.

After receiving a B.S. in Business Administration from West Virginia University in 1965, Kendrick started his career with IBM in Baltimore. Three years later, he founded Datatel, Inc., which has become the industry leader in the development of computer software for the management of infrastructure technology for colleges, universities and foundations.

As Datatel continued to grow and prosper in the 1980s, Kendrick stepped down from the daily oversight of the company to explore new business opportunities. He served as President of a Texas-based financial services technology company for four years in the 1980s. In 1989, Kendrick became the principal investor in Woodforest National Bank in The Woodlands, Texas, which now is one of the nation's largest employee-owned banks. Kendrick also owns Bumble Bee Ranch, which is devoted to providing western lifestyle experiences to children's charities throughout Arizona.

He is very active in many other philanthropic endeavors, beginning with his role as Chairman of the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation. He and his wife, Randy, were the 2007 Living and Giving Honorees for the Desert Southwest Chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Kendrick also received the Visionary Award from the Foundation for Blind Children, Spirit of the Children Award from Childhelp USA, Today's Kids/Tomorrow's Stars honoree of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Phoenix, River Conservator of the Year by the Roaring Fork Conservancy and was named Man of the Year by the March of Dimes. He also serves on boards for various charities including the Phoenix Art Museum, The Buddy Program, Childhelp USA, Helping Hands Housing, Challenger Center for Space Science Education, TGen Foundation, Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Roaring Fork Conservancy, and is Founding Chairman of the Datatel Scholars Foundation.

An avid baseball card collector his entire life, Kendrick revealed in 2010 that he purchased the famed 1909 T206 Honus Wagner card that was once owned by hockey great Wayne Gretzky. The Wagner card and 24 other iconic and rare baseball cards in Kendrick's collection, titled "The Ultimate Set," are currently on temporary loan and displayed at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y.

A native of Princeton, W.Va., Kendrick is an alumnus of West Virginia University in Morgantown and sits on the Board of Directors for the WVU Foundation. He and his wife have established programs at WVU's College of Business and Economics focused on free-market research and at the WVU Eye Institute to support children's vision outreach programs. Kendrick funded the WVU Hall of Traditions, which provides a first-class showcase for the tradition of Mountaineer football and serves as a recruiting focal point at WVU. In 2006, Kendrick was inducted into the state of West Virginia's Business Hall of Fame and was also named to the WVU Academy of Distinguished Alumni. He also sits on an advisory board of the University of Charleston in Charleston, W.Va., where he received an honorary Doctorate degree in 2005.

Kendrick and his wife founded the Freedom Center at the University of Arizona to promote, along four dimensions, the understanding and appreciation of the ideals of freedom and responsibility via published research, undergraduate education, graduate education, and community outreach. The Freedom Center also endows the Kendrick Chair in Philosophy and Economics.

Kendrick and his wife, Randy, and their two children, Cal and Catie, make their home in Paradise Valley.

2001 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP REUNION WEEKEND

The Arizona Diamondbacks will officially celebrate the 10th anniversary of the club's World Series win over the New York Yankees this season during "2001 World Championship Reunion Weekend" when the San Diego Padres visit Chase Field Sept. 9-11. The celebration will begin with the current D-backs club wearing "throwback" jerseys in the Sept. 9 game against the Padres. The uniforms will feature the traditional purple pinstripes and the "A" logo consisting of the organization's former color scheme of purple, teal and copper. Members of the 2001 World Championship team will return to Chase Field on Sept. 10 and be honored during pre-game ceremonies. The former D-backs players will also be celebrated during the game while the organization relives an inning-by-inning recap of the club's Game 7 win against the Yankees. Closing out the weekend, the D-backs will honor first responders in remembrance of the many Americans who lost their lives on the 10th anniversary of the tragic 9/11 events in New York City, Washington, D.C. and Pennsylvania.

MIKE CHIPMAN

General Partner

Mike Chipman is one of the three general partners who possess the largest financial stake in the franchise, and while he takes a low-profile approach to his role, his business acumen is invaluable when the partners assemble to make executive decisions regarding the shaping of the D-backs.

A graduate from the U.S. Air Force Academy with a degree in Computer Science, Chipman spent five years in the basic research arm of the Air Force, attaining the rank of Captain before resigning his commission to pursue a career in civilian life. He spent the next few years as a research scientist working in the area of computational physics, principally at Science Application International in La Jolla, Calif.

Chipman then made a huge impact in the computer software industry in the early 1980s when he became an investor and founder of Chipsoft, Inc., the original owner and developer of TurboTax®, the leading income tax preparation software program for consumers and small businesses. Chipman served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Chipsoft until 1990 and Vice Chairman until 1993, when Chipsoft and TurboTax® were sold to Intuit, Inc. Chipsoft grew from a spare room operation in the Chipman's home to a 550-person public company by the time he retired at age 45.

Since retirement, Chipman has invested in various businesses principally through an Investment Angels group. Chipman has had a hand in the development of the highly successful Bank of Internet USA and has been involved as an investor with other banks in Northern Nevada. He has been an owner of commercial real estate in Arizona for more than a decade during which time he became one of the primary investors in the D-backs.

In 2008, Chipman ventured on a dream of his to complete the 2,650-mile Pacific Crest Trail hike on foot from near the Mexican border in California into British Columbia in Canada. The trek took him more than five months to complete the majority of the trail from April through September. He finished the remainder in 2010.

Chipman and his wife, Evy, make their home in Lake Tahoe, Nev., where he has built a model railroad, complete with nearly 1,700 trees, a project that has kept him busier than he even imagined. The Chipmans spend a lot of "baseball time" locally in Paradise Valley after having wintered in Carefree for 10 years.

JEFF ROYER

General Partner

Jeff Royer's family is an original founding investor in the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Royer's involvement has grown to become a member of the General Partnership. Royer's love for baseball began in his youth as a devoted fan of Warren Spahn, the record-setting left-handed pitcher of the Milwaukee Braves. In the Wisconsin town where he grew up, work schedules were often made around the Braves' game schedule. He learned at a young age that baseball would be his primary sports interest.

Royer's business career began in investment banking. Since the late 1980s, Royer's work has focused on private equity investing but the primary focus of his business interests is telecommunications. His private and public investments include Galtronics Ltd., an antenna company, and Shaw Communications, a Canadian cable and satellite company.

Jeff, his wife, and family are all devotees of the game and spend as much time in Phoenix as possible. He makes his residence in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

DERRICK HALL

President & CEO

After developing the finest fan experience in all of sports and an employee culture that has been recognized annually while striving to place a competitive team on the field on a yearly basis as the Arizona Diamondbacks' President & CEO, Derrick Hall's vision to further establish the organization as a sports industry leader while also spurring economic development and impact throughout the Valley has come to fruition in 2011.

The unveiling of Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the D-backs new 140-acre Spring Training facility shared with the Colorado Rockies on Salt River Indian Community land near Scottsdale, Ariz., will greatly add to the already $350 million of economic impact for the Valley associated with Spring Training each year.

Hall's vision for Salt River Fields was to keep fan interaction with players a top priority while also ensuring maximum comfort for visitors attending games at the 11,000-seat ballpark. Both goals were accomplished, as the main stadium is located in the middle of the facility to enable fans to mingle throughout and get an up close look at D-backs players as they practice. A unique roof structure and a northeast-facing field allow for approximately 85 percent of the fans in all 7,000 fixed seats to be shaded as the game progresses. Salt River Fields also boasts three Party Deck areas for fans wanting a unique game experience, a 1,150-square-foot high definition video board that is the largest among Spring Training ballparks in the country and a 4,000-person lawn seating area that is the largest among any Cactus League facility. Salt River Fields is also the first professional sports training facility in the U.S. to be built on tribal land and was privately funded without the use of any taxpayer dollars.

Not only will Salt River Fields continue to be an economic driver for parts of the Valley, but approximately $67 million in economic impact is expected in downtown Phoenix when the MLB All-Star Game will be played at Chase Field on July 12, 2011. Hall's persistence in convincing MLB to award the Midsummer Classic to the D-backs will allow Chase Field and downtown Phoenix to be showcased in more than 100 million homes this summer, as the game will be broadcast in 219 countries and territories and in 20 languages. He has worked diligently with city leaders, politicians and officials during the last three years to ensure that fans have the finest All-Star Game experience when visiting the Valley this summer.

Fans visiting downtown Phoenix during All-Star Summer events will experience the first phase of another legacy project Hall has spent the last two years developing with the NBA's Phoenix Suns. The Legends Entertainment District, a joint venture project that is the first of its kind between two professional sports organizations, will create an experiential outdoor marketing project that will create an energetic backdrop for people to enjoy their experience downtown. Hall and his Suns' counterpart collaborated with city officials to change ordinances for large-form advertising in downtown Phoenix. The district will include nearly 55,000 square feet of digital signage and large format super graphic billboards between Chase Field and US Airways Center, including the largest signage available anywhere in the Phoenix metro area.

Hall has been invaluable in the community establishing relationships with civic leaders and serving on the board of the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, which along with the organization has given back $12 million to non-profit organizations throughout Arizona in the past five years under his direction and a total of $25.8 million since its inception in 1997.

His leadership in the local community has allowed the D-backs to become the first professional sports team to win the inaugural 2010 United Nations NGO Positive Peace Award, beating out other finalist MLB teams such as the Texas Rangers, Kansas City Royals, Chicago White Sox as well as the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers and Atlanta Hawks and NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers, Kansas City Chiefs and Indianapolis Colts. The award, which names the D-backs the most positive team in the world and is viewed as a 21st century peace prize, honors and recognizes organizations positively impacting their communities through corporate responsibility.

Hall established a first-of-its-kind season ticket scholarship program for fans or existing season ticket holders who may have experienced a change in circumstances, which resulted in a total of 57 families being given full season tickets worth a combined total value of more than $365,000 since 2008. He currently serves on 27 boards, including the Arizona Mexico Commission, Great Hearts Academies, Arizona Chamber of Commerce, Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce, Greater Phoenix Convention & Visitors Bureau, Muscular Dystrophy Association, National Advisory Council for Pancreatic Cancer and US Airways Education Foundation. Hall, who is the incoming Chairman of the Board for the Valley of the Sun United Way, raised $47 million throughout the Phoenix area as the non-profit organization's 2009-10 campaign chairman. Hall has also raised money by serving as an event chairman for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF), Southwest Autism Research & Resource Center (SARRC) and the Foundation for Blind Children.

Hall, who was named team president in September 2006 and later added the title of CEO in January 2009, revitalized the culture throughout the organization by developing mission and values statements for all employees, including a "Circle of Success" to focus the organization's efforts on fan experience, performance, community, culture and financial efficiency. He created a President's Council, comprised of select members of the executive management team and a rotating committee consisting of the organization's Employee of the Month winners, to organize numerous company culture events throughout the year. Hall also established employee recognition programs like "A-Game All-Stars" to reward game-day employees for exceptional service on a monthly basis throughout the season. The organization's investment in its employees resulted in the D-backs becoming the first sports organization to be named a "Best Places to Work" by the Phoenix Business Journal and BestCompaniesAZ for four consecutive years from 2007-10, as well as by PHOENIX magazine in 2008.

Hall also routinely communicates with D-backs fans as part of his "one fan at a time" concept by answering every letter, email or phone call. He conducts monthly chats on the Internet and spends most of his time at home games communicating with the fans in the stands to ensure their fan experience at Chase Field is exceptional. Numerous fan experience enhancements at Chase Field were added under Hall's leadership, including the solar shade structure in the plaza area, high-definition video scoreboard in center field, the St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center's Sandlot on the upper level, the Miller Lite Diamond Club, All-You-Can-Eat Seats on the Insight Diamond level and value-item pricing at concession stands and Team Shop locations throughout the ballpark. Hall also installed, named and created a FAWTSY (Find A Way To Say Yes) customer service policy throughout the organization to further improve upon the extraordinary fan experience at Chase Field.

Hall, who serves on MLB's diversity committee, now gives numerous keynote speeches to various groups or conventions throughout the country about his unique vision on leadership, customer service and culture. He donates all speaking engagement fees back to the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation and other non-profit organizations he supports.

Hall originally joined the D-backs in May 2005 as Senior Vice President, Communications and served in numerous other categories until being named president. Prior to joining the D-backs, Hall made a brief stop as Senior Vice President, Corporate Communications for KB Home, a Fortune 500 company based in Los Angeles, where he increased the brand awareness of the nation's fifth-largest homebuilder. He spent parts of 12 seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers, joining the organization's Single-A Florida State League affiliate in Vero Beach, Fla., in 1992 and departing as the club's Senior Vice President, Communications in 2004. In between, he served key roles during three ownership changes with the Dodgers and was recognized for reuniting Fernando Valenzuela with the organization after hiring him as a color analyst for the team's Spanish radio broadcasts in 2003.

Hall stepped outside of baseball for employment during the 1999 season, first as a member of the media as a host for a three-hour morning talk show on the Dodgers' flagship station (XTRA 1150 AM) and as host of the "Dodger Game Day" pre-game radio show when the team played at Dodger Stadium. He also had a stint in front of the camera as a weekend sports anchor at KNBC-TV (Ch. 4) in Los Angeles.

Hall received a bachelor's degree from Arizona State University, where he was named "Man of the Year" in 1991, in broadcasting and journalism and a master's degree from Ohio University in sports administration. In 2002, he was inducted into the ASU Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communications Alumni Hall of Fame and was awarded the ASU Young Alumni Achievement Award in 2003. In 2006, Ohio University's Sports Administration Program awarded Hall as the 25th recipient of the Charles R. Higgins Distinguished Alumnus Award. Hall was the keynote speaker for ASU's Cronkite school convocation in December 2008, becoming the first Cronkite alum to deliver a commencement speech at the school's graduation.

In 2007, Hall was named to the Phoenix Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" class, was the recipient of the "Community Lifeline Award" from Teen Lifeline and was named the Phoenix Father's Day Council "Father of the Year" to benefit the American Diabetes Association. The SportsBusiness Journal added him to its prestigious "Forty Under 40" class in 2008. The Phoenix Business Journal also named Hall to its inaugural list of "Most Admired CEOs" in 2009. Hall is also a member of the ASU W.P. Carey School of Business "Dean's Council of 100," Young Presidents' Organization and the Thunderbirds.

TOM HARRIS

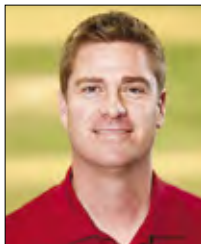

Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer

Tom Harris enters his 17th year with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011, including his fifth season at the organization's Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer.

Harris oversees all general accounting, finance, stadium operations, risk management and administrative activities and ensures operations are in accordance with ownership goals and objectives. He was a finalist in 2009 and 2010 for AZ Business Magazine's CFO of the Year Award. Harris was promoted to his current position in October 2006 after serving as Senior Vice President, Finance since May 2005.

Harris originally joined the D-backs as Vice President, Finance in July 1995 after leaving the Phoenix Suns and America West Arena, where he was the Financial Controller of the arena for two years. Prior to entering the sports industry, he was employed by Gene A. Schwarzkopf, CPA, Ltd. for three years. Harris earned a B.A. in accounting from Arizona State University, where he also earned his Master's degree in taxation. He began his professional career in 1985 at Arthur Andersen & Co.

Harris is Chairman of the Board for Special Olympics Arizona, a board member for the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, member of the Thunderbirds and was inducted into the ASU School of Business Hall of Fame in 2005. A native of Winslow, Ariz., Harris and his wife, Kathleen, reside in Phoenix with their children, Sean, Sarah, Kelly and Katie.

CULLEN MAXEY

Executive Vice President, Business Operations

Cullen Maxey begins his fifth season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011, and second as Executive Vice President, Business Operations after receiving the promotion in January 2010.

The Phoenix native was the first executive D-backs' President & CEO Derrick Hall hired from outside of the organization after being named president prior to the conclusion of the 2006 season. Since joining the D-backs as Vice President, Corporate Partnership, Maxey has stimulated revenue generation throughout the organization by enacting a pro-active sales and service approach unique to Major League Baseball. Under his leadership, the philosophy of decreasing marketing clutter and developing rewarding relationships has resulted in a 37 percent increase in revenue while decreasing the organization's total number of corporate partners by 25 percent. The D-backs have provided a better return for corporate partners while also setting up the Corporate Partnerships Department for sustained growth in the future. Despite a challenging season on the field in 2010, the organization saw an increase in new season-ticket revenue while Maxey led the development of a season-ticket holder advisory board to gain a better perspective from the team's most valued customers.

Maxey oversees all revenue-generating departments throughout the organization, including Broadcasting, Communications, Community Affairs, Corporate Partnerships, Fan Services, Game Operations, Marketing, Spring Training and Ticket Sales & Service. He also leads the creation and ongoing execution of the business plan for Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the Spring Training facility on Salt River Indian Community land shared with the Colorado Rockies.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Maxey spent two years as the General Manager of Sun Devil Sports Marketing for CBS Collegiate Sports Properties, the multi-media rights holder of Arizona State University Athletics. At ASU, Maxey managed all business operations, multi-media rights and sales while ASU Athletics saw unprecedented sponsorship revenue growth during his tenure.

Prior to joining ASU Athletics, Maxey served as Vice President, Corporate Sales with the Phoenix Coyotes from 2001-05. During his time with the Coyotes, he was responsible for corporate sponsorship sales and service and was involved in the opening of Jobing.com Arena as well as its corporate inventory. The Coyotes enjoyed double-digit growth in corporate sales each year under his management. Maxey began his sports career in 1997 with the Phoenix Suns, where he handled advertising sales for team publications prior to moving on to corporate sales and suite sales.

Maxey is a member of the Thunderbirds and serves on the board for the Boys & Girls Club of Metropolitan Phoenix. He and his wife, Brenda, have two children, Will and Lizzie, and reside in Chandler.

KEVIN TOWERS

Executive Vice President & General Manager

Kevin Towers enters his first full season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 after being named Executive Vice President & General Manager on Sept. 22, 2010.

Towers, who was a special assignment scout for the New York Yankees in 2010, enters 2011 with 14 years of experience as a Major League general manager to join the Oakland Athletics' Billy Beane and the San Francisco Giants' Brian Sabean as the fifth longest-tenured GMs in Major League Baseball. Only the Detroit Tigers' Dave Dombrowski (22 years), Baltimore Orioles' Andy MacPhail (17 years), Cincinnati Reds' Walt Jocketty (16 years) and Milwaukee Brewers' Doug Melvin (15 years) have more experience among MLB's current group of general managers. With 1,113 wins as a General Manager, Towers is one of eight current GMs to post at least 1,000 victories during their career.

Towers reshaped the D-backs roster after the 2010 season to focus on reducing the club's Major League-record 1,529 strikeouts and reconstructing a bullpen that had a Major League-high 5.74 ERA after giving up a league-high 62 home runs. Towers, who excelled at building bullpens with the Padres as his relievers finished in the top two in the National League on three occasions from 2004-09, signed free agent J.J. Putz to be the D-backs closer and also picked up two promising arms in David Hernandez and Kam Mickolio by trading Mark Reynolds to the Orioles. He also picked up promising left-hander Joe Paterson in the Rule 5 Draft for the bullpen and acquired Zach Duke and Armando Galarraga to firm up the starting rotation. Towers acquired first baseman Juan Miranda in a trade from the Yankees and signed veteran free agents Melvin Mora, Xavier Nady, Willie Bloomquist, Henry Blanco and Geoff Blum to add experience on the field and in the clubhouse. After starting the 2010 season with an average age of 28.21 that was the second-youngest in the National League, Towers' changes to the D-backs will give the club a more veteran look as 16 players not on the 2010 Opening Day roster are expected to be on the 25-man roster for 2011.

The Padres reached unprecedented heights under Towers' leadership as General Manager from 1996-2009, including winning four of the franchise's five National League West championships in 1996, 1998, 2005 and 2006 and advancing to the World Series in 1998 against the Yankees. San Diego's 2007 club fell one game shy of advancing to the postseason for a third straight year after losing a tie-breaker game to the Colorado Rockies for the league wild-card berth. The Padres had the fourth-most wins (346) in the National League from 2004-07 after Towers constructed an organizational-best 23-game turnaround from 2003 to 2004 to set the Padres' successful run of four consecutive winning seasons during the team's first four years in PETCO Park.

The Medford, Ore. native first joined the Padres when he was selected in the first round of the 1982 First-Year Player Draft after earning All-Western Athletic Conference honors as a right-handed pitcher for Brigham Young University. Towers was a Texas League All-Star in 1984 and pitched seven seasons in San Diego's farm system before a series of arm

Towers began his post-playing career as an area scout for the Padres in Texas and Louisiana from 1989-91. During the summers of 1989 and 1990, he also served as pitching coach for the organization's short-season Single-A affiliate in Spokane, Wash., with the club winning Northwest League championships in both seasons. After two years with the Pittsburgh Pirates as a regional and national crosschecker, Towers returned to the Padres as Director of Scouting in August 1993, a position he held until being named General Manager on Nov. 17, 1995.

Towers and his wife, Kelley, have three bulldogs, Fiona, Sputnik and Arlow. He was inducted into the Medford Sports Hall of Fame in April 2007.

JERRY DIPOTO

Senior Vice President, Scouting & Player Development

Jerry Dipoto enters his sixth season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011, including his first as the team's Senior Vice President, Scouting & Player Development. Dipoto will continue to oversee all areas of scouting within the organization, including professional and amateur scouting, and will now be responsible for player development throughout the minor leagues after serving as interim General Manager for three months during the second half of the 2010 season.

Within his first month in leading the D-backs' Baseball Operations Department after being named interim General Manager on July 1, 2010, Dipoto aggressively reshaped the roster and refocused the organization by making four trades prior to the July 31 non-waiver trading deadline to restock the player development system with high-impact pitching prospects along with key additions to the Major League roster. The trades also shed payroll to put the organization in an improved financial situation to compete for the 2011 season and beyond.

With those trades, Dipoto acquired All-Star left-handed pitcher Joe Saunders along with three other pitchers from the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim for Dan Haren on July 25, 2010 and right-handed rookie pitcher Daniel Hudson along with a minor league pitcher from the Chicago White Sox for Edwin Jackson on July 30, 2010. Hudson did not disappoint after securing a spot in the D-backs' starting rotation, as he posted a 7-1 record with a 1.69 ERA while also striking out 70 in 79.2 innings in his final 11 starts of the season. Also included in the trades were left-handed pitching prospects Tyler Skaggs and Patrick Corbin, who were both top draft selections by the Angels in the 2009 First-Year Player Draft, and left-handed pitcher David Holmberg, who was the eighth-best prospect in the White Sox organization according to Baseball America. Dipoto also moved Chris Snyder to the Pittsburgh Pirates in a five-player trade and Chad Qualls to the Tampa Bay Rays for minor-league pitcher Matt Gorgen on July 31, 2010.

Prior to being named interim General Manager, Dipoto oversaw all aspects of the organization's scouting efforts and the evaluation of players at all levels as Vice President, Player Personnel. Dipoto came to Arizona prior to the 2006 season after serving as the Colorado Rockies' Director of Player Personnel during the 2005 season following two seasons in the Scouting Department for the Boston Red Sox from 2003-04.

Dipoto posted a 27-24 record with 49 saves and 4.05 ERA in 390 appearances as a reliever during his eight-year career with the Cleveland Indians, New York Mets and Rockies from 1993-2000. He was forced to retire during Spring Training in 2001 due to a bulging disc in his neck and immediately became Special Assistant to the General Manager for the Rockies. Dipoto was originally selected in the third round of the 1989 First-Year Player Draft by the Indians out of Virginia Commonwealth University. He and his wife, Tamie, reside in Fountain Hills with their daughters, Taylor and Jordan, and son, Jonah.

JOHN FISHER

Senior Vice President, Ticket Sales & Marketing

John Fisher enters his fourth year with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011, and first as the organization's Senior Vice President, Ticket Sales & Marketing. Fisher oversees all groups, suites and season ticket sales, service and ticket operations as well as all marketing efforts for the D-backs.

Fisher, who became a team Vice President prior to 2010, originally joined the D-backs in October 2007 as Director, Season Ticket Sales and Service and managed a staff of season tickets sales representatives that set an organizational record in new ticket package revenue for the 2008 season. His team increased the organization's full-season equivalents in 2008 for only the second time in franchise history and second time since 2002 after winning the World Series in 2001. Fisher also managed the season ticket service staff that achieved renewal rates of around 80 percent entering the 2009 and 2010 seasons despite the downturn in the economy.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Fisher was the Vice President of Sales and Service for the minor league Lake Erie Monsters of the America Hockey League for one season (2006-07) after spending six seasons (2001-07) leading group sales efforts for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers and Quicken Loans Arena. With the Cavaliers, Fisher directed a staff that became the first NBA team to surpass $3 million in group sales revenue and finished in the Top 5 in total group sales revenue for four consecutive seasons while creating a number of best practices for the league. He also spent four seasons (1997-98, 2000-01) in the Pittsburgh Pirates' ticket office and two seasons (1998-2000) with the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning in group sales.

Fisher is a 1998 graduate of Robert Morris University in Pittsburgh, where he received his B.S. in Business Administration and Sports Management.

Fisher and his wife, Debra, reside in Scottsdale.

NONA LEE

Senior Vice President & General Counsel

Nona Lee begins her seventh season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 and was promoted to Senior Vice President & General Counsel in January 2010. Lee served as Vice President & General Counsel since 2005, overseeing all legal issues for the organization. Before dedicating her time solely to the D-backs, she served as Associate General Counsel (2000-04) and Vice President and Associate General Counsel (2004-05) for the Phoenix Suns, D-backs, Phoenix Mercury, Arizona Rattlers, Chase Field, US Airways Center and the Dodge Theater.

Prior to joining the sports industry, Lee had a brief stint as a corporate associate at Gallagher & Kennedy, specializing in corporate transactions and securities, after having worked as a litigator for Meyer Hendricks, specializing in commercial litigation, personal injury and medical malpractice, from 1995-99. Lee received her Juris Doctor in 1995 from the Oklahoma City University School of Law, where she graduated summa cum laude after spending time as a paralegal for a sole practitioner in Beverly Hills, Calif.

Before studying law, Lee worked in the entertainment industry in Southern California, holding a variety of business support positions at Blair Television, KIIS FM and Radio & Records magazine.

Lee is also active in the community, serving as the founder and board member of the Phoenix Women's Sports Association, an Arizona non-profit organization whose mission is to help girls and women find their power through sports. In addition, she also has served on the board of the Women's Sports Foundation in New York, a non-profit organization founded by Billie Jean King that is dedicated to advancing the lives of girls and women through sports and physical activity. Lee also serves on the Board of the Phoenix Regional Sports Commission, the mission of which is to "enrich our community through sports." She received the YWCA of Maricopa County's Sports Leader Award in 2006, was recognized by the Phoenix Business Journal as one of the Women in Business honorees in 2007 and was an Athena Award honoree in 2008, received the Joyce Holsey Award of Excellence from the Black Women Lawyer's Association in 2009, and was recognized as one of the Arizona Foothills magazine's 2010 Women Who Move the Valley.

Lee played college basketball at Pepperdine, where she played guard for the Waves and was part of a team that compiled a 103-33 record and made three appearances in the AIAW Championships from 1978-81. After earning her undergraduate degree in Broadcasting from Pepperdine, she was a graduate assistant for the women's basketball team from 1981-82 while working on her Master's degree in Broadcast Management.

MARIAN RHODES

Senior Vice President, Chief Human Resources & Diversity Officer

With more than 20 years of experience in Major League Baseball, Marian Rhodes has re-developed the Arizona Diamondbacks human resources functions while also reinforcing a workplace culture where the best and brightest in the sports industry want to work since joining the organization in 2007. Rhodes was promoted to Senior Vice President, Chief Human Resources & Diversity Officer in January 2011 and will work closely with President & CEO

Derrick Hall to devise strategies that ensure the organization develops, mentors and treasures its employees. She will also be responsible for creating a solid platform surrounding diversity and government relations for the organization, a role Rhodes has had success with in the past as the new Busch Stadium construction process in St. Louis was one of the most successful MLB minority vendor partnership programs.

Since joining the club in June 2007, Rhodes implemented new training and development strategies as well as created new employee programs with the executive management team, such as the D-backs' Employee of the Month program and President's Council, to invest in the employees throughout the organization. Rhodes' determination and the organization's investment into its employees resulted in the D-backs being named one of the "Best Places to Work" in Phoenix by the Phoenix Business Journal and Best CompaniesAZ for the past four years, becoming the first sports organization to win such an honor in 2007. PHOENIX magazine also recognized the D-backs as a "best place to work" in 2008.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Rhodes was the Vice President of Public Affairs for the St. Louis Cardinals, where she oversaw all aspects of the organization's employment and workforce diversity initiatives, in addition to being responsible for office administration, customer service and public affairs. Rhodes directed recruitment, benefits, career counseling and performance planning for the Cardinals' 1,200-plus employees as the organization's senior employment executive. She also made sure the organization met its goals of attaining a diversified workforce at all levels throughout the organization. Rhodes also played a significant role in making sure the Cardinals organization met its goals with minority and women-owned businesses through MLB's Diverse Business Partners program.

During her time in St. Louis, Rhodes received many honors, including the St. Louis Business Journal's Most Influential Women Award, the "Yes I Can" Achiever and Role Model Award, the Dollars and Sense America's Best and Brightest Business Women Award and the Missouri Lottery Leadership Award. She also served on numerous boards, including the Metropolitan Sewer District, the St. Louis Minority Business Council, the Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis, Downtown St. Louis Presents, Life Skills Foundation and the Family Resource Center. She is also a member of the Phoenix Chapter of the Links, Inc., and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated.

Rhodes received an Accounting degree from Florida A&M University and later earned an MBA in Marketing from Webster University.

RUSS AMARAL

Vice President, Facilities & Event Services

Russ Amaral enters his 15th year with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2010, including his 12th season as Vice President, Facilities & Event Services. Amaral oversees all guest-related functions at the ballpark in addition to the engineering, security, operations and groundskeeping departments.

In the past five years, Amaral has played an integral role in the many cosmetic changes at Chase Field by overseeing construction projects to keep the 13-year-old ballpark up to date with many of the new stadiums opening in the market and around the country. Prior to the 2007 season, the team contracted Target Commercial Interiors, a subsidiary company of the retail store chain Target, to value engineer the rebranding of Chase Field. Prior to the 2008 season, despite a full calendar of offseason events at Chase Field, he oversaw Daktronics' installation of the new 136-foot wide by 46-foot tall video scoreboard in centerfield, which is one of the world's largest high definition video screens. Since the 2006 season, the organization has also renovated 40 suites on the Insight Diamond Level, demolished three suites to create a social networking area on the Insight Diamond Level and another group of suites down the left field line to incorporate a new All-You-Can-Eat section, renovated the Strike Zone Lounge behind home plate and two lounge areas for premium seat holders, created the Miller Lite Diamond Club in right-centerfield and redeveloped numerous seating areas throughout the ballpark.

Amaral began his career in facility management with the opening of US Airways Center in 1992, working in various capacities up to Director, Event Services. In 1997, he was given the opportunity to assist in the final planning and opening operations of Chase Field as a member of the D-backs. Amaral has also been called upon by Major League Baseball to assist in ballpark operations capacities at numerous World Series.

Amaral is a graduate of Oregon State University, where he earned a degree in Business Administration. He and his wife, Beverly, reside in central Phoenix.

CRAIG BRADLEY

Vice President, Finance

Craig Bradley enters his 15th year with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011, including his fifth season as the organization's Vice President, Finance. Bradley works closely with all departments within the organization as well as overseeing the accounting, revenue sharing, reporting and business operations functions.

Starting in 2008, Bradley implemented a strategic, forward thinking planning process that emphasized a three-year projection of operations that is prepared and analyzed in a manner to assist management in making effective and timely decisions on operations and management of financial resources. A believer in developing talent on the field and in the office, Bradley works to create opportunities for staff to further their professional skills while improving the effectiveness of the organization. He served as the organization's Controller from 2004-06.

Bradley originally joined the D-backs in September 1997 as Business Manager, Baseball Operations and worked alongside former General Manager Joe Garagiola Jr. as well as other baseball department directors in setting up and managing the minor league system, Dominican Republic academy, and scouting and Major League operations. In 2000, Bradley worked with medical staff and injury and claim management consultants in order to insure all injuries were managed in the most operationally and financially effective manner. Since then, MLB and a number of other clubs have adopted similar procedures and league-wide costs have been greatly reduced.

Prior to the D-backs taking the field, Bradley worked as the Assistant General Manager, Business Operations for the Phoenix Firebirds, the San Francisco Giants then-Triple-A affiliate, from 1994-97. With the Firebirds, he was responsible for game and stadium operations, season tickets, ticket operations and merchandising.

After graduating from Arizona State University in 1988, Bradley began his career with Arthur Andersen & Co. before moving into the construction and manufacturing industries. He played baseball for the Sun Devils from 1983-85, earning a junior varsity letter.

A Certified Public Accountant, Bradley is also a founding board member of About Care, Inc., a non-profit organization that provides services to the homebound in the East Valley, and Arizona Autism United, a non-profit human service co-op providing services to children with autism spectrum disorders in Arizona. He and his wife, Dr. Jennifer Bradley, have two daughters, Cecilia and Olivia, and make their home in Chandler.

DEBBIE CASTALDO

Vice President, Corporate & Community Impact

Debbie Castaldo enters her third season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 and first solely overseeing the organization's community giving as Vice President, Corporate & Community Impact. Castaldo leads the team's industry-leading community relations efforts that have made charitable contributions totaling $25.8 million to non-profit organizations throughout Arizona since 1997 on behalf of the organization and the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation.

The D-backs, who donated $2.4 million to local organizations in 2010, give back more each year than the combined totals of other the professional sports teams in Phoenix. Under Castaldo's guidance, the organization became the first professional sports team to win the inaugural 2010 United Nations NGO Positive Peace Award, which names the D-backs the most positive team in the world and is viewed as a 21st century peace prize, for its work with the Southwest Autism Research & Resource Center (SARRC) and the Boys & Girls Club of Metropolitan Phoenix. She has worked with Luis Gonzalez to establish his "Going Gonzo for Kids" program, fostered $100,000 Grand Slam Awards for programs such as the Desert Mission Food Bank and the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to curb homelessness and has helped grow fundraising dollars year-over-year at Evening on the Diamond, the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation's signature annual event that is the seventh-largest fundraising event in the Valley according to the Phoenix Business Journal.

Castaldo also oversaw the D-backs' Corporate Partnership Department from 2009-10 that achieved key revenue growth targets for the organization by developing a unique service-oriented philosophy with their partners.

Castaldo, a tenured marketing, community relations and corporate partnerships executive, joined the D-backs prior to the 2009 season after four years at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center. As Director of Philanthropic Innovation at St. Joseph's, she was responsible for strategic corporate and community partnerships, e-commerce and innovation strategies for the foundations supporting Arizona's largest hospital. Prior to joining St. Joseph's, Castaldo was the Director of Strategic Partnerships for Westcor Shopping Centers, where she secured a record number of corporate partnerships for the portfolio of shopping centers. She began her career in Arizona with Alltel, heading up marketing operations for the wireless company's Southwest region. As General Manager, Marketing at Alltel, her responsibilities included marketing, advertising, public relations, community affairs, sports marketing and product development.

Castaldo earned a degree in Business Administration and Marketing from the University of Texas at El Paso in 1992. She is active in the community, serving on the board of the Ronald McDonald House, US Airways Foundation, Miracle League of Arizona, and extensive committee and advisory roles including the Celebrity Fight Night Foundation, Lou Grubb Friends Fore Golf, Save the Family, the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation and many more. In 2008, Castaldo was named the YWCA's Woman of Distinction for her philanthropy work in the community.

Castaldo and her husband, Vince, live in Peoria with sons, Jake and Zack.

BOB GEBHARD

Vice President &

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Bob Gebhard enters his seventh season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 as Vice President & Special Assistant to the General Manager. Serving an integral role within the D-backs baseball operations, Gebhard has offered input from his vast experience in the game. He has also been the Baseball Operations Department's point person during the last two years with HKS Architects, Mortenson Construction and the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community during the construction of Salt River Fields at Talking Stick, the new two-team facility the D-backs and Colorado Rockies moved their Spring Training operations to in the Northeast Valley.

Gebhard joined the D-backs prior to the 2005 season after a five-year stint in a similar role with the St. Louis Cardinals from 2000-04 under then-General Manager Walt Jocketty, who he assisted in the club's day-to-day Major League operations including player evaluation and contract negotiations.

None of those roles were new to Gebhard, who was on the ground floor of the Rockies' franchise, joining the club during the winter in 1991 and building the entire baseball operations department from scratch. His efforts were rewarded with the Rockies' first playoff appearance in only three years into their existence in 1995, winning the National League's first-ever Wild Card spot on the final day of the season. His early successes in Colorado included the signing of veteran Andrea Galaraga to a free-agent contract the day before the 1992 Expansion Draft, then engineering a trade for slugging outfielder Dante Bichette immediately following the draft, with the twosome eventually comprising half of the famed Blake Street Bombers. Gebhard and his staff were so thoroughly prepared for the Expansion Draft that six members of the 1995 Division Series playoff squad still remained when the Rockies played the Atlanta Braves.

Gebhard joined the Rockies after a successful stint the Minnesota Twins' front office, joining the team as the Director of Major League Personnel in 1987, then assuming the role of Vice President of Player Personnel the following year. His first and last years with Minnesota culminated in a pair of World Series rings, as the Twins knocked off the Cardinals in 1987 and Braves in 1991.

Gebhard had an 11-year playing career as a pitcher that included big league duty with both the Twins and Montreal Expos. He was a player/coach in the Montreal organization from 1974-75, then was promoted to Minor League Field Director and pitching coach in 1976, a role he held for six seasons. Gebhard was part of Montreal's Major League coaching staff in 1982, then served as Director of Minor League Operations through 1986. He then joined the Twins, the organization that selected him in the 15th round of the first June draft in 1965.

A native of Lambertson, Minn., Gebhard earned 16 letters in four sports in high school. His athletic career then shifted to the University of Iowa, where he co-captained the baseball team and also played basketball.

Gebhard and his wife, Nancy, who still reside in Littleton, Colo., have three children, daughters Angie and Jenny, and son, Casey. They also have five grandchildren.

SCOTT GEYER

Vice President, Broadcasting

Scott Geyer enters his 17th year with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011, including his 11th season as the organization's Vice President, Broadcasting.

In his current role with the D-backs, Geyer oversees the Broadcasting and Game Operations Departments while also keeping the club's broadcasters up to date about the organization. He played an integral role prior to the start of the 2008 season in the installation of the new Daktronics HD video scoreboard, a $14 million project that also included the build-out of video production rooms to service the new board, and the technology behind the digital media network throughout the ballpark's concourses. The D-backs' 136-foot wide by 46-foot tall video board in center-field is one of the world's largest high definition video screens and, along with other updates with video technologies throughout the ballpark under Geyer's direction, enhances the fan experience at Chase Field.

Geyer, who has 28 years of experience in sports television, served as the director for each of D-backs' self-produced game telecasts on KTVK-TV (Ch. 3) for the organization's first 10 years. He joined the D-backs in 1995 to prepare the organization for its live television productions and to provide design insight into the construction of Chase Field from the media point of view. Prior to his move to baseball, he spent 10 years as a producer and director for the Phoenix Suns television package, while also managing the production and post-production division of US Airways Center since it opened in 1992. His baseball television resume includes directing a Major League package for Fox Sports Net and a five-year stint directing Triple-A baseball in the Phoenix area in the 1980s.

Geyer is a native of the San Francisco bay area and graduated from San Diego State University with a degree in broadcast journalism, prior to making Phoenix his home in 1980. He and his wife, Lisa, have two sons, Adam and Travis.

LUIS GONZALEZ

Special Assistant to the President & CEO

One of the most popular figures in Arizona Diamondbacks' history because of the way he interacted with fans and his game-winning single in Game 7 of the 2001 World Series to give the organization its first World Championship, Luis Gonzalez enters his second full season as a Special Assistant to the President & CEO with the D-backs in 2010. Gonzalez rejoined the organization in August 2009 after officially retiring as a player following his 19-year Major League career.

In his role, Gonzalez assists D-backs' President & CEO Derrick Hall and other departments throughout the baseball and business side of the organization. He also continues to make an impact in the community with the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation, interacts with season ticket holders at special events, meets with corporate partners, fills in on the D-backs' radio and television broadcasts and spends time with minor and Major League players throughout the organization. Gonzalez also interacts with children at the team's Training Center camps and participates in the annual week-long Fantasy Camp. His Going Gonzo for Kids initiative that he started in 2010 through the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation contributed $100,000 in its first year to a variety of Arizona-based children's charities.

For his contributions as a player and a member in the community, Gonzalez became the first former player to have his number retired by the D-backs during a pre-game ceremony on Aug. 7, 2010. His No. 20 can now be seen in 5-foot purple numbers on the façade of the party suites in right field at Chase Field next to Jackie Robinson's No. 42, which was retired in perpetuity by Major League Baseball on April 15, 1997.

Gonzalez compiled a .283 batting average, 2,591 hits, 354 home runs and 1,439 RBI during his career with the Houston Astros, Chicago Cubs, Detroit Tigers, Los Angeles Dodgers, Florida Marlins and D-backs. His 596 career doubles rank 15th in baseball history. Gonzalez is one of only 17 players in Major League history to collect at least 2,500 hits, 500 doubles, 350 home runs and 1,000 RBI, joining Hank Aaron, Stan Musial, Carl Yastrzemski, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Cal Ripken, Dave Winfield, Rafael Palmeiro, Frank Robinson, Barry Bonds, Babe Ruth, Andre Dawson, Ken Griffey, Jr., Tony Perez, Lou Gehrig and Ted Williams. The five-time All-Star retired as the D-backs all-time leader in games played (1,194), hits (1,337), doubles (310), home runs (224), walks (650), runs (780), RBI (774), at-bats (4,488), total bases (2,373), slugging percentage (.529) and on-base percentage (.391). For his many community contributions during his playing career, Gonzalez was named the 2005 winner of the Branch Rickey Award, presented by the Rotary Club of Denver to individuals in baseball who contribute unselfishly to their community and who are strong role models for others.

Gonzalez was the Astros' fourth-round selection in the June 1988 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of South Alabama, where he earned Baseball America's All-Freshman second team honors and was later inducted into the university's Hall of Fame in 1999. He graduated from Tampa's Jefferson High School in 1985, earning a spot in the school's Hall of Fame and teaming with former Major Leaguer Tino Martinez.

Gonzalez currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Baseball Assistance Team (BAT). He and his wife, Christine, reside in Scottsdale with their triplets, Megan, Jacob and Alyssa.

ROLAND HEMOND

Special Assistant to the President & CEO

One of the most respected and experienced executives in baseball, Roland Hemond was selected as the second recipient of the Buck O'Neil Lifetime Achievement Award by the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum's Board of Directors on Feb. 22, 2011, for his extraordinary efforts to enhance the game's positive impact on society. The award will be presented to Hemond in Cooperstown, N.Y. on July 23, 2011, as part of Hall of Fame Weekend.

Hemond is the second winner of the Buck O'Neil Award, which was established in 2007 to honor an individual whose efforts broadened the game's appeal and whose character, integrity and dignity is comparable to the late O'Neil, who passed away in 2006 after eight decades of contributions to the game. O'Neil was honored as the first recipient of the award in 2008.

Hemond begins his fifth season during his second tour of duty with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011. He rejoined the D-backs midway through the 2007 season as Special Assistant to the President & CEO and immediately got to work by strengthening the D-backs' relationships throughout Major League Baseball and enhancing the organization's initiatives in Mexico. For three consecutive Spring Trainings from 2008-10, the D-backs played exhibition games at Hector Espino Stadium in Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico against another Cactus League team.

Hemond, a three-time winner of MLB's Executive of the Year award, has 60 years of professional baseball experience, including 23 seasons as a general manager with the White Sox (1971-85) and Baltimore Orioles (1988-95) and five seasons as Senior Executive Vice President with the D-backs (1996-2000). He later served as Executive Advisor with the White Sox (2000-07) until rejoining the D-backs. Hemond, who is considered the architect of the highly successful Arizona Fall League that began in 1992, is a nationally recognized ambassador of the game and a highly sought-after speaker. His professionalism, friendliness and willingness to contribute ideas and advice are attributes unmatched in the industry.

He was inducted into the Boston Braves Historical Association Hall of Fame in 2007, was presented with the prestigious William J. Slocum Award at the New York baseball writer's dinner in 2006 and the Honors Award from the Baseball Coaches of America. In 2003, Hemond was honored with the esteemed Branch Rickey Award, presented by the Rotary Club of Denver to individuals in baseball who contribute unselfishly to their community and who are strong role models for others. He was the first non-uniformed person to receive the award.

During his first stint with the White Sox, Hemond was named Executive of the Year in 1972 and 1983. The 1972 White Sox went 87-67 for the organization's first winning record in five seasons. The 1983 club went 99-63 and won the American League West Division title by 20 games, which was then a record for largest winning margin. While with Baltimore in 1989, Hemond was tabbed Executive of the Year for the third time after the Orioles improved 32½ games from the previous season and made a 22-game improvement in the standings. During his tenure with the White Sox and Orioles, Hemond negotiated 135 trades involving 428 players.

Hemond was honored by Minor League Baseball for his longtime dedication and service to the game as the 2001 "King of Baseball." Hemond's baseball career began in 1951 as a front office member of the Eastern League's Hartford Chiefs. He also worked with the Boston/Milwaukee Braves from 1952-60 before being hired as Scouting and Farm Director of the Los Angeles Angels in 1961. Hemond remained in that role until joining the White Sox in September 1970.

Hemond is president of the Association of Professional Ballplayers of America, a non-profit organization that helps former and current players and baseball personnel in need. Along with White Sox executive and former agent Dennis Gilbert and scouts Dave Yoakum and Harry Minor, Hemond helped found the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation to provide assistance to longtime scouts who are in need of special support.

Three annual awards are named in Hemond's honor: the Roland Hemond Award, presented by the White Sox in honor of those who are dedicated to bettering the lives of others through extraordinary personal sacrifice; the Baseball America Award, presented to the person who has made major contributions to scouting and player development; and the Society of American Baseball Research (SABR) Award, given to the executive who has displayed great respect for scouts. Hemond was the inaugural recipient of both the Baseball America and SABR awards. He received an honorary degree in Humane Letters from the University of Phoenix in July 2006 and was named an honorary member of Princeton University's 1954 class after speaking at a sports symposium at the university in 2009.

Hemond is a native of Central Falls, RI. He and his wife, Margo, reside in Phoenix and have five children: Susan, Tere, Robert, Jay and Ryan, and three grandchildren: Taylor, Natalie and Zane. Margo's father is John Quinn, a former Major League general manager for 28 years. Her brother, Bob, served as general manager for the New York Yankees, Cincinnati Reds and San Francisco Giants, and her brother, Jack, was president of the NHL's St. Louis Blues after serving as general manager for the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders and Vancouver Mounties. Margo's grandfather, A.J. Bob Quinn, was a player, front office executive and owner of the Columbus, Ohio affiliate starting in 1886, giving the family continuity in professional baseball for three centuries. Hemond's son, Bob, is the founding partner of the PCL's Sacramento River Cats.

JASON HOWARD

Vice President, Business Development

Jason Howard begins his fourth season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 and first as Vice President, Business Development. Howard is responsible for creating new ways to improve revenue generation through the Corporate Partnership, Marketing, Community Affairs, Baseball Outreach and Spring Training Departments while still overseeing all season ticket and inside sales efforts.

Howard was the organization's Director, Season Ticket & Inside Sales for the past three seasons and during that time 80 percent of the inside sales representatives he managed have been promoted into senior sales and service positions in the professional sports industry. He spent the beginning of his sports career in Indianapolis from 2004-07 with Pacers Sports & Entertainment, where he began as an Inside Sales Representative before being promoted to Season Ticket Account Executive and eventually Manager of Inside Sales for the NBA's Indiana Pacers.

Howard graduated with a Sports Management degree in 2004 from Cedarville University in Cedarville, Ohio. He and his wife, Mandi, reside in Phoenix.

SHAUN RACHAU

Vice President, Communications

Shaun Rachau enters his 15th season in Major League Baseball in 2011 and fifth season as the D-backs' Vice President, Communications. Rachau leads the D-backs' internal and external communications strategies by overseeing the organization's daily interaction with the local and national media.

Under Rachau's guidance, the Communications staff has garnered national coverage about D-backs players and the organization in The Wall Street Journal, FORTUNE, GQ, SportsBusiness Journal, Sports Illustrated, ESPN The Magazine, USA Today and on NBC's "Today." He also has worked with national recording artists, such as Trace Adkins, Roger Clyne & The Peacemakers, Lifehouse, Lonestar, Jo Dee Messina, SHeDAISY, Jessica Simpson, The Wiggles and Smash Mouth, for the D-backs post-game concerts during the past five seasons. Rachau also directed special events for the organization, including the SUBWAY® D-backs FanFest and the Rally Monday postseason celebration in 2007.

Major League Baseball has called on Rachau because of his communications experience to assist with numerous league events, including the World Series in 2008 and 2009 and the All-Star Game in 2009 and 2010. He was also selected to be the public relations representative for the Dominican Republic team in the 2009 World Baseball Classic, which featured prominent MLB stars such as Pedro Martinez, David Ortiz, Hanley Ramirez and Alex Rodriguez.

Rachau, who spent 10 years in Southern California in various sports and business public relations roles, returned to the Phoenix area when he joined the D-backs in February 2006 as Senior Director, Special Programs and Events. He was promoted to Senior Director, Corporate Communications in October 2006 and directed the organization's business communications during the off-season, including the D-backs new uniform launch in November 2006.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Rachau was the Director, Corporate Communications for KB Home, a Fortune 500 company based in Los Angeles. At KB Home, Rachau helped increase the brand awareness of the nation's fifth-largest homebuilder by overseeing public relations representatives throughout the nation as well as coordinating publicity for the company's collaboration announcement with Martha Stewart Living Omnimedia to have Martha Stewart design homes.

Rachau's other MLB experience included eight seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers as the Assistant Director, Publicity (1997-99) and Director, Team Travel (2000-04). With the Dodgers, he coordinated the organization's Spring Training camp in Vero Beach, Fla. and handled all transportation matters in getting the team around the country throughout the season. Rachau was also a Media Assistant with the San Diego Padres in 1996 and has served as a media relations consultant with the Fiesta Bowl for 15 years, including four BCS championship games.

Rachau received a bachelor's degree in journalism from Arizona State University in 1995. As an ASU student, he covered local prep sports around the Valley for the Phoenix Gazette and Arizona Republic. A 1991 graduate of Paradise Valley High School, Rachau was a co-captain on the school's region championship football and baseball teams. He also gives back to the community by participating in the City of Phoenix's "Principal For A Day" program and was an advisory board member of the Father's Day Council Father of the Year Award to raise money for the American Diabetes Association.

Rachau resides in Phoenix with his wife, Joely, and son, Brody.

BOB ZWEIG

Vice President & Chief Information Officer

Bob Zweig enters his fourth year with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 after joining the organization in September 2008 as Vice President & Chief Information Officer. Zweig oversees all information technology functions for the club and has enabled the D-backs to become a leader in cutting-edge technologies among all Major League Baseball teams and throughout the sports industry.

Zweig's strategic focus throughout the organization has provided leading-edge, relevant and reliable technology in business efficiencies, baseball operations and fan experience. Since joining the D-backs, he has designed and built a company Intranet to allow for internal business collaboration as well as providing the organization better business analytics and decision making tools through its business intelligence capabilities, thus improving the company's speed of business. Zweig also collaborated with the Ticket Sales & Service department to ensure a smooth technology migration to a new ticketing system technology with Ticketmaster, a new point-of-sale system and an in-ballpark technology to allow the D-backs to offer stored-value tickets to their fans prior to the 2010 season. Zweig's department has created innovative fan experience technologies by building new ballpark kiosks and applications for the team's fan loyalty programs that also allow fans to enter team sweepstakes. His team has also created and installed video walls and digital signage throughout Chase Field to enhance the fan experience while also creating additional inventory for corporate partners to advertise their brands. He also stabilized the company's overall IT infrastructure by architecting a high-density cooling solution, enhanced power distribution, new cable and wire management and better server utilization for its data center.

Zweig was part of the design team for Salt River Fields at Talking Stick to ensure the organization's Spring Training had cutting edge technology. In addition to equipping meeting rooms with the latest technology, he helped create and install a baseball video coaching system at the facility that allows players and coaches to analyze practice drills from any of the many high definition cameras located at the main stadium or six practice fields.

Zweig joined the D-backs after spending two years as the Vice President, Information Technology at Ask.com, a leading search engine company on the Web and a division of Interactive Corp. He spent time at the company's headquarters in Oakland, Calif. supporting IT technologies and infrastructures across multiple global ecommerce companies including Ask.com, Evite.com, LendingTree.com, Ticketmaster.com and Match.com. He also enabled business IT functions that supported user behavior tracking, traffic analysis, search relevance, advertising performance, fraud and suspect analysis and global enterprise reporting.

Prior to joining Ask.com, Zweig spent three years at eBay where he left as Director, Information Technology & Global Telecom and managed IT functions for the company's PayPal division and reported directly to the CIO. He also created and managed an all-hours support organization across several world-wide data centers and was responsible for scaling PayPal's customer support infrastructure from one U.S.-based contact center to nine global centers within two years.

Zweig's background also includes six years as a management and technology consultant at Accenture where he delivered large leading-edge technology projects for several global Fortune 500 companies. He earned a Bachelor's of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering in 1992 from the Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago.

Zweig resides in Phoenix.

The D-backs retired Luis Gonzalez's number prior to their game against the San Diego Padres on Aug. 7, 2010. Gonzalez is the first former D-backs' player to have his number retired by the organization and his No. 20 can be found in five-foot purple numbers on the façade of the party suites in right field at Chase Field next to Jackie Robinson's No. 42. Gonzo is the franchise's all-time leader in nearly every offensive category after an eight-year stint with the D-backs from 1999-2006, leading all D-backs' players with 1,194 games, 1,337 hits, 310 doubles, 224 home runs, 650 walks, 780 runs, 774 RBI, 4,488 at-bats, 2,373 total bases, a .529 slugging percentage and .391 on-base percentage. The five-time All-Star with the D-backs (1999, 2001-03, 2005) is remembered for his game-winning single in the bottom of the ninth inning in Game 7 of the 2001 World Series that gave the D-backs their first World Championship.

Commissioner Bud Selig announced on April 15, 1997, that Jackie Robinson's No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball, barring players on any Major League club to wear the number. As an exception to the retired number policy, MLB has recently begun honoring Robinson's legacy by allowing players to wear No. 42 on April 15 each season to celebrate Jackie Robinson Day. For the 60th anniversary of Robinson's Major League debut, MLB invited players to wear No. 42 on Jackie Robinson Day in 2007. The gesture was originally the idea of Ken Griffey, Jr., who sought Rachel Robinson's permission to wear the number. After receiving her permission, Selig not only allowed Griffey to wear the number, but also extended an invitation to all clubs to do the same.

NATIONAL LEAGUE MVP (1): 1988 • ALCS MVP (1): 1984 • SILVER SLUGGER (1): 1988 (NL)

- ◆ Named the D-backs' sixth manager on Oct. 4, 2010, agreeing to a two-year contract through the 2012 season with a club option for 2013.
- ◆ Named interim manager on July 1, 2010, following the dismissal of A.J. Hinch...compiled a 34-49 mark as interim manager...made his debut on July 2 vs. Dodgers with a 12-5 win, joining Bob Brenly (3-2 @ Dodgers, April 1, 2001) as the only D-backs' manager to win in his managerial debut...became the fourth manager since 2001 to make his managerial debut against a team he played for, joining Padres' Bud Black on April 3, 2007 vs. Giants, Indians' Joel Skinner on July 11, 2002 vs. Yankees and Pirates' Lloyd McClendon on April 3, 2001 @ Reds.
- ◆ Served as the D-backs bench coach from 2007 until assuming the interim manager title midway through 2010...his 3 ½ seasons as bench coach were the longest time of service among all bench coaches in D-backs history, just ahead of Carlos Tosca from 1998-2000.
- ◆ Served as bench coach for the Detroit Tigers from 2003-05 under manager Alan Trammell...also worked as a color analyst with the Tigers on FSN Detroit from 1998-2002.
- ◆ Played an integral role on two World Championship teams and batted .268 with 255 home runs, 870 RBI and 284 stolen bases during a distinguished 17-year playing career with the Tigers (1979-87, 1993-95), Los Angeles Dodgers (1988-90), Kansas City Royals (1991) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1992).
- ◆ Made his Major League debut in 1979 and went on to be the Tigers' regular right fielder from 1983-87, helping lead Detroit to a World Championship in 1984 and another division championship in 1987...named American League Championship Series MVP against the Kansas City Royals in 1984 and delivered a memorable homer off Padres' closer Goose Gossage in Game 5 of the 1984 World Series.
- ◆ Signed with the Dodgers as a free agent in 1988 and led the club that year to its fifth World Championship after being named National League MVP by batting .290 with 25 home runs, 76 RBI, 106 runs and 31 stolen bases...his pinch-hit, game-winning 2-run home run off the Athletics' Dennis Eckersley in Game 1 of the World Series set the tone for the Dodgers to win the series in 5 games.
- ◆ Is the only player in baseball history to win a league MVP title and never appear in an All-Star Game...will be a member of Bruce Bochy's National League coaching staff for the 82nd annual MLB All-Star Game at Chase Field on July 12, 2011.

PERSONAL

- ◆ Kirk Harold Gibson.
- ◆ Married to Joanne with four children, Colleen, Kirk, Kevin and Cameron.
- ◆ Was drafted in the first round (12th overall) of the 1978 First-Year Player Draft by the Tigers and in the seventh round of the NFL draft by the St. Louis Cardinals after a stellar two-sport career at Michigan State University.
- ◆ Chad and Doug Dreier, father and son sports memorabilia collectors from Santa Barbara, Calif., paid $1.19 million in an online auction in November 2010 for five iconic Gibson items...the items included Gibson's home run bat from Game 1 of the 1988 World Series ($575,912) and his game-worn jersey ($303,277), his batting helmet ($155,388), NL MVP Award ($110,293) and World Series trophy ($45,578)...the final bid for the bat marked the second-highest amount paid for a game-used bat, behind only Babe Ruth's signed bat used to hit the first home run in Yankee Stadium that sold in 2004 for $1.265 million...the amounts paid for the game-worn helmet and player World Series trophy were records.
- ◆ Proceeds from the sale of the World Series trophy and MVP plaque benefitted the Kirk Gibson Foundation to continue his support of Michigan State University athletic programs and to help fund his partial scholarship programs at Clarkston (Mich.) High School and Waterford (Mich.) High School, in honor of his parents, who were educators at those schools.

PLAYING FOR THE PLANET

The Arizona Diamondbacks Playing for the Planet program is an organization-wide commitment to improving its environmental performance and to use baseball as the platform with which we can influence players, fans, employees and corporate partners to positively affect environmental change. The D-backs plan to divert paper, cardboard, plastic and metal products from the waste system and minimize water use throughout the ballpark. The club will also encourage the use of alternative forms of transportation and lower the carbon footprint for Chase Field by reducing the amount of energy used for the facility's operation. Employees are also being asked to help execute environmental policies and contribute their own ideas to how the organization can continue to expand its influence as environmental stewards.

D-BACKS LEGENDS RACE

The D-backs Legend Race, presented by Henkel, debuted at the end of the fifth inning on July 2, 2010, and quickly became a fan favorite between-inning promotion. Similar to the Presidents Race at Nationals Park in Washington, D.C. and the Sausage Race at Miller Park in Milwaukee, the D-backs Legends Race features former players Randy Johnson, Luis Gonzalez, Mark Grace and Matt Williams as 10-foot tall mascots in a race that starts near the right field pole and ends at the on-deck circle near the D-backs dugout at Chase Field.

YOUNG'S COACHING HISTORY

2010	Minor League Outfield/Baserunning Coordinator	Houston Astros
2011-present	First Base Coach	Arizona Diamondbacks

IN THE CLUBHOUSE

KEN CRENSHAW

Head Athletic Trainer

Ken Crenshaw begins his sixth season with the Arizona Diamondbacks after a 10-year stint with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, the last three of which were as the Major League head athletic trainer. The 2005 Rays medical staff was voted Major League Training Staff of the Year by the Professional Athletic Trainers Association (PBATS). The previous year in 2004, Crenshaw's staff earned the distinction of Medical Staff of the Year by Baseball Prospectus.

Prior to his promotion as the head athletic trainer for the Rays, Crenshaw spent five seasons as the assistant Major League trainer. Before the Devil Rays fielded a big league club in 1998, Crenshaw worked for two years as the organization's minor league medical/strength and conditioning coordinator.

Crenshaw's professional baseball training experience also featured a four-year stint as the strength and conditioning coordinator with the Atlanta Braves and three seasons as an athletic trainer in the Pittsburgh Pirates' chain.

Crenshaw's arrival in Arizona is somewhat of a homecoming for the native of Carrizozo, N.M., graduating from nearby New Mexico State University with a degree in sports medicine. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

He and his wife, Robyn, have three sons, Wacy, Wyatt and Dustin.

PETER (PJ) MAINVILLE, JR.

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Peter (PJ) Mainville, Jr. enters his first season as the Major League assistant athletic trainer for the Arizona Diamondbacks following four seasons as the organization's minor league medical coordinator. Mainville joined the D-backs during the 2007 season after spending the previous nine seasons as a member of the Baltimore Orioles minor league athletic training staff. He served as head athletic trainer for the Triple-A Ottawa Lynx (2004-2006), Double-A Bowie Baysox (2001-2003), Single-A Advance Frederick Keys (2000), Single-A Delmarva Shorebirds (1999) and Rookie Bluefield Orioles (1998). He was an undergraduate intern for the Orioles in 1996-97 while attending East Carolina University.

Mainville, 35, is a 1997 graduate of East Carolina University and received a Masters of Science Degree from California University of Pennsylvania in Performance Enhancement in 2005. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS).

Mainville and his wife, Michele, have a daughter, Kylie, and sons, Caden and Carter, and make their home in Chandler, Ariz. He is a native of Warrenton, Va.

NATE SHAW

Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

The 2010 season will be Nate Shaw's sixth as the D-backs' Major League strength and conditioning coordinator. He joined the D-backs before the 2006 season after a three-year stint in the Tampa Bay Devil Rays organization. Shaw is responsible for implementing data based research to further develop programs and procedures in accordance with injury prevention and performance enhancement.

Shaw started his work in professional sports by spending two years (2001-2002) with the Toronto Blue Jays during their Spring Training session in Dunedin, Fla. He also co-founded the GHFC Sports Performance Program, implementing all key facets of the operation including marketing, sales and program design.

Shaw, 36, graduated from the University of Florida in 2001 with a Bachelors Degree in Exercise and Sport Sciences. Shaw and his wife, Veronica, reside in Chandler with their sons, Dakota and Jonathan.

NEIL RAMPE

Manual & Performance Therapist

Neil Rampe enters his fourth season with the D-backs as Manual & Performance Therapist after a five-year stay at the University of Arizona, where he served as the Associate Director of Performance Enhancement. He came to Arizona in July 2003 from the Boulder (Colo.) Center for Sports Medicine, where he served as an athletic trainer.

Rampe was the assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Minnesota from 2001-02 after his first job at San Diego State University in 2000, where he was a graduate teaching associate in exercise and nutritional sciences.

A native of Kalida, Ohio, Rampe earned two bachelor's degrees in athletic training and physical education with a strength and conditioning emphasis from the University of Findlay (Ohio) in May 2000. He was a four-year letterwinner for the Findlay men's soccer program and a two-time NAIA All-American.

He earned his master's degree in applied kinesiology from the University of Minnesota in May 2002 and attended massage therapy school at the Providence Institute.

Rampe carries certifications from the National Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (NSCA), the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA), the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM) and the American Massage Therapy Association (AMTA).

Rampe is single and lives in Phoenix.

Head Team Physician

Dr. Michael Lee enters his 11th full season as the head team physician in 2011 after assisting the organization with its orthopedic needs for five years. In his current role, Dr. Lee oversees a support team of orthopedic specialists, primary care physicians and other advisors to provide whole-spectrum medical care to the entire D-backs organization. He and his team are busy caring for the organization year-round.

Dr. Lee is board-certified in orthopedic surgery and sports medicine, as well as an active member of the Major League Baseball Team Physicians Association. Previously, he assisted other Major League clubs with their orthopedic needs as well as serving as head team physician and orthopedic consultant to the Arizona Cardinals from 2004-2008. His private practice specializes in sports injuries and caring for professional and amateur athletes of all types, from Olympic swimmers to pro golfers.

Dr. Lee grew up in Phoenix and graduated from the University of California at San Diego. He attended the University of Arizona to complete Master's coursework in Exercise Physiology and graduated from the College of Medicine with honors in 1988. He returned to Phoenix in 1994 with his wife, Martha, and their three children, Conor, Allison and Brendan. Dr. Lee continues to volunteer his time and expertise to his alma mater, Brophy College Prep, as well as volunteering as a surgeon to medically underserved populations, most recently in El Salvador with Medical Hands for Healing in 2008.

Team Physician

Roger L. McCoy, M.D., has been part of the D-backs' family since the organization's start-up, working with the minor leaguers prior to the opening of the 1998 Major League season. He is a board certified family physician with special fellowship training in sports medicine. After graduating from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, he received his Master's degree in anatomy as well as his medical degree from Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio. While completing his family practice residency in Toledo, he served as a team physician for the University of Toledo and a couple of local high schools for three years.

Dr. McCoy was honored as the Sports Medicine Fellow at Michigan State University where he served as team physician and a faculty member teaching and developing course work at the medical school. He was most recently honored by being voted one of Phoenix's "Top Docs" of 2006 and 2010 by PHOENIX Magazine.

Aside from his responsibilities with the D-backs, he is also a team physician for Arizona State University, a published author in sports medicine literature and a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine. Dr. McCoy also serves as faculty for Arizona State University/St. Joseph's sports medicine fellowship program and for resident physicians and physician assistants on their clinical rotations. He has extensive experience with functional rehab and training programs along with the evaluation and treatment of concussions in sports. He is a certified IMPACT neuropsychological provider for the evaluation of concussions. Dr. McCoy continues to serve as the voluntary team physician for Mountain Pointe and Desert Vista High Schools.

ROGER RILEY

Senior Director, Team Travel & Home Clubhouse Manager

Roger Riley enters his 14th season with the D-backs and 22nd season in Major League Baseball in 2011. Riley began his D-backs career as the Director, Team Travel in the winter of 1997, then added the duties of Clubhouse Manager prior to the World Series season of 2001. As if being a member of a World Championship team wasn't enough, he capped that year by earning the 2001 Traveling Secretary of the Year award, as voted by his peers in Major League Baseball. Aside from his regular duties on the road, he assists baseball operations when the needs arise regarding player transactions and computer work.

Riley doesn't have much of an "offseason" as evidenced by his departure for the MLB clubhouse manager meetings just 72 hours after the D-backs won the World Series title in 2001. He spends the majority of the winter signing hotel and charter aircraft contracts for the upcoming year. As the season commences he arranges for ground transportation in each city and makes sure the hotel is prepared for the team's arrival with room keys in hand, regardless of the hour. Riley also handles player ticket requests both at home and on the road.

His role with the D-backs includes working on the schedule to ensure that game times both at home and on the road are within the guidelines of Major League Baseball. Riley also works on the exhibition schedule with other Cactus League clubs. He was integral in the construction of the new Spring Training facility, Salt River Fields at Talking Stick. Riley coordinates the travel plans for all players and staff members for the six-week Spring Training season, which has been simplified with the Scottsdale-based facility following 13 seasons at Tucson Electric Park in Tucson, Ariz.

Baseball was far from uncharted territory for Riley, who played college ball at the University of Kansas. It was there he began working as a statistician, and spent 19 years with a variety of network television assignments, including the Bowl Championship Series title game in the Sugar Bowl in 2000. Upon joining the Padres in 1990, Riley was the Assistant Director of Media Relations, then for two seasons worked as both the Director of Media Relations and the Travel Director. He departed from the media chair after the 1996 season and combined his travel responsibilities with Baseball Administration, working with General Manager Kevin Towers for two seasons before heading to the Valley of the Sun.

He has three daughters, Taylor, Shannon and Ashley, and three grandsons, and makes his home in Chandler.

BOB DOTY

Visiting Clubhouse & Equipment Manager

Bob Doty enters his 14th season with the D-backs and 34th in Major League Baseball in 2011. Doty made a tough decision to leave his native San Diego but made the move to Arizona in the winter prior to the 1998 season, assuming the same role he held in the Padres' organization for a dozen seasons. During his 20-year stint in his hometown with the Padres, he worked with General Manager Kevin Towers.

Adept in all phases of the equipment operation, Doty is also in charge of ordering and stocking equipment for the major league and minor league clubs. The role of the visiting clubhouse attendant is an all-encompassing position including unpacking each team when their equipment arrives at Chase Field, regardless of the time of day, while also cleaning all of the uniforms and making sure the clubhouse is properly catered for the visiting players.

Doty's knowledge was fundamental in the construction of Salt River Fields at Talking Stick after 13 spring seasons at Tucson Electric Park in Tucson, Ariz.

A graduate of University High School in San Diego, Doty has two daughters, Lauren and Sarah, and resides in Phoenix.

GRANT TRENBEATH

Head Groundskeeper

Grant Trenbeath has mastered growing and maintaining natural grass in a retractable-roof environment as he enters his 14th season as the only head groundskeeper at Chase Field, the first Major League Baseball stadium built with that combination. Trenbeath has been a pioneer in handling grass in a retractable roof venue and has served as a consultant to other retractable roof venues in MLB, sharing his expertise on how to balance maintaining an aesthetically pleasing and safe playing surface with the need for fan comfort.

Trenbeath's continued dedication to his craft has not gone unnoticed. He and Colorado Rockies' head groundskeeper Mark Razum advised and designed all playing field elements for Salt River Fields at Talking Stick. The Chase Field surface was ranked among players as the second best in the National League in a 2003 poll commissioned by Sports Illustrated. In 2006, he was also acknowledged for his efforts when he was selected by the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Committee to serve as the Director of Grounds for the 36th annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and the first ever Tostitos BCS National Championship Game at the University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale.

Trenbeath has worked in turf management for 20 years, spending three seasons with the Oakland Athletics' minor league affiliate in Medford, Ore., then joining the A's as head groundskeeper for their minor league complex and spring training for three seasons before joining the D-backs seven months prior to their inaugural season.

Trenbeath brings a player's perspective to turf management, having played baseball while attending Willamette University in Salem, Ore.

Trenbeath, and his wife, Trina, and daughters, Annika and Téa, make their home in Chandler, Ariz.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Abreu enters his second season in the D-backs organization following a 2010 campaign that saw him spend a majority of the season with the big league club after breaking camp for the first time in his career...appeared in a career-high 81 games, most of which were in a pinch-hit role... missed the 2008 campaign and part of the 2009 season recovering from hip surgery performed on May 28, 2008...made his Major League debut in May 2007.

- ♦ Was used primarily as a pinch-hitter in his first stint with the D-backs before making 14 starts in his last 20 games during the final month of the season...overall, started 38 games, including 11 at second base, 13 at shortstop and 14 at third base.
- ♦ Hit .233 (45-for-193) with 16 runs scored, 11 doubles, a triple, home run and 13 RBI in a career-high 81 games... hit .306 (11-for-36) with a double and RBI in 37 appearances as a pinch-hitter...collected a hit in each of his last 5 pinch-hit appearances.
- ♦ Hit a combined .313 (21-for-67) with 10 runs scored, 6 doubles and 5 RBI during 30 games in April and May.
- ♦ Collected a career-high 4 hits on May 6 @ Astros.
- ♦ Placed on the disabled list on May 25 with a left wrist sprain suffered on May 23 on a tag play at second base...completed a 3-game rehab assignment at Triple-A Reno from June 11-13, batting .417 (5-for-12) with 4 runs scored, 2 doubles, a RBI and a walk...reinstated from the disabled list on June 15.
- ♦ Optioned to Reno on Aug. 4...in 24 games with the Aces, hit .351 (33-for-94) with 17 runs scored, 7 doubles, a triple, 2 homers and 21 RBI before being recalled when the rosters expanded on Sept. 1.
- ♦ Had a season-high 4-game hitting streak from Sept. 3-11 (.364, 4-for-11) and Sept. 18-24 (.400, 4-for-10)...hit safely in 11 of 18 games in September.
- ♦ Snapped a 186 at-bat homerless drought with a 2-run shot on Sept. 26 vs. Dodgers.

- ♦ Appeared in 6 games over a pair of brief stints in the Majors but spent the majority of the season at Triple-A Albuquerque and Double-A Chattanooga, where he batted a combined .336 with 11 homers and 48 RBI in 77 games.
- ♦ Began the season recovering from hip surgery performed in 2008 but was cleared to return to action on May 5 at Double-A Chattanooga.
- ♦ At Triple-A Albuquerque, earned the Dodger Pride Award for July, presented monthly to the players at each minor league level who play the game with a hustling, smart, aggressive style, after hitting .360 (40-for-111) with 6 homers and 31 RBI in 27 games.
- ♦ Recalled to the Majors from Aug. 7-9 and Aug. 19-27, appearing in 6 games.
- ♦ Following the season, played for Aguilas Cibaenas in the Dominican Winter League...in 25 games, hit .276 (27-for-98) with 5 doubles, 1 triple and 6 RBI.

- ♦ Missed the entire season after having hip surgery performed on May 28 by Dr. Marc Philippon at the Steadman-Hawkins clinic in Vail, Colo.
- ♦ Appeared in 8 games during Spring Training before being sidelined due to discomfort following a sports hernia surgery.
- ♦ Placed on the 15-day disabled list on March 31, retroactive to March 26, with a right groin injury...transferred to the 60-day disabled list on May 13.

- ♦ In his first season in the Majors, hit .271 (45-for-166) with 14 doubles, 1 triple, 2 home runs and 17 RBI in 59 games... hit .320 (33-for-103) on the road, .301 (22-for-73) with runners on base and .328 (20-for-61) in the seventh inning or later.
- ♦ Did not commit an error in 25 games at second base...also played 28 games at third base and 7 games at shortstop.
- ♦ Entered the season ranked by Baseball America as the fifth-best prospect in the Dodgers organization.
- ♦ Won the Jim and Dearie Mulvey Award given to the top Dodgers rookie in Spring Training after hitting .340 (18-for-53) with 3 homers and 13 RBI in 23 games.
- ♦ Opened the season at Triple-A Las Vegas.
- ♦ Had his contract purchased by the Dodgers on May 21...at the time of his promotion, he was batting .347 with 11 doubles, 5 triples, 2 homers and 13 RBI while leading the 51s with 173 at-bats, 35 runs scored, 6 hits, 87 total bases and 5 triples and tying for the team lead with 5 stolen bases.
- ♦ Made his Major League debut on May 22 vs. Brewers.

- ◆ Collected his first big league hit on May 25 with a double off of the Cubs' Carlos Marmol.
- ◆ Hit his first career home run as a pinch-hitter in the 10th inning off of Doug Slaten on June 26 @ D-backs in the Dodgers' 6-5 win, becoming the 11th player in franchise history (fourth since moving to Los Angeles) to hit his first Major League home run in extra innings.
- ◆ At midseason, ranked by Minor League News as the top prospect in the Dodgers' organization and the 31st-best prospect in baseball.
- ◆ Optioned to Triple-A Las Vegas on July 18...at the time he was sent down, his 12 doubles were tied for seventh among NL rookies.
- ◆ Rated by Baseball America as the best defensive second baseman in the Pacific Coast League.

- ◆ Entered the season ranked by Baseball America as the ninth-best prospect in the Dodgers organization.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Bloomquist ranks 19th among all big league players with at least 100 stolen bases attempts since 2002 with a 79.4 stolen base percentage after successfully stealing 104 bases in 131 attempts in his career...he also joins Bill Hall, Carlos Guillen, Jerry Hariston, Jr. and Eric Bruntlett as the only Major League players since 2006 to play at least 35 games at second base (62), shortstop (88), third base (47) and in the outfield (253)...the versatile bench players has seen action at every position except pitcher and catcher in his 9 Major League seasons...will become the first Arizona State baseball player to play for the D-backs.

- ◆ Spent a majority of the season with the Royals before a September trade sent him to the Reds...batted .267 (50-for-187) with 31 runs scored, 10 doubles, a triple, 3 home runs and 17 RBI in 83 games between the two clubs.
- ◆ Hit .265 (45-for-170) with 31 runs scored, 10 doubles, a triple, 3 home runs and 17 RBI in 72 games with the Royals...made an appearance at every position except pitcher and catcher.
- ◆ Traded to the Reds on Sept. 13 for cash or a player to be named later.
- ◆ Made 11 appearances (3 starts) for the Reds...hit .294 (5-for-17) in 11 games.

- ◆ Spent his first season with the Royals after playing his entire career with the Mariners...set career-highs in nearly every offensive category including games (125), at-bats (434), runs (52), hits (115), triples (8), home runs (4), RBI (29), walks (27) and stolen bases (25).
- ◆ Tied for fifth in the American League with 8 triples after entering the season with 6 career triples...also tied for first in the AL with 6 triples on the road.
- ◆ Finished the season with 25 stolen bases in 31 attempts, the most steals by a Royals player since Carlos Beltran stole 41 bases in 2003.

- ◆ Made appearances at every position except pitcher and catcher, playing 3 games at first base, 14 games at second base, 3 games at third base, 38 games at shortstop, 9 games in left field, 22 games in center field and 61 games in right field.
- ◆ Collected 23 extra-base hits with the Royals after recording just 1 extra-base hit in 192 plate appearances for the Mariners in 2008.
- ◆ Batted .293 (65-for-222) on the road, including hitting all 4 of his home runs away from home.
- ◆ Hit .314 (59-for-188) with 6 doubles, 4 triples, 3 home runs and 16 RBI in 55 games against AL Central foes.
- ◆ His solo home run on May 2 @ Twins was his first since June 26, 2007 vs. Red Sox, a span of 290 at-bats.
- ◆ Each of his first 3 home runs of the season tied up games the Royals eventually came back to win.

- ◆ Set a single-season career-high with a .279 batting average in his final season with the Mariners.
- ◆ Made 40 starts at 6 different positions...was 1 of 10 big league players to play in at least 1 game at 6 different positions...joined the D-backs' Chris Burke as the only 2 players to start at 6 different positions.
- ◆ Was successful in 14 of 17 stolen base attempts (82.3%), including 12 of his final 13 attempts.
- ◆ Hit .351 (26-for-74) against left-handed pitchers.
- ◆ Recorded his first extra-base hit of the year on July 10 @ A's...the double snapped a Mariners record of 65 consecutive games (min. 200 PA) without an extra-base hit...previous record was 44 games by Julio Cruz in 1980.
- ◆ Had a season-long 9-game hitting streak from June 15-25, over which he hit .419 (13-for-31).
- ◆ Recorded a walk-off single on July 1 vs. Blue Jays, his second career walk-off hit (also on Sept. 25, 2006 vs. A's).
- ◆ Placed on the disabled list on Aug. 10 for the remainder of the season with a strained right hamstring...was transferred to the 60-day disabled list on Sept. 2.

- ◆ Played 7 positions over the course of the season, including making starts at 5 of those positions...was 1 of 3 big league players to play every position except pitcher and catcher.
- ◆ Hit .277 (48-for-173) with 3 doubles, 2 home runs and 13 RBI in 91 games with the Mariners.
- ◆ Connected for his first-career inside-the-park home run on June 15 @ Astros.
- ◆ Strung together 4 consecutive multi-hit games from June 24-30, during which he hit .615 (8-for-13).
- ◆ Over 21 games in June, batted .385 (20-for-52) with 10 runs scored, a double, 2 home runs and 9 RBI.

- ◆ Batted .247 (62-for-251) with 36 runs scored, 6 doubles, 2 triples, a home run and 15 RBI in 102 games with the Mariners.
- ◆ Was caught stealing on May 17, ending a streak of 19 consecutive stolen bases dating back to May 1, 2005.
- ◆ Collected a career-high 5 hits on Sept. 19 @ Rangers.

- ◆ Named the Mariners Unsung Hero by the Seattle chapter of the BBWAA...hit .257 (64-for-249) with 27 runs scored, a career-high 15 doubles, 2 triples and 22 RBI in 82 games with the Mariners.
- ◆ Tied a Mariners franchise record with 3 doubles on July 6 @ Royals.
- ◆ Recorded a career-long 12-game hitting streak from July 3-23, over which he batted .295 (17-for-43).
- ◆ Was placed on the disabled list on Aug. 30 for the remainder of the season with a strained left hamstring.

- ◆ Hit .245 (46-for-188) with 27 runs scored, 10 doubles, 2 home runs and 18 RBI in 93 games with the Mariners.

- ◆ Was selected to the IL mid-season All-Star team and was scheduled to participate in the MLB Futures Game in Detroit on July 10, but missed both due to his call-up to the big leagues.
- ◆ Made his Major League debut on July 2 @ Brewers and received a no-decision in the 5-3 loss...struck out 9 batters in the game, the most by a Pirates pitcher in his big league debut since Tim Wakefield had 10 strikeouts on July 31, 1992 vs. Cardinals.

- ◆ Tossed 7.0 shutout innings and picked up his first big league win on July 7 vs. Phillies.
- ◆ Pitched 8.0 innings of a combined 3-0 shutout on July 16 @ Cubs...also collected his first career RBI with a sacrifice fly in the game.
- ◆ Strung together a 22.0 inning scoreless streak from July 2-21, the longest such streak by an NL rookie since the Astros' Roy Oswalt had a 24.0 inning scoreless streak in 2001.
- ◆ Allowed 1 unearned run while improving to 3-0 on July 21 vs. Rockies.
- ◆ Worked 2.0 scoreless innings but did not return following a 42-minute rain delay on July 27 @ Marlins.
- ◆ Named NL Rookie of the Month for July after ending the month with a 0.87 ERA (3 ER in 31.0 IP), the best mark among all starting pitchers in the Majors.
- ◆ Became the first Pirates pitcher to win his first 4 decisions, all as a starter, since Jim Nelson did so in 1980, after winning a 4-2 decision on Aug. 1 @ Braves.
- ◆ Allowed a run in the fifth inning of his Aug. 1 start @ Braves and snapped a streak of 30.0 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run.
- ◆ Posted a 0.92 ERA after his first 6 starts to become 1 of only 4 pitchers during the "live ball era" to record an ERA below 1.00 after their first 6 starts, joining the Dodgers' Fernando Valenzuela (0.33 ERA in 1981), Red Sox's Booe Ferriss (0.50 ERA in 1945) and Expos' Steve Rogers (0.88 ERA in 1973).
- ◆ Became the second Pirates rookie starter to win his first 5 decisions (also Whitey Glazner in 1921) after picking up the win on Aug. 6 vs. Dodgers.
- ◆ Snapped a 0-for-19 start to his hitting career with a hit on Aug. 18 @ Mets.
- ◆ Left his start on Aug. 23 vs. Cardinals after 2.0 innings due to a sprained left ankle he suffered while retreating to second base on a line drive to shortstop...placed on the disabled list on Aug. 27 (retro to Aug. 24)...reinstated on Sept. 16.
- ◆ Went 3-0 with a 2.83 ERA in 5 August starts and was named NL Rookie of the Month for the second consecutive month.
- ◆ Suffered his first loss on Sept. 16 vs. Reds (Game 1).
- ◆ Posted his first career 2-hit game on Sept. 27 @ Cubs.
- ◆ Won his final start on Oct 2 vs. Brewers after allowing just 1 run over 7.0 innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Enright is coming off a solid rookie campaign following a late June call-up to make the jump from Double-A Mobile... made 17 starts for the D-backs and was among the Majors' top rookie pitchers in a number of categories...is the only active pitcher to toss at least 5.0 innings and give up 3 or fewer runs in each of his first 12 games in the big leagues... was also productive at the plate, stringing together the longest hitting streak by a D-backs rookie pitcher in franchise history...named the D-backs minor league Pitcher of the Month for May...named to the regular season Southern League All-Star Team in 2009 with Mobile...in 2008, led Single-A Visalia in wins, starts, innings pitched and strikeouts...since 2008, his 26 minor league victories are tied for the ninth-most among all minor league pitchers.

- ◆ Made the leap from Double-A Mobile to the big league club in late June and put together a solid campaign in his first season in the Majors...in 17 starts for the D-backs, went 6-7 with a 3.91 ERA (43 ER in 99.0 IP) and a .261 opponents average with 29 walks and 49 strikeouts...had 9 quality starts.
- ◆ At the plate, hit .242 (8-for-33) with a double and 6 RBI...had a 5-game hitting streak (.500, 6-for-12) from July 20-Aug. 10, the longest by a D-backs rookie pitcher, surpassing 4-game streaks by Micah Owings (2007), Enrique Gonzalez (2006) and Nick Bierbrodt (2001).
- ◆ Among NL rookie hurlers, ranked sixth with a .261 opponent's average, seventh with a 3.91 ERA, tied for seventh with 17 starts and tied for ninth with 6 wins.
- ◆ Among all Major League rookies with a minimum of 10 starts, tied for the eighth-fewest walks (29) and had the ninth-lowest ERA (3.91), tied for the ninth-fewest earned runs allowed (43) and tied for the 10th-lowest opponent average at .261...tied for 11th with 6 wins and 13th with 99.0 innings.
- ◆ Pitched at least 5.0 innings and allowed no more than 3 runs in each of his first 12 games with the D-backs falling one start short of the club record set by Brandon Webb, who accomplished the feat in his first 13 starts in 2003, according to Elias...is the only active pitcher to toss at least 5.0 innings and give up 3 or fewer runs in each of their first 12 games in the Majors, surpassing the Angels' Jered Weaver, who accomplished the feat through his first 9 games in 2006.
- ◆ Fared well in 8 starts against opposing team's aces, posting 5 quality starts with a 3-3 record and 3.88 ERA (21 ER in 48.2 IP) against the Giants' Tim Lincecum (July 25 vs. Giants, Aug. 27 @ Giants, Sept. 7 vs. Giants), the Nationals' Stephen Strasburg (Aug. 15 @ Nationals), the Rockies' Ubaldo Jimenez (Aug. 21 vs. Rockies), Padres' Matt Latos (Sept. 1 vs. Padres) and Dodgers' Clayton Kershaw (Sept. 24 vs. Dodgers).
- ◆ Among D-backs' starters who threw 6.0 innings or more, posted the two lowest pitch counts with 72 pitches over 6.0 innings on Sept. 7 vs. Giants and 79 pitches over 7.0 innings on Sept. 1 vs. Padres...among starters who worked at least 8.0 innings, he had the second and third lowest pitch totals with 93 pitches in 8.0 innings on Sept. 24 vs. Dodgers and 96 pitches in 8.0 innings on July 20 vs. Mets.
- ◆ Opened the season at Mobile, where he went 4-1 with a 2.88 ERA (30 ER in 93.2 IP) and a .238 opponents average with 15 walks and 83 strikeouts...had 11 quality starts...worked 6.0 innings or more in 13 starts...limited left-handed hitters to a .221 average (36-for-163)...also batted .280 (7-for-25) with 6 doubles, a homer, 4 RBI and a .973 OPS...had a pair of 2-hit games (2 doubles) on April 23 @ Mississippi and June 19 vs. Tennessee.
- ◆ Tossed a complete game in the first game of a doubleheader on May 19 vs. Chattanooga, allowing 2 unearned runs on 3 hits with 8 strikeouts over 7.0 innings in the 4-2 win.
- ◆ Named the D-backs' minor league Pitcher of the Month for May...went 3-0 with a complete game, 2.36 ERA (9 ER in 34.1 IP) and .217 opponents average with 8 walks and 30 strikeouts in 5 starts.
- ◆ Selected from Mobile on June 30 to make his Major League debut @ Cardinals...posted a 4-2 win, allowing a run on 4 hits and 4 walks with 5 strikeouts over 5.0 innings...at the plate, drove in a run on an error in the second inning and had a sacrifice bunt...according to Elias, became only the third visiting pitcher in the last 60 years to win his Major League debut as a starter in St. Louis, joining the Dodgers' Doug Rau in 1972 and the Mets' David West in 1988.
- ◆ On July 20 vs. Mets, allowed a run on 5 hits and a walk with a career-high 8 strikeouts over a career-high 8.0 innings while tossing just 96 pitches...retired 14 consecutive batters, starting with the final 2 outs of the first inning until Jose Reyes led off the sixth with a single...the 14 consecutive retired batters were the fourth-most by a D-backs' rookie pitcher and tied for second-most by a D-backs rookie starting pitcher in a single game...according to Elias at the time, he became the fourth rookie pitcher in July to throw 8.0 or more innings and allow 1 run or less, joining the Rays' Wade Davis on July 19 @ Orioles, the Reds' Travis Wood on July 10 @ Phillies and the Giants' Madison Bumgarner on July 6 @ Brewers...the only rookie to do that over the first three months was the Mets' Jonathon Niese on June 10 vs. Padres...in the contest, also collected his first career hit and RBI with a fourth-inning, RBI single to third base off the Mets' R.A. Dickey.
- ◆ Collected his first career extra-base hit on July 25 @ Giants with a 2-run double in the second inning off Tim Lincecum.
- ◆ Worked a career-high 8.0 innings on July 20 vs. Mets and Sept. 24 vs. Dodgers.

- ◆ Put together his best month in August, going 3-0 with a 2.05 ERA (7 ER in 30.2 IP) and a .214 opponents average with 9 walks and 14 strikeouts over 5 starts.
- ◆ Tossed a career-high 7.0 scoreless frames with 6 hits and 2 walks with 4 strikeouts in a combined 6-0 shutout on Aug. 27 @ Giants...became the ninth D-backs' rookie pitcher (11th time) all-time to throw 7.0 or more scoreless innings.

- ◆ At Double-A Mobile, tied for the team-lead with 10 victories.
- ◆ Named to the regular season Southern League All-Star team.
- ◆ Won a season-high 3 straight games from May 19-30.
- ◆ Tossed a season-high 8.0 innings on July 1 @ Birmingham, allowing 3 earned runs with 5 strikeouts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

With a 23-26 record and 4.58 ERA during his 4-year Major League career, Galarraga became a household name in the sports world for how he exerted good sportsmanship after gracefully accepting an apology from first base umpire Jim Joyce after a blown call ruined a chance for him to throw a perfect game with 2 outs in the ninth inning on June 2, 2010 vs. Indians...garnered the Detroit Sports Broadcasters' Association Tigers Rookie of the Year honors in 2008 after leading all American League rookie pitchers with 13 wins and 126 strikeouts and ranking third with a 3.73 ERA...known for inducing ground balls from batters, he ranks 21st among all AL pitchers during the last three years (2008-10) with a 50.6 percent ground ball rate.

- ◆ Posted a 4-9 record and 4.49 ERA in 25 games (24 starts) for the Tigers...had an 0-3 record and 11.20 ERA in 3 consecutive poor starts from Sept. 15-27, and posted a 4-6 mark and 3.80 ERA in his other 22 games...also posted a 4-2 mark with a 3.65 ERA in 8 games (7 starts) for Triple-A Toledo.
- ◆ Opened the season at Toledo and compiled a 3-2 record and 2.30 ERA (8 ER in 31.1 IP) with 28 strikeouts in 5 starts during April...tied for second in the International League in wins and strikeouts during the month...was recalled by the Tigers on May 16.
- ◆ In his 4th start after being called up, carried a perfect game into the ninth inning on June 2 vs. Indians before a Jason Donald single broke it up with 2 outs...Donald hit a ground ball to first baseman Miguel Cabrera, who tossed to Galarraga - who was covering first base - but first base umpire Jim Joyce incorrectly called Donald safe on a close play, ending the perfect game and no-hitter...closed out the game to become the first Tigers pitcher to toss a 1-hit shutout since Mike Maroth did so at Comerica Park vs. Yankees on July 16, 2004...according to Elias Sports Bureau, the last Tigers pitcher to have a perfect game broken up with 2 outs in the ninth inning was Milt Wilcox at Chicago's Comiskey Park against the White Sox on April 15, 1983 when Jerry Hairston singled.
- ◆ Completed the 1-hitter with 88 pitches, 67 of them for strikes...if he had completed the game at 83 pitches on Donald's ground ball, it would have been the lowest number of pitches thrown since Addie Joss' 74 pitches in 1908, and the shortest game since Sandy Koufax's perfect game in 1965.
- ◆ Had he completed the perfect game, it would have been the second perfect game in just four days after Phillies' Roy Halladay threw his on May 29...it would have also been the third perfect game of the season (also A's Dallas Braden on May 9, 2010) and the fourth in the last 10 months (also White Sox's Mark Buehrle on July 23, 2009).
- ◆ Tabbed as the AL Player for the Week for May 31-June 6 for his efforts in the near perfect game.
- ◆ Went 1-1 with a 5.61 ERA in 6 starts after the near perfect game and was optioned to Toledo on July 6...appeared in 1 game with the Mud Hens before being recalled by the Tigers for the remainder of the season on July 19.
- ◆ Matched his career-high with 8 strikeouts on Aug. 20 vs. Indians.
- ◆ Compiled a 1-0 record and 2.01 ERA (7 ER in 31.1 IP) over a 5-start stretch from Aug. 20-Sept. 10.

- ◆ Went 6-10 with a 5.64 ERA in 29 games (25 starts) for the Tigers...started 25 games for the Tigers but then made his last 4 appearances out of the bullpen from Sept. 11-Oct. 3 (0-0, 12.00 ERA).
- ◆ Established a career-high with 8 strikeouts on April 10 vs. Rangers.

- ◆ Finished second in the AL with a .226 opponents batting average and 7.66 hits-per-9.0 innings.
- ◆ His 126 strikeouts were the second-most by a rookie pitcher in Tigers history and marked the most strikeouts in franchise history by a right-handed rookie pitcher.

- ◆ Compiled an 8-4 record and 3.36 ERA (37 ER in 99.0 IP) in 17 outings (15 starts) on the road...his road ERA ranked 10th in the AL.
- ◆ Limited right-handed batters to a .174 batting average (52-for-299), which was tops among AL pitchers.
- ◆ Opened the season with Toledo and went 2-0 with a 2.25 ERA in 2 starts.
- ◆ Recalled by the Tigers on April 16 when Dontrelle Willis was placed on the disabled list...earned his first big league win that night after striking out 6 batters while allowing just 2 runs in 6.2 innings @ Indians.
- ◆ Named the Tigers Pitcher of the Month for April after going 2-0 with a 1.50 ERA (3 ER in 18.0 IP) in 3 starts.
- ◆ Allowed just 1 hit in 6.0 innings of work on May 17 @ D-backs to earn the win...marked the second time in 2008 that he held an opponent to 1 hit while working at least 6.0 innings (also April 16 @ Indians) to become the lone Tigers rookie pitcher to accomplish the feat twice during the same season since at least 1956.
- ◆ Had a 4-game winning streak from May 28-June 18 over which he compiled a 2.10 ERA (7 ER in 30.0 IP) over 5 games (4 starts).
- ◆ Earned Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors for the second straight month in May after going 2-2 with a 4.55 ERA (16 ER in 31.2 IP) in 5 starts.
- ◆ Matched his career-high with 3.0 innings of relief on June 3 @ A's.
- ◆ Posted a 3-0 record and 3.34 ERA (12 ER in 32.1 IP) in 6 outings (5 starts) during June.
- ◆ Carried a perfect game through 6.0 innings on July 23 @ Royals before surrendering a single to David DeJesus to lead off the seventh inning...established a then-career-high with 7 strikeouts in the game.
- ◆ Compiled a career-high 5-game winning streak from July 23-Aug. 19...posted a 2.54 ERA (11 ER in 39.0 IP) in 6 games.
- ◆ Garnered Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors for July after finishing the month with a 2-2 record and 3.23 ERA (11 ER in 30.2 IP) in 5 starts...finished 12th in the AL in ERA during July.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Heilman enters his second season with the D-backs after appearing in a team-high 70 games in 2010... converted to a reliever in May 2005 after starting 25 of his first 27 big league games...in 420 relief appearances, he is 26-32 with 16 saves and a 3.77 ERA (193 ER in 461.0 IP) with 179 walks and 409 strikeouts...among all relievers since 2005, he ranks first with 459.1 innings pitched and tied for third with 419 appearances... among NL relievers during that span, his 91 holds rank tied for third behind the Phillies' Ryan Madson (103) and the Mets' Pedro Feliciano (96)...since 2006, is the only reliever to post five straight seasons of at least 70 relief appearances.

- ◆ Proved himself as a reliable arm out of the bullpen after leading the team with 70 appearances...since 2006, is the lone reliever with 5 straight seasons of at least 70 appearances.
- ◆ Went 5-8 with a 4.50 ERA (36 ER in 72.0 IP), .260 opponents average, 26 walks and 55 strikeouts...converted a career-high 6 saves after being tabbed as the closer for the middle part of the season.
- ◆ Led the club with 12 holds and tied Esmerling Vasquez for the most strikeouts among D-backs relief pitchers.
- ◆ Held lefties to a .229 average (32-for-140) with 12 walks and 28 strikeouts...opponents hit just .195 (16-for-82) with 12 walks and 17 strikeouts with runners in scoring position.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Hudson was among the top rookie pitchers in 2010 following a midseason trade to the D-backs, earning Rookie of the Year honors from the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA and National League Rookie of the Month honors for August... ranked first among NL rookie pitchers (min. 10 starts) in ERA, opponents average, winning percentage, hits allowed and runs allowed... compiled a 30-13 record and 2.90 ERA in 57 minor league games... named Minor League Baseball's overall Starting Pitcher of the Year in 2009 over four stops in the White Sox farm system... since 2008, his 30 minor league wins are tied for the fifth-most among all minor league pitchers.

- Was one of the most dominant pitchers in baseball over the final two months of the season with a 7-1 record with a 1.69 ERA (15 ER in 79.2 IP), .183 opponents average, 16 walks and 70 strikeouts in 11 starts for the D-backs after being acquired in a July 30 trade with the White Sox.
- Went 8-2 with a 2.45 ERA (26 ER in 95.1 IP) and .202 opponents average with 27 walks and 84 strikeouts in a combined 14 starts for the White Sox and D-backs.
- Earned Rookie of the Year honors from the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA... all 11 of his starts for the D-backs were quality starts... worked 7.0 innings or more in 9 games... allowed 2 runs or less in 10 outings, giving up 3 runs only once... D-backs were 8-3 in his starts.
- Among all NL pitchers enduring the final two months of the season, only the Phillies' Roy Oswalt (1.41) and the Cubs' Carlos Zambrano (1.60) had a better ERA... also tied for the fewest pitches per inning at 14.5, third with a .183 opponents average and 15 earned runs allowed, tied for third with 7 wins, fourth with 51 hits allowed and 5.76 hits per 9.0 innings, tied for fourth with an .875 winning percentage, tied for fifth with 16 extra-base hits, seventh with 1.81 walks per 9.0 innings, and tied for seventh with 79.2 innings pitched.
- His .997 combined WHIP with the White Sox and D-backs led all Major League pitchers that made at least 10 starts.
- Among NL rookie hurlers with a minimum of 10 starts, ranked first in ERA, opponents average, winning percentage, hits allowed and runs allowed.
- Among all Major League rookie pitchers with a minimum of 10 starts, had the lowest ERA (2.45) and opponents average (.202), the second-fewest earned runs allowed (26) and the seventh-fewest walks (27).
- Named to the United States roster for the 2010 All-Star Futures Game in Anaheim, Calif., but did not participate.
- Opened the season in the White Sox system at Triple-A Charlotte and went 11-4 with a 3.47 ERA (36 ER in 93.1 IP) and .228 opponents average with 31 walks and 108 strikeouts over 17 starts to earn a selection to the International League midseason All-Star team...had 8 quality starts...at the time of his promotion, led the league in strikeouts and tied for first in wins...in 7 starts in June and July, went 5-2 with a 2.03 ERA (9 ER in 40.0 IP) and .184 opponents average with 15 walks and 46 strikeouts.

- ◆ Recalled by the White Sox on July 11 and made 3 starts, going 1-1 with a 6.32 ERA (11 ER in 15.2 IP) and .293 opponents average with 11 walks and 14 strikeouts.
- ◆ Was acquired along with left-handed pitcher David Holmberg from the Chicago White Sox for right-handed pitcher Edwin Jackson on July 30.
- ◆ Made his D-backs debut with a 14-1 win on Aug. 1 @ Mets, allowing a run on 3 hits and a walk with 4 strikeouts over 8.0 innings...also collected his first career hit and RBI with a 2-run single off Elmer Dessens in the fifth inning.
- ◆ Became the fourth pitcher in franchise history to toss at least 7.0 innings and allow 1 run or fewer in each of his first 2 starts with the D-backs, joining Geraldo Guzman (2000), Curt Schilling (2000) and Brandon Webb (2003), according to Elias.
- ◆ Posted an 8-2 win on Aug. 11 @ Brewers, allowing 2 runs on 7 hits and a walk with 9 strikeouts...helped himself at the plate with a bases-loaded, 3-run double in the sixth inning, his first career extra-base hit...according to Elias, he was the third pitcher in 2010 to plate 3 runs and strike out at least 9 batters in the same game, joining the Cardinals' Adam Wainwright on July 4 vs. Brewers and the Marlins' Josh Johnson on April 26 vs. Padres...only 2 pitchers accomplished the feat from 2000-09.
- ◆ Had a career-high 10 strikeouts on Aug. 17 vs. Reds and did not issue a walk for the first time in a start...recorded 8 strikeouts in the first 3.0 innings, becoming the first rookie pitcher to accomplish the feat since Rick Ankiel did so for the Cardinals on July 27, 2000 vs. D-backs, according to Elias.
- ◆ Worked 7.0 scoreless frames allowing 4 hits and 2 walks with 9 strikeouts on Aug. 22 vs. Rockies...became the eighth D-backs rookie pitcher (10th time) all-time to throw 7.0 or more scoreless innings.
- ◆ Named NL Rookie of the Month for August after going 4-1 with a 1.85 ERA (9 ER in 43.2 IP) and .195 opponents average with 8 walks and 42 strikeouts over 6 starts...led all rookie starting pitchers in ERA and strikeouts and led NL rookies with 4 wins.
- ◆ Closed out the season with a 5-2 win vs. Dodgers and came within an out of his first career complete game shutout...finished with a career-high 8.2 innings allowing 2 runs on a career-low 2 hits and 2 walks with 5 strikeouts while throwing a career-high 112 pitches...after tossing 8.0 scoreless innings with 1 hit allowed, retired the first two batters in the ninth inning before allowing a hit and a walk, both of whom scored after his departure...suffered a tendon strain in his right middle finger during the game and was scratched from his final start on Oct. 1 @ Dodgers.

- ◆ Went 14-5 with a 2.32 ERA (38 ER in 147.1 IP) and 166 strikeouts in 26 starts over four stops in the White Sox minor league system, including Single-A Kannapolis, Single-A Winston-Salem, Double-A Birmingham and Triple-A Charlotte.
- ◆ In 6 games (2 starts) with the big league club, went 1-1 with a 3.38 ERA (7 ER in 18.2 IP) with 9 walks and 14 strikeouts, as opponents hit .225 (16-for-71).
- ◆ Named Minor League Baseball's overall Starting Pitcher of the Year after leading the organization in ERA and strikeouts, while tying for first in wins.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Johnson enters his second season with the D-backs following a 2010 campaign that saw him establish career-highs in a number of offensive categories...set a new mark among D-backs' all-time single-season totals for second basemen with 36 doubles...named the National League Player of the Month in April 2010...became the fourth D-backs' player to hit for the cycle in franchise history and just the second at Chase Field on July 23, 2010 vs. Giants...converted to second base in 2007 and among NL second basemen from 2007-10, ranks tied for first with 23 triples; third with 118 doubles; fourth with 510 games, 227 walks, 229 RBI and a .455 slugging percentage; fifth with 305 runs scored, 520 hits, 61 home runs and a .352 on-base percentage; sixth with 39 stolen bases; and ninth with a .273 batting average.

- ◆ Rebounded from an injury plagued season with the Braves in 2009 and established career-highs in hits (166), home runs (26), RBI (71), stolen bases (13), slugging percentage (.496) and OPS (.865) in his first season with the D-backs.
- ◆ Among D-backs' second basemen all-time single-season totals, set a new mark with 36 doubles...finished second in home runs, walks (77), extra-base hits (66), stolen bases, total bases (286) and slugging percentage, third in hits and runs scored (92) and fourth in on-base percentage (.370).
- ◆ Led the team with 45 multi-hit games, including 12 games with at least 3 hits and 4 games with at least 4 hits...reached base safely via a hit or walk in 129 of his 154 games played and collected a hit in 105 of those contests.
- ◆ Hit .311 (91-for-293) with 52 runs scored, 21 doubles, 5 triples, 16 home runs and 48 RBI at Chase Field...his .976 OPS at home ranked fifth among all NL batters.
- ◆ Committed just 8 errors to post a .988 fielding percentage, which ranked fifth among all NL second basemen and is second only to Craig Counsell's .990 fielding percentage (2005) among second basemen in D-backs' history.
- ◆ Named National League Player of the Month for April after leading the league with 9 home runs, 17 extra-base hits and a .750 slugging percentage...he also led all league second basemen in doubles (8), home runs, slugging percentage and OPS (1.154)...from April 6-25, also reached base via a hit or walk in 16 straight games, batting .345 (19-for-55) with 14 runs scored, 8 doubles, 7 home runs, 12 RBI and 11 walks over that stretch.
- ◆ Became the fourth D-backs' player to hit for the cycle on July 23 vs. Giants, tying his career-high with 4 hits for the fourth time of the season and eighth time overall.
- ◆ Snapped an 0-for-7 skid to open the season by connecting for 2 home runs on April 7 vs. Padres...also connected for 2 homers on April 23 vs. Phillies for the sixth time in his career.
- ◆ His 15 extra-base hits through the D-backs' first 18 games tied Matt Williams for the most extra-base hits to start a season in franchise history.
- ◆ Along with Mark Reynolds, became the second duo in D-backs history to hit at least 7 home runs through the first 18 games of the season, joining Luis Gonzalez (11) and Reggie Sanders (7), who accomplished the feat in 2001.
- ◆ Tied a franchise record after drawing a career-high 4 walks on June 4 vs. Rockies.
- ◆ Hit his third leadoff homer of the season (eighth career) on June 8 vs. Braves.
- ◆ Had a season-long 10-game hitting streak from June 4-13, batting .385 (15-for-39) with 10 runs scored, 5 doubles, a homer, 8 RBI, 9 walks and a 1,190 OPS in those games.
- ◆ Homered in a season-and-team-high-tying 3 straight games April 23-25 and Sept. 21-23.
- ◆ Became the 13th player in franchise history to reach the 25-homer mark with his solo shot on Sept. 23 vs. Rockies.

- ◆ Hit .325 (26-for-80) against lefties in his third full season with the Braves.
- ◆ Batted .368 (7-for-19) with 6 walks and a .520 on-base percentage as a pinch hitter.
- ◆ Hit leadoff home runs on April 7 @ Phillies (Jamie Moyer) and May 24 vs. Blue Jays (Scott Richmond).
- ◆ On April 22 @ Nationals, drew a bases-loaded walk in the top of the ninth to plate Omar Infante with the eventual game-winning run in a 1-0 victory.
- ◆ Placed on the disabled list from July 3-23 with right wrist tendinitis, necessitating a 13-game rehab assignment to Triple-A Gwinnett.
- ◆ Homered in back-to-back games on Aug. 7-8 @ Dodgers, including a go-ahead, 2-run homer in the 10th inning of a 2-1 win on Aug. 8.

- ◆ Set career-highs with a .287 batting average and 39 doubles...ranked second among NL second basemen in doubles.
- ◆ His 44 multi-hit games tied for the team lead while his 39 doubles were second-most.
- ◆ His .333 average against left-handed pitchers (50-for-150) was second among all left-handed hitters (min. 140 AB).
- ◆ Hit a pinch-hit, grand slam off of Jorge Sosa on April 5 vs. Mets, his first career pinch-homer and second career grand slam.
- ◆ Had a trio of 4-RBI games on April 5 vs. Mets, April 25 @ Mets and Sept. 2 @ Marlins.

- ◆ Sideline on April 30 @ Nationals with lower back tightness but returned on May 2 vs. Reds.
- ◆ Matched his career high with 4 hits on May 4 vs. Reds and Sept. 2 @ Marlins.
- ◆ Had a 13-game hitting streak (.388, 19-for-49) from May 12-27.
- ◆ Hit his third career grand slam on June 17 @ Reds.
- ◆ Had 6 multi-hit games in 7 contests from July 30-Aug. 5, batting .481 (13-for-27) with a .500 on-base percentage and .593 slugging percentage.
- ◆ Had a career-high 22-game hitting streak from Sept. 1-24, batting .402 (35-for-87) with 9 doubles, 3 triples, 3 home runs and 18 RBI.
- ◆ Had his third career two-homer game on Sept. 10 vs. Rockies.

- ◆ In his first full season in the Majors, reached base safely via a hit or walk in 118 of 147 games and transitioned to second base, where he played 133 games (127 starts).
- ◆ Set career highs with 10 triples and a .375 on-base percentage...ranked third in the NL in triples.
- ◆ Hit safely in 17 of 24 games in April at a .326 clip (28-for-86) with 5 home runs and 15 RBI.
- ◆ Hit leadoff home runs on April 8 vs. Mets (Orlando Hernandez), April 22 @ Mets (Tom Glavine) and April 25 @ Marlins (Scott Olsen).
- ◆ Had a career-high 4 hits on April 17 @ Nationals.
- ◆ Had his second career 2-homer game on April 22 @ Mets.
- ◆ Had a then career-high-tying 11-game hitting streak from April 24-May 6 (.350, 14-for-40).
- ◆ Went 3-for-6 with a home run and 5 RBI in the second game of a doubleheader on May 19 @ Red Sox.
- ◆ Hit safely in 16 of 25 games in July at a .356 clip (26-for-73) with 4 home runs and 16 RBI.
- ◆ Went 4-for-4 with 2 home runs and 5 RBI on July 31 vs. Astros, matching his career high in hits (also: April 17 @ Nationals) and his third career 2-homer game.

- ◆ Missed the season with right elbow problems that led to Tommy John surgery.
- ◆ Began the season on the disabled list with a sprained right elbow and had a 15-game rehab assignment at Single-A Rome and Double-A Richmond from May 13-29.
- ◆ Recalled on May 30 and was transferred to the 60-day disabled list on June 1 after having season-ending Tommy John surgery performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Ala.

- ◆ Opened the season at Triple-A Richmond and earned a promotion to the Majors, playing in 87 games for the Braves.
- ◆ Recalled from Richmond on May 29 and debuted as the starting left fielder against the Phillies, going 0-for-3 with a run scored, an RBI and a walk.
- ◆ Collected his first hit with an infield single off Kip Wells in the eighth inning on June 3 @ Pirates, snapping an 0-for-15 start to his career.
- ◆ Hit his first home run on June 14 @ Rangers, a 2-run blast off of Pedro Astacio in the fifth inning.
- ◆ Had a career-high 6 RBI and his first career 2-homer game, including his first grand slam off of Randy Keisler, on June 17 @ Reds.
- ◆ Named NL Player of the Week for June 13-19 after hitting .417 (10-for-24) with 3 home runs and a league-leading 11 RBI.
- ◆ Had an 11-game hitting streak (.386, 17-for-44) from June 13-25.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Kennedy enters his second season with the D-backs after leading the team in wins during his first full season in the Majors...named Most Valuable Pitcher by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA after ranking in the Top 10 among National League pitchers in a number of categories...missed a majority of the 2009 season with an aneurysm near his right shoulder...in 2007, received the New York Yankees' Kevin Lawm Award as the organization's minor league Pitcher of the Year and was named to Baseball America's midseason and postseason Minor League All-Star Teams...made his big league debut in 2007 after pitching just one full season of professional baseball.

- ◆ In his first full season in the Majors, led the D-backs' staff in wins after posting a 9-10 record, 3.80 ERA (82 ER in 194.0 IP) and .228 opponents average with 70 walks and 168 strikeouts in 32 starts...his 15 quality starts tied for tops on the team with Rodrigo Lopez.
- ◆ Named Most Valuable Pitcher by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA.
- ◆ Among NL starters, ranked eighth with a .228 opponents average and 7.56 hits allowed per 9.0 innings.
- ◆ Limited the opposition to a .224 average (36-for-161) with runners in scoring position and held left-handed hitters to a .218 average (76-for-348) with 29 walks and 88 strikeouts.
- ◆ After starting the season with an 0-1 record and 3 no-decisions in his first 4 starts, recorded his first win as a D-back on April 29 @ Cubs...permitted a run over the first 7.0 innings before leaving after an eighth-inning grand slam by Kosuke Fukudome...the win was the second of his career and first since receiving the win in his Major League debut with the Yankees on Sept. 1, 2007, a span of 17 games (15 starts).
- ◆ Had a 6-7 record and team-best 3.17 ERA among starting pitchers in his first 13 starts through June 9 before suffering losses in 4 consecutive starts from June 15-July 5 (0-4, 7.61 ERA).
- ◆ Posted back-to-back wins July 10 vs. Marlins and July 19 vs. Mets and won 3 of 5 overall starts in July.
- ◆ Starting with his July 10 start vs. Marlins, posted a 6-3 record and 3.38 ERA in his final 15 starts of the season...the stretch also included a team-high and career-best 17-inning scoreless streak from Aug. 31-Sept. 12...also had 5 no-decisions during that stretch where he allowed 3 earned runs or less, including 2 starts without allowing any runs and 2 others with only giving up 1 run.
- ◆ Tied a team season-high when he struck out a career-high 12 batters on Aug. 26 @ Padres, his first career double-digit strikeout game...also allowed a career-low tying 1 hit, having also done so with the Yankees on Sept. 13, 2007 @ Blue Jays...it marked only the eighth time in franchise history a D-backs hurler has allowed 1 hit or less with 12 or more strikeouts.
- ◆ Picked up his first career hit on April 18 @ Padres with a second-inning single off Wade LeBlanc...collected his first career RBI with a sacrifice fly in the seventh inning on April 29 @ Cubs...recorded his first career multi-hit game on Aug. 14 @ Nationals, going 2-for-3 with a run scored and RBI...collected his first career extra-base hit when he connected for a double on Sept. 6 vs. Giants...on Sept. 12 @ Rockies, established a new career-high with 3 hits.

- ◆ Missed majority of the season with an aneurysm near his right shoulder.
- ◆ Opened the season at Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre and went 1-0 with a 1.59 ERA (4 ER in 22.2 IP) in 4 starts.
- ◆ Placed on the disabled list on April 28 with what was originally diagnosed as a vasospasm in his right middle finger and following a MRI in May, was later diagnosed as an aneurysm near his right shoulder...on May 12, had surgery to remove the aneurysm performed by Dr. George Todd in New York, N.Y.
- ◆ Reinstated from the disabled list on Sept. 12 and started for Single-A Tampa in the 5-2 win over Charlotte in Game 1 of the Florida State League Championship Series.
- ◆ Transferred to Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on Sept. 13...on Sept. 16, tossed 3.0 perfect innings with 6 strikeouts (9 batters faced) in the Game 2 loss, 4-1, at Durham in the Governor's Cup Finals.
- ◆ Recalled by the Yankees on Sept. 19 and made his lone appearance on Sept. 23 @ Angels.
- ◆ Following the season, pitched for the Surprise Rafters in the Arizona Fall League...in 7 starts, went 2-1 with a 4.25 ERA (14 ER in 29.2 IP).

- ◆ Appeared in 10 games (9 starts) for the Yankees over a trio of stints while pitching in 13 games (12 starts) at Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre.
- ◆ For the Yankees, went 0-4 with an 8.17 ERA (36 ER in 39.2 IP) as the team went 2-7 in his starts...his ERA was the highest ever for a Yankees pitcher with at least 9 starts...his 9 winless starts tied for the most by a Yankees pitcher (Steve Trout, 1987) in a season...his 9-game winless streak was the longest ever by a Yankees rookie to start a season.

- ◆ The 23-year old teamed with 21-year old Phil Hughes to become the fourth pair of pitchers each under the age of 24 to start for the Yankees within the team's first four games of a season...also Dave Righetti (23) and Mike Morgan (22) in 1982; Mel Stottlemyre (23) and Al Downing (23) in 1965; and Hippo Vaughn (23), Ray Fisher (23) and Ray Caldwell (22) in 1911.
- ◆ At Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, went 5-3 with a 2.35 ERA (18 ER in 69.0 IP) and .206 opponents batting average (52-for-253) with 17 walks and 72 strikeouts...lefties hit .180 (27-for-150) and righties batted .243 (25-for-103).
- ◆ Suffered his first career loss, 13-4, on April 4 vs. Rays, allowing 6 earned runs on 4 hits and 4 walks with 2 strikeouts in 2.1 innings.
- ◆ Made his first relief appearance on April 9 @ Royals...was scheduled to start but a potential rain delay resulted in the use of the bullpen to start the game while Kennedy was brought on in relief in the sixth inning.
- ◆ Optioned to Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on May 4.
- ◆ On May 6 vs. Charlotte, tossed 5.2 no-hit innings and finished with 7.1 scoreless innings pitched in a 4-0 win.
- ◆ Recalled from Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on May 15 to start @ Rays and suffered a 5-2 loss.
- ◆ Placed on the disabled list on May 28 with a right lat muscle strain, having departed after the third inning on May 27 @ Orioles.
- ◆ Activated on June 24 and optioned to Single-A Tampa.
- ◆ Transferred to Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on July 3.
- ◆ On Aug. 8, recalled by the Yankees for an emergency start @ Angels, after RHP Joba Chamberlain was placed on the disabled list, and was optioned back to Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on Aug. 9.
- ◆ Started a pair of postseason games for International League Champion Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, going 0-1 with a 1.50 ERA (2 ER in 12.0 IP).
- ◆ Following the season, pitched for Los Indios de Mayaguez in the Puerto Rico Winter League...went 2-2 with a league-low 1.56 ERA (6 ER in 34.2 IP) in 6 starts.

- ◆ Pitched his way through Single-A Advanced Tampa, Double-A Trenton and Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre to earn a September call-up to the Yankees for his first Major League action, having entered the season rated by Baseball America as the Yankees' fifth-best prospect.
- ◆ In 3 starts for the Yankees, went 1-0 with a 1.89 ERA (4 ER in 19.0 IP) and a .191 opponents batting average (13-for-68) with 9 walks and 15 strikeouts...the Yankees were 2-1 in his starts.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Montero returns as the D-backs' starting catcher for the second consecutive season... among NL catchers since 2007 (min. 1,100 PA), ranks fourth with a .443 slugging percentage; seventh with a .267 batting average; eighth with 36 home runs; and 10th with a .329 on-base percentage... established career-bests in virtually every offensive category after assuming starting catcher duties in late-June 2009... in 2007, led all rookies with 3 pinch-hit home runs, 7 pinch-hit RBI and a pinch-hit average of .350 (7-for-20).

- ◆ Opened the season for the first time in his career as the D-backs' starting catcher but battled back from early season knee surgery to post offensive numbers that ranked among the top-half of NL backstops...batted .266 (79-for-297) with 9 home runs, 20 doubles and 43 RBI in 85 games for the D-backs.
- ◆ Committed a career-low 2 errors in 522 total chances during 79 games to post a .996 fielding percentage, which tied for tops in the Majors among catchers with a minimum of 75 games with the Rockies' Yorvit Torrealba, Twins' Joe Mauer and Dodgers' Rod Barajas...had a career-high 6 passed balls.
- ◆ Threw out 16 of 63 basestealers (25.4%)...twice threw out 2 basestealers in a game on July 4 vs. Dodgers and July 18 @ Dodgers, marking only the fifth and sixth times in his career he accomplished the feat.
- ◆ Had a trio of 2-hit games to start the season before suffering a torn meniscus in his right knee while running to first base on April 10 vs. Pirates...was placed on the 15-day disabled list the next day and underwent surgery on April 15 to repair the meniscus tear...team physician Dr. Michael Lee performed the surgery in Phoenix.
- ◆ Was reinstated to the roster on June 12 after missing 57 games and proceeded to reach base safely via a hit or walk in 18 of his next 20 games while batting .342 (25-for-73) with 6 doubles, 2 homers and 10 RBI...stretch included a season-high 9-game hitting streak (.417, 15-for-36) from June 13-23, which tied for the second-longest streak of his career.
- ◆ Homered in consecutive games for the fourth time in his career on July 29 @ Phillies and July 30 @ Mets.
- ◆ Hit the second of four consecutive homers to tie the Major League record for the seventh time on Aug. 11 @ Brewers...his homer was preceded by Adam LaRoche and followed by Mark Reynolds and Stephen Drew.
- ◆ Had his fourth career 2-homer game on Aug. 14 @ Nationals, becoming the only Major League catcher to hit 2 home runs in a game in each of the last four seasons...joined Rays' Kelly Shoppach and Angels' Bobby Wilson to become third trio of catchers to have multi-homer games on the same day...was also accomplished on July 26, 1997 by Benito Santiago, Mike Piazza and Javy Lopez and on May 8, 1999 by Mike Lieberthal, Santiago and Charles Johnson.
- ◆ Hit 2 triples to tie the Major League single-game record for a catcher in final home game on Sept. 26 vs. Dodgers, becoming 24th catcher since the expansion era began in 1961 to accomplish the feat and first since the Royals' John Buck on April 30, 2009 vs. Blue Jays.

- ◆ Established himself as one of the best catchers in baseball after assuming the starting catching duties in late-June and subsequently enjoyed a breakout campaign, highlighted by career bests with a .294 batting average, 128 games, 425 at-bats, 61 runs scored, 125 hits, 30 doubles, 16 home runs, 59 RBI, 38 walks, a .355 on-base percentage and a .478 slugging percentage.
- ◆ Among big league catchers (min. 450 plate appearances), ranked fourth in batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage and a .832 OPS; tied for fourth in doubles; tied for fifth with 46 extra-base hits; sixth in runs scored; tied for eighth with 30 multi-hit games; ninth in 125 hits and RBI; tied for ninth in home runs.
- ◆ Hit .329 (27-for-87) against southpaws, which was second-best on the team behind Justin Upton (min. 75 plate appearances).
- ◆ In 111 games at catcher, including 101 starts, nabbed 34 of 166 attempted basestealers (20.5%).
- ◆ Had a career-high 4 hits on June 7 @ Padres (an 18-inning game) and July 18 @ Cardinals.
- ◆ Had a season-high 3 RBI on April 20 vs. Rockies, July 22 @ Rockies, Aug. 29 vs. Astros and Sept. 29 @ Giants.
- ◆ Hit the front end of back-to-back home runs with Dan Haren on June 30 @ Reds, the first such homers by a catcher and pitcher since the Braves' Brian McCann and Jorge Sosa in 2006.
- ◆ Collected his first career stolen base on June 18 @ Royals, swiping second base as part of a double-steal with Chris Young in the third inning.
- ◆ Had a pair of 9-game hitting streaks from July 17-26, batting .444 (16-for-36), and Aug. 9-20, hitting .419 (13-for-31).
- ◆ In July, led all catchers with a .640 slugging percentage and ranked seventh in the Majors with a 1.006 OPS.
- ◆ Had a career-high 3 doubles on Aug. 10 vs. Mets, matching the franchise record for the 17th time.
- ◆ Had a career-high 10-game hitting streak from Aug. 26-Sept. 5, batting .351 (13-for-37).
- ◆ Slugged 2 homers in a game for the third time in his career on Sept. 29 @ Giants.

- ◆ Following the season, played for Navegantes del Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League...in 14 games, hit .255 (13-for-51) with 8 doubles and 6 RBI.

- ◆ Appeared in 53 games at catcher, including 45 starts, in serving as the backup catcher for the second consecutive season.
- ◆ Began the season on the disabled list with a fractured right finger...saw action in 11 games for Triple-A Tucson during a rehab assignment prior to making season debut with the D-backs on April 23 @ Dodgers.

Nady joins the D-backs after spending parts of 9 Major League seasons with the San Diego Padres, New York Mets, Pittsburgh Pirates, New York Yankees and Chicago Cubs...earned Player of the Week honors with both the Pirates and Yankees in 2008 to become the first player to win the award in both the National and American Leagues in the same season since 2004...garnered NL Rookie of the Month honors in May 2003...became the 20th player to go directly to the Majors since the draft was instituted in 1965 after joining the Padres in September 2000.

- ◆ Appeared in 119 games for the Cubs and hit .256 (81-for-317) with 13 doubles, 6 home runs and 33 RBI.
- ◆ Made 76 starts, including 48 at first base, 22 in right field, 4 in left field and 2 as the club's designated hitter.
- ◆ Played in a season-high 31 straight games from Aug. 15-Sept. 18, batting .324 (35-for-108) with 5 doubles, 2 home runs and 10 RBI during that stretch.
- ◆ Posted a .275 batting average (50-for-182) with 4 home runs and 19 RBI in 63 road games.
- ◆ Got the start in right field for the Cubs' home opener vs. Brewers on April 12...delivered a 3-run home run off Doug Davis to ignite a 5-run third inning.
- ◆ Hit a game-winning, eighth-inning pinch-hit single that plated Alfonso Soriano on May 16 vs. Pirates...snapped a 0-for-9 drought as a pinch-hitter.
- ◆ Matched his career-high with 4 hits on June 1 @ Pirates, falling a triple short of the cycle, in his ninth career 4-hit contest.
- ◆ Hit a monthly-best .320 (24-for-75) with 8 doubles, a home run and 8 RBI in 22 games during August.
- ◆ Had a season-high 7-game hitting streak from Sept. 11-18 over which he hit .393 (11-for-28).

- ◆ Appeared in just 7 games with the Yankees before undergoing season-ending Tommy John surgery on July 8, forcing the outfielder to miss 154 regular season games...batted .286 (8-for-28) with 4 runs scored, 4 doubles and 2 RBI for the season.
- ◆ Hit safely in each of his 7 games, marking the longest hitting streak to begin a season in his career.
- ◆ Made his sixth career Opening Day roster with his fourth different team...went 1-for-4 with a double, RBI and walk as the starting right fielder on April 6 @ Orioles.
- ◆ Left the April 14 game @ Rays in the eighth inning with soreness in his right elbow...marked his final appearance of the season.
- ◆ Placed on the disabled list on April 16 (retroactive to April 15) with an ulnar collateral ligament injury of the right elbow.
- ◆ Began a hitting program on May 15 at extended Spring Training and hit .367 (11-for-30) with 7 walks, a double and 3 home runs in 8 games (not including intrasquad or simulated games)...made his first appearance in right field at extended spring training on June 18.
- ◆ Played 2 rehab games with Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre from June 24-25 vs. Syracuse...removed himself in the fifth inning of the June 25 contest after making a throw from the outfield.
- ◆ Visited Dr. Lewis Yocum in California on June 30...had season-ending Tommy John surgery on July 8...transferred to the 60-day disabled list on July 31.

- ◆ Enjoyed a career year after batting .305 (169-for-555) with 76 runs scored, 37 doubles, a triple, 25 home runs and 97 RBI in 148 games with the Pirates and Yankees...established career-highs in runs, hits, doubles, home runs, RBI and walks (39).
- ◆ Earned Player of the Week honors with both the Pirates and Yankees to become the first player to win the award in both leagues during the same season since Carlos Beltran (Kansas City/Houston) in 2004.
- ◆ Tied for seventh among all big league outfielders with a career-high-tying 12 outfield assists.
- ◆ Had 4 hitting streaks of at least 10 games, including a career-high 14-game hitting streak from April 12-26 over which he batted .370 (20-for-54) with 6 doubles, a home run and 13 RBI.
- ◆ Was the Pirates' Opening Day starter in right field...went 4-for-7 with a double, 2 home runs and 4 RBI on Opening Day @ Braves...became just 1 of 6 players in Major League history to hit 2 home runs in his team's first game twice in his career (also hit 2 home runs for the Padres on Opening Day in 2005).
- ◆ Led the NL with 26 RBI in April, marking the most by a Pirates player since Willie Stargell had 27 in April 1971.
- ◆ Suffered a left shoulder contusion on June 14 while running into the right field wall in foul territory @ Orioles...underwent an MRI in Pittsburgh on June 16 and results revealed a Grade One AC joint sprain of his left shoulder...missed 9 games before walking as a pinch-hitter on June 27 vs. Rays.

- ◆ Reached base in 39 of his final 41 games (with an at-bat) with the Pirates, batting .347 (52-for-150) with 12 doubles and 6 home runs.
- ◆ Traded to the Yankees for minor league pitchers Ross Ohlendorf, Jeff Karstens and Daniel McCutchen and outfielder Jose Tabata on July 26...was batting a team-high .330 (108-for-327) with 26 doubles, a triple, 13 home runs and 57 RBI in 89 games with the Pirates at the time he was traded...also tied for tops in the NL with 10 outfield assists and ranked fifth in batting average.
- ◆ Hit .268 (61-for-228) with 11 doubles, 12 home runs and 40 RBI in 59 games with the Yankees...had the second-most RBI and tied for the second-most homers on the team from the time of the acquisition through the end of the season.
- ◆ 6 of his 12 home runs with the Yankees either tied the game or put the Yankees ahead.
- ◆ Made his Yankees debut on July 26 @ Red Sox.
- ◆ Homered for his first hit as a Yankee on July 28 vs. Orioles...was the first player to go deep for his first hit as a Yankee since Wilson Betemit on Aug. 1, 2007 vs. White Sox and the 14th to do so in that decade.
- ◆ Homered in consecutive games from Aug. 3-4 to give him 4 home runs in his first 9 games with the Yankees (30 at-bats)...according to Elias Sports Bureau, was the first midseason acquisition by the Yankees to hit 4 home runs within his first 30 at-bats since Glenallen Hill did so in 2000 in his 24th at-bat.
- ◆ Set a career-high with 6 RBI and tied a career-high with 4 hits on Aug. 3 vs. Angels.
- ◆ Named the AL Co-Player of the Week along with the Royals' Mike Aviles for July 28-Aug. 3 after batting .526 (10-for-19) with 3 home runs and 10 RBI in 6 games.

Saunders enters his second season with the D-backs after being acquired from the Los Angeles Angels last season... established career-highs in strikeouts and innings pitched after reaching the 200.0 inning plateau for the first time in his career in 2010... from 2008-09, his 33-14 record was second in the American League only to Roy Halladay during that span, while his .702 winning percentage was third...selected to his first All-Star Game in 2008 after posting a 12-5 record prior to the break and went on to set career-highs with 17 wins, 3.41 ERA, 198.0 innings pitched and 103 strikeouts...also finished sixth in the AL in ERA and wins, while posting the best road-ERA (2.55) in the Majors in 2008.

- ◆ Acquired in a trade with the Angels on July 25 and went on to post a 4.25 ERA (39 ER in 82.2 IP) and .293 opponents average with 19 walks and 50 strikeouts in 13 starts with the D-backs...went 6-10 with a 4.62 ERA (62 ER in 120.2 IP) in 20 starts with the Angels.
- ◆ Accumulated a combined career-high 114 strikeouts and 203.1 innings pitched, having worked at least 200.0 innings the first time in his career.
- ◆ Tossed 15 quality starts, his second-highest single-season total behind his 22 quality starts in 2008.
- ◆ Tossed at least 7.0 innings in 14 starts and went 8-3 with 1.65 ERA (20 ER in 109.0 IP) and .226 opponents average with 16 walks and 63 strikeouts in those contests...tossed at least 8.0 innings in 7 starts, surpassing last season's mark of 3 games, and went 6-0 with a 0.92 ERA (6 ER in 59.0 IP) and 2.05 opponents average with 8 walks and 28 strikeouts in those games.
- ◆ In his 9 victories, posted a 1.13 ERA (9 ER in 71.2 IP) and .209 opponents average with 12 walks and 37 strikeouts.
- ◆ Allowed 2 or fewer earned runs in 16 of his 33 starts, going 9-2 with 1.52 ERA (20 ER in 118.1 IP) and .231 opponents average with 24 walks and 68 strikeouts.
- ◆ Tossed his second-career complete game shutout, 4-0, on May 14 vs. Athletics... recorded his second complete game of the season on June 9 @ A's.
- ◆ Struck out a season-high 8 batters on June 26 vs. Rockies in a 4-2 victory...retired 10 of the final 11 batters he faced.
- ◆ Made his final start with the Angels on July 23 @ Rangers, taking the 1-0 loss despite allowing just 1 run on 7 hits with a walk over 7.0 innings.
- ◆ Acquired from the Angels on July 25 with pitchers Patrick Corbin, Rafael Rodriguez and Tyler Skaggs for RHP Dan Haren.
- ◆ Did not factor in the 3-2, extra-inning loss on July 29 @ Phillies in his D-backs debut despite allowing just 2 runs over 7.0 innings.
- ◆ Joined Curt Schilling as the only other D-backs pitcher to throw a complete game in his first home start with the D-backs after accomplishing the feat on Aug. 3 vs. Nationals.
- ◆ Snapped a career-long 4-game losing streak with a 7-2 win on Aug. 30 vs. Padres.
- ◆ Collected his first big league hit on Sept. 4 vs. Astros and finished 2-for-4 with his first career RBI and stolen base, snapping an 0-for-15 career skid...became the fourth D-backs pitcher to record a stolen base, joining Shawn Estes (2005), Brian Anderson (1998, 1999) and Jeff Suppan (1998).

- ◆ Posted a 16-7 record and 4.60 ERA (95 ER in 186.0 IP) in a career-high-tying 31 starts...his 16 wins tied for seventh in the AL, while his .696 winning percentage was fourth-highest in the league.
- ◆ Was the Angels' Opening Day starter, tossing 6.2 innings in the 3-0 shutout victory vs. Athletics on April 6.
- ◆ Tossed his first career complete game shutout opposite Zach Greinke on May 9 vs. Royals...allowed 5 hits and a walk with 6 strikeouts in the 1-0 victory.
- ◆ Earned his 40th career victory on June 24 vs. Rockies...with a 40-19 record, set the mark for highest winning percentage (.678) at 40 wins in club history.
- ◆ Placed on the 15-day disabled list on Aug. 8 with irritation in his left shoulder and was reinstated on Aug. 26.
- ◆ Won his final 7 decisions (7-0, 2.55 ERA) after returning from the disabled list.

- ◆ Posted a 17-7 record with a complete game and 3.41 ERA (75 ER in 198.0 IP) over 31 starts in his first full season in the Majors, establishing career-bests in all major categories, including wins, ERA, innings pitched and strikeouts (103)...among AL leaders, ranked sixth in ERA and wins and posted the best road-ERA (2.55) in the circuit....the Angels went 32-8 in his starts and 13-1 when he pitched at least 7.0 innings...pitched 8.0 or more innings in 6 starts...limited opponents to 3 earned runs or less 24 times.
- ◆ Became the first Angels left-hander to record 17 wins since Jarrod Washburn accomplished the feat in 2006.

- ◆ Became only the third Angel in club history to open a season 6-0 or better...teammate Ervin Santana became the fourth player to join the group, making them the eighth pair of teammates since 1920 to start 6-0 simultaneously...the duo also became just the second pair in Major League history to post 5-0 records-or-better in the month of April...joined Frank Tanana as the only pitchers in club history to go 5-0 in April.
- ◆ Allowed 3 consecutive home runs in the second inning on June 9 vs. Rays, becoming the first Angel to allow 3 straight home runs in an inning since Jason Dickson did so on April 18, 2000 @ Blue Jays.
- ◆ Tossed his first-career complete game in a 3-2 loss @ Rangers on July 8.
- ◆ Selected to his first All-Star Game...pitched the third inning in the AL's 4-3, 15-inning win at Yankee Stadium...became the Angels' first left-handed pitcher to be selected to the Midsummer Classic since Chuck Finley in 1996...also became the first Angel with 12 or more wins (12-5) at the All-Star break since 1991.
- ◆ Improved to 14-5 in the Angels' 9-2 win on July 20 @ Red Sox...no Angels' pitcher had won 14 games by the end of July since Chuck Finley and Mark Langston both won 14 in 1991.
- ◆ Posted 15.0 consecutive scoreless innings from Sept. 12-28, equaling the longest streak by an Angel in 2008 (Jon Garland).

- ◆ Went 8-5 with a 4.44 ERA (53 ER in 107.1 IP) in 18 starts over 4 stints with the big league club.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Among players since 1970 who have accumulated 1,500 plate appearances before turning 23, Upton's .824 career OPS ranks fifth-best in baseball history behind Alex Rodriguez (.958), Miguel Cabrera (.939), Ken Griffey, Jr. (.860) and Cesar Cedeño (.828)...his .982 OPS against left-handed pitchers from 2009-10 ranks third among National League hitters, while his .325 batting average ranks tied for fifth and his .566 slugging percentage ranks sixth...has been outstanding against American League clubs in Interleague play from 2008-10, ranking second among all NL hitters with a .456 on-base percentage and fourth with a .355 batting average and 54 hits...entered the 2010 season with a career .836 OPS, joining an elite group of sluggers in Major League history to have at least an .830 OPS by the age of 21...the list includes nine Hall of Famers (Mel Ott, Ted Williams, Al Kaline, Jimmie Foxx, Frank Robinson, Mickey Mantle, Orlando Cepeda, Eddie Mathews, Hank Aaron), two future Hall of Famers (Alex Rodriguez, Ken Griffey Jr.) a career All-Star (Vada Pinson) and a player whose career was cut short by injury (Tony Conigliaro).

- ◆ Missed most of the last month of the season with a left shoulder strain but compiled a .273 average with 73 runs scored, 27 doubles, 3 triples, 17 home runs, 69 RBI and 18 stolen bases while drawing a career-high 64 walks in 132 games.
- ◆ Missed a total of 27 games after straining his left shoulder while swinging the bat awkwardly in a game on Aug. 30...received a second opinion from Dr. James Andrews on Sept. 27 that concurred with D-backs' medical personnel the slight tear in his labrum he suffered during Spring Training in 2006 had not gotten any worse.
- ◆ His .321 average and .420 on-base percentage while batting with runners in scoring position led the team.
- ◆ His .985 fielding percentage was a career best after committing a career-low 4 errors...had a career-best 47-game errorless streak from April 23-June 16.
- ◆ After batting only .213 with 3 home runs and 10 RBI in April, he rebounded in May and collected hits in 19 of 28 games while batting .278 with 5 doubles, 2 triples, 5 home runs and 17 RBI.
- ◆ Led all National League batters with a .446 average, .530 on-base percentage and 1.262 OPS in 15 Interleague games...also finished fourth in runs (15) and hits (25).
- ◆ From June 10-30, hit .358 (24-for-67) with 13 runs scored, 4 doubles, 4 home runs, 9 RBI and 11 walks...reached base via hit or walk in 13 straight games from June 15-28, posting a .417 average (20-for-48) with 11 runs scored, 3 doubles, 4 home runs, 9 RBI, 8 walks and a .517 on-base percentage...his .423 on-base percentage and 6.94 plate appearances per walk ratio during June ranked seventh in the NL.
- ◆ Tied the franchise record with 4 runs scored on June 21 vs. Yankees, going 3-for-3 with a season-high 4 RBI in his third career 2-homer game, while reaching base in each of his 5 plate appearances.
- ◆ Faced his brother, B.J., for the first time during his career @ Rays from June 25-27, becoming the last of eight sets of brothers currently active in the Majors to face each other...the D-backs had parts of three of the eight set of brothers on their roster with Upton, Stephen Drew and Adam LaRoche in 2010.
- ◆ Had a season- and team-high 17-game hit streak (.403, 27-for-67) from July 10-Aug. 1...during the streak, he collected 12 extra-base hits, 11 RBI, 9 walks, a .468 on-base percentage and .657 slugging percentage with 7 multi-hit games, including three 3-hit outings.

- ◆ Set career highs with a .300 batting average, 138 games played, 526 at-bats, 84 runs scored, 158 hits, 30 doubles, 7 triples, 26 home runs, 86 RBI, 55 walks, a .366 on-base percentage and .532 slugging percentage...ranked 25th in league MVP voting after receiving a ninth-place vote.
- ◆ Received his first NL All-Star Team selection...entered the game as a pinch-hitter in the sixth inning and grounded out against Seattle's Felix Hernandez...took over defensively in left field...in his second at-bat, grounded out against New York Yankees' Mariano Rivera.
- ◆ Joined Orlando Cepeda (1959) as the only player in MLB history to compile at least a .300 average with 25 homers, 80 RBI and 19 stolen bases in a single season at the age of 21 or younger...in 1959, Cepeda hit .317 with 27 home runs, 105 RBI and 23 stolen bases for the Giants.
- ◆ Hit .377 (46-for-122) with 12 home runs, 30 RBI and a .762 slugging percentage against southpaws...his slugging percentage led the Majors while his batting average and home runs ranked fifth in the NL...against righties, hit .277 (112-for-404) with 14 home runs and 56 RBI.
- ◆ His 26 home runs and 20 stolen bases equated to a 22.6 power speed percentage, 10th-best in the NL.
- ◆ Among NL players from the seventh inning on, he ranked second with a .339 batting average (56-for-165) and sixth with 56 hits and a .576 slugging percentage...among all players, he ranked fourth in batting average and 10th in slugging percentage.

- ◆ Posted a .393 average (24-for-61) with 8 doubles, 2 home runs, 8 RBI and .456 on-base and .623 slugging percentages in 15 Interleague games.

D-BACKS REMEMBER JOE BLACK

Major League Baseball and the Arizona Diamondbacks suffered a great loss with the passing of Joe Black on May 17, 2002. Black began his playing career in the Negro Leagues and shuffled through various professional leagues before making his Major League debut in 1952 with the Brooklyn Dodgers as a teammate of Jackie Robinson. Black made baseball history in his rookie season when he became the first African-American pitcher to win a World Series game, and eventually was named the National League Rookie of the Year.

Black remained an integral part of baseball following his playing days. As Vice President of the Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.), he dedicated his time to helping fellow baseball players who had fallen on hard times. He contributed his vast knowledge of the game as a consultant to the Commissioner's Office. A Phoenix resident, Black worked in the D-backs' Community Affairs department and shared his stories as a guest speaker for numerous community groups.

Beyond baseball, Black was a pioneer in the business world and worked tirelessly to impact the civil and human rights advancements for minorities. In remembrance of him, a baseball bearing his name hangs from the rafters of Chase Field. The Arizona Fall League also honors his memory with the Joe Black Trophy, which is awarded to the league's Most Valuable Player each year.

D-BACKS TIE CONSECUTIVE HOMER RECORD

Solo home runs by Adam LaRoche, Miguel Montero, Mark Reynolds and Stephen Drew during the fourth inning in the D-backs' 8-2 win at Milwaukee on Aug. 11, 2010, tied the Major League record for most consecutive home runs in a game for the seventh time in history. The feat was last accomplished by the Chicago White Sox in a game against the Kansas City Royals on Aug. 14, 2008, and last in the National League by the Los Angeles Dodgers against the San Diego Padres on Sept. 18, 2006.

Regular - distance estimated by D-backs; Italics - distance estimated by HitTracker; *Postseason

Credit Arizona Diamondbacks for home run distances from 1998-2005.

Credit HitTracker for home run distances from 2006-2009 -- True Distance (a.k.a. Actual Distance) - If the home run flew uninterrupted all the way back to field level, the actual distance the ball traveled from home plate, in feet. If the ball's flight was interrupted before returning all the way down to field level (as is usually the case), the estimated distance the ball would have traveled if its flight had continued uninterrupted all the way down to field level.

June 28: A bill submitted by Rep. Chris Herstam, R-Phoenix, allowing Maricopa County to assess a quarter-cent sales tax for a baseball-only stadium, passes the Arizona Legislature. The tax can be levied only after a franchise is granted.

July 25: Major League Baseball talks of adding new teams. Phoenix Suns owner Jerry Colangelo gets assurance from owners that Phoenix and Tampa are the top prospects. He begins a drive for investors and a stadium.

Nov. 10: At a jam-packed news conference at America West Arena, Colangelo announces he will put together an ownership group that will apply for a Major League Baseball expansion franchise.

Feb. 17: Maricopa County Supervisors vote 3-1 for the stadium tax, with one abstention. Baseball owners have until April 1, 1995, to award Phoenix a new franchise, or the stadium financing deal is off.

June 17: Ellerbe Becket beats out two other finalists working on the design of the new downtown stadium. A site just south of Jefferson Street and west of 7th Street is selected for the retractable-roof, natural-grass showplace.

Nov. 2: At a meeting in Chicago, the expansion committee hears presentations from Colangelo and other would-be ownership groups from Orlando and Tampa-St. Petersburg and two from northern Virginia.

March 9: At a meeting in Palm Beach, Fla., baseball's owners name the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays the 13th and 14th expansion teams in Major League Baseball history. The franchises are priced at a record $130 million apiece. Richard H. Dozer is named President and Joe Garagiola Jr. becomes Vice President and General Manager.

March 11: Season ticket deposits are first taken at a celebration party on the plaza in front of America West Arena. Despite a soaking rain, more than 2,000 people show up to take part in the team's first official fan celebration.

April 5: The D-backs finalize a deal with Bank One that will result in the new downtown stadium carrying the name of Bank One Ballpark.

Aug. 17: The D-backs unveil their first farm team, the Lethbridge Mounties, soon to be renamed the Black Diamonds, of Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada in the Pioneer League.

Nov. 15: Still two seasons away from Opening Day, the D-backs have a manager. Buck Showalter, who was the AL's Manager of the Year in 1994 with the New York Yankees, leading them to a Wild Card playoff spot in 1995, signs a seven-year contract that will put him in the dugout when the expansion team takes the field in 1998.

Nov. 16: Ceremonies, including a game between two Little League teams, celebrate the groundbreaking for the Bank One Ballpark.

May 17: America West Airlines rolls out a Boeing 757 painted in a D-backs' theme, with a huge baseball logo on the tail. Immediately, fans, staff, sponsors and investors climb on board and head to Denver, where they see the Colorado Rockies defeat the St. Louis Cardinals, 12-11.

May 31: The D-backs and Chicago White Sox jointly announce that they will share a new spring-training facility in Tucson, beginning in 1998.

June 4: LHP Nick Bierbrodt becomes the team's first-ever choice in the amateur draft.

June 24: More than 6,000 fans turn out at Scottsdale Stadium to see the D-backs' Arizona League team make its debut. OF Juan Garcia homers to lead off the first inning and then adds another, but Oakland's rookie league team wins, 15-7.

Oct. 11: The D-backs sign Olympic 1B Travis Lee, the second overall choice in the June draft. He and three other players had been declared free agents by Major League Baseball. Three weeks later, another of the four, RHP John Patterson, signs with Arizona.

Jan. 16: Meeting in Scottsdale, baseball's owners vote to place Arizona in the NL's West Division.

March 3: Pitchers and catchers report to Yuma, Ariz., for the D-backs' first minor league spring training camp. Players will be assigned to High Desert in the California League or South Bend in the Midwest League.

Sept. 12: Affirming that they are a statewide team, the D-backs sign a player-development contract that makes Tucson the franchise's Triple-A affiliate in the Pacific Coast League.

Nov. 17: Jay Bell becomes the D-backs' first Major Leaguer when he signs a five-year contract with Arizona.

Nov. 18: Arizona and the Tampa Bay Devil Rays each select 35 players in the MLB Expansion Draft held at Phoenix Civic Plaza. The D-backs' first choice is LHP Brian Anderson of the Cleveland Indians. Here is the complete draft:

Dec. 1: 3B Matt Williams comes to the D-backs from Cleveland in a headline-making trade that sends 3B Travis Fryman and LHP Tom Martin to the Indians. Williams signs a five-year contract extension through 2003.

Jan. 10: Single-game tickets go on sale for Opening Day on March 31 against the Colorado Rockies. All tickets are gone before lunch.

Feb. 13: Pitchers and catchers take the field at Kino Veterans Memorial Sportspark in Tucson to inaugurate the D-backs' first Major League spring training.

Feb. 27: In the D-backs' first Cactus League exhibition game, Edwin Diaz' ninth-inning sacrifice fly scores Kelly Stinnett with the winning run in a 6-5 victory vs. White Sox at Tucson Electric Park.

March 20: Jerry Colangelo and county officials break bottles of sparkling water over the rotunda railings to highlight the official dedication ceremony at Bank One Ballpark.

March 29: The final exhibition game of the season serves as a trial run for Bank One Ballpark as 49,198 fans see the White Sox defeat Arizona, 3-0.

March 31: With 50,179 fans overflowing Bank One Ballpark, the D-backs celebrate the first regular season game in franchise history. The Rockies win, 9-2. Travis Lee collects Arizona's first hit (a first-inning single), first homer, first run and first RBI.

April 5: Arizona celebrates its first victory, a 3-2 win vs. Giants that evens Andy Benes' record at 1-1.

July 30: Omar Daal pitches the franchise's first complete game shutout, scattering 4 hits in a 4-0 victory vs. Cubs.

Sept. 4: A 3-1 win vs. Astros gives the D-backs their seventh consecutive victory, equaling the longest winning streak by any expansion team in history.

Sept. 13: Andy Benes comes within 2 outs of pitching a no-hitter in a 5-0 win @ Reds, highlighting a Sept. in which he was 3-0 with a 0.47 ERA. Benes ends the season with a string of 27.1 scoreless innings.

Dec. 1: LHP Randy Johnson agrees to a four-year contract.

Feb. 25: President Clinton visits the D-backs at their spring training facilities in Tucson, visiting with players and staff members before accepting a team uniform jersey with his name and the No. 1 on the back.

April 11: Luis Gonzalez cracks a seventh-inning homer off Braves' Greg Maddux, beginning a hitting streak that will last through May 18. Gonzalez is the 37th player in Major League history to reach the 30-game plateau.

April 19: Jay Bell is named NL Player of the Week, becoming the first D-back ever to win the award. Before the season ends, he will be joined by Matt Williams (twice), Randy Johnson (twice) and Steve Finley. Williams was also NL Player of the Month for April and Johnson was Pitcher of the Month for July.

May 12: Matt Williams' 2-run, game-winning homer caps a 5-run ninth as Arizona comes from behind for an 8-6 win vs. Expos. It is the third straight night that the D-backs beat the Expos with a homer in their final at-bat. Jay Bell was the hero on May 10, with Luis Gonzalez doing the honors on May 11.

June 25: Bank One Ballpark plays host to its first no-hitter as Cardinals' Jose Jimenez outduels the D-backs' Randy Johnson, 1-0. The game's only run scores on Thomas Howard's single in the top of the ninth inning.

July 11: Jay Bell's sixth-inning grand slam wins $1 million for fan Glylene Hoyle of Chandler, who predicted the player and the inning before the game as part of Shamrock Farms Grand Slam Sundae. As an afterthought, the D-backs beat A's, 7-4.

July 13: Matt Williams and Jay Bell become the first D-backs to start an All-Star Game. Randy Johnson and Luis Gonzalez also make appearances. No team had more representatives.

July 21: Tony Womack legs out a ninth-inning, inside-the-park grand slam off relief ace Billy Wagner to give the D-backs a 7-4 victory @ Astros. It is the first inside-the-park homer in franchise history.

Sept. 24: Matt Williams scoops up Doug Mirabelli's ground ball for the final out of an 11-3 victory @ Giants that clinches the NL West championship for the D-backs. Arizona becomes the first expansion team to reach the playoffs or win a division title in its second year of competition.

Sept. 26: An estimated 8,000 fans jam the Bank One Ballpark Plaza to greet the D-backs on their return home from their sweep of the Giants.

Oct. 3: The D-backs notch win No. 100 of the year in the season finale. Bernard Gilkey and Rod Barajas hit back-to-back home runs in a 10-3 win vs. Padres.

Oct. 5: In the team's first postseason appearance, Arizona drops an 8-4 decision vs. Mets.

Oct. 6: Todd Stottlemyre scatters 4 hits over 6.2 innings to help the D-backs notch their first postseason win, 7-1 vs. Mets, as Steve Finley's 2-run single in the third puts Arizona ahead to stay.

Oct. 9: Arizona's season ends when Todd Pratt homers in the bottom of the 10th inning to give the Mets a 4-3 victory in Game 4 of the NL Division Series.

Nov. 11: The D-backs earn their first Gold Glove Award when Steve Finley is honored as one of the NL's top-fielding outfielders.

Nov. 16: After leading the Major Leagues in strikeouts, innings pitched and complete games, Randy Johnson gives the Arizona franchise its first major individual trophy by winning his second Cy Young Award.

April 11: Randy Johnson is selected co-NL Player of the Week, sharing the honors with Montreal's Vladimir Guerrero. Johnson was also selected NL Pitcher of the Month for April.

May 31: Arizona turns its first-ever triple play, in the fifth inning vs. Cardinals. With the bases loaded and nobody out, the Cardinals' Mark McGwire hit a fly ball to center, which was caught by CF Steve Finley, who then fired to home plate, where C Damian Miller tagged Placido Polanco, then threw to third base, where SS Tony Womack tagged out Edgar Renteria.

July 5: Luis Gonzalez becomes the first D-back to hit for the cycle, accomplishing the feat @ Astros with a ninth-inning home run in a 12-9 D-backs win.

July 11: Randy Johnson and Steve Finley represent the D-backs at the All-Star Game in Atlanta. Johnson is the starting pitcher for the NL, while Finley enters the game as a defensive replacement as singles home a run in his only at-bat.

July 20: The first-ever weekday matinee at Bank One Ballpark ends in dramatic fashion, as Tony Womack's 2-run homer in the ninth gives Arizona a 3-2 win vs. Cardinals, in front of 40,937 fans.

July 24: The D-backs defeat the Indians, 12-7, in the Hall of Fame Game at Doubleday Field in Cooperstown. Minor league OF Luis Terrero was named the game MVP collecting 2 hits with a double and 2 runs.

July 26: RHP Curt Schilling is acquired from Philadelphia for LHP Omar Daal, RHPs Nelson Figueroa and Vicente Padilla, and INF Travis Lee. Two nights later, Schilling scatters 6 hits over 8.0 innings, leading the D-backs to a 4-1 win @ Marlins.

Sept. 10: Randy Johnson becomes the 12th pitcher in Major League history to record 3,000 career strikeouts with a fourth-inning strikeout of Marlins' Mike Lowell at Pro Player Stadium. Earlier in the game, Johnson records his 300th strikeout of the season, joining Nolan Ryan as the only pitchers to collect 300 strikeouts in three consecutive seasons.

Oct. 2: Buck Showalter is dismissed as manager of the D-backs.

Oct. 30: Former Major League catcher and broadcaster Bob Brenly is named D-backs Manager.

Nov. 7: OF Steve Finley wins his second consecutive Gold Glove award, his fourth award overall.

Nov. 14: Randy Johnson wins his second consecutive NL Cy Young Award, becoming the eighth pitcher in history to win the award three times.

Dec. 8: Free agent 1B Mark Grace signs a two-year contract with the D-backs after 13 seasons with the Chicago Cubs.

April 3: The Bob Brenly managerial era opens with a 3-2 win vs. DOogers.

April 26: Luis Gonzalez sets a NL record and ties Ken Griffey Jr.'s Major League record for home runs in the month of April by hitting his 12th and 13th round-trippers in a 13-6 victory vs. Braves. Gonzalez also earns NL Player of the Month honors.

May 8: Randy Johnson ties a Major League record with 20 strikeouts over 9.0 innings. Johnson did not get the decision, as the D-backs scored 3 runs in the bottom of the 11th for a 4-3 win vs. Reds. The performance later earns him co-NL Player of the Week honors for the week of May 7-13.

May 29: Erubiel Durazo's game-winning RBI double in the top of the 18th gives Arizona a 1-0 win @ Giants in the longest game, by innings, in franchise history. The marathon comes one day after the two teams played a 12-inning contest, with the D-backs also coming out victorious.

June 4: Curt Schilling is named NL Pitcher of the Month for May, after going 5-1, with a 2.35 ERA.

June 8: Luis Gonzalez ties a club-record with 3 home runs in a game, one to each field, in an 11-4 win @ Royals.

June 17: Tony Womack's fourth-inning grand slam sparked an 8-3 Father's Day home win vs. Tigers. It was an emotional moment for Womack, as his father had passed away two months earlier.

July 2: Luis Gonzalez earns his second NL Player of the Month award of the season, after hitting .417 in June, with 12 home runs and 35 RBI.

July 19: Randy Johnson sets a Major League record for strikeouts by a relief pitcher, fanning 16 Padres in a 3-0 D-backs win. The relief appearance was necessitated when a transformer blew at San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium the night before, suspending play in the bottom of the second inning. Johnson had been scheduled to pitch the next day and took over for starter Curt Schilling when the game resumed.

Aug. 12: Junior Spivey becomes the fifth rookie in the last 50 years to record a pair of 5-hit games, as Arizona completes a sweep of the Braves in Atlanta, winning 9-1. Spivey's first 5-hit game came June 21 in Colorado.

Aug. 19: Arizona completes a sweep of the Cubs to extend its winning streak to a club record-tying 9 games.

Aug. 23: Randy Johnson becomes the first pitcher in Major League history to record four consecutive 300-plus strikeout seasons, recording his 300th strikeout @ Pirates.

Aug. 30: Steve Finley becomes the first position player to pitch in a D-back game, tossing a scoreless ninth inning vs. Giants.

Sept. 5: Curt Schilling becomes the first 20-game winner in club history with 7-2 @ Giants. Schilling is also the season's first 20-game winner.

Sept. 8: Matt Williams' walk-off 2-run homer in the tenth gives D-backs 8-6 win vs. Padres. Steve Finley ties the game in the ninth with his second home run of the game, ending reliever Trevor Hoffman's streak of 27 consecutive save conversions.

Sept. 11: Tragedy strikes America, as terrorist attacks in New York, Washington D.C. and Pennsylvania lead to a postponement of baseball for one week. The games are rescheduled for the week following the original end of the regular season, which pushes the World Series into Nov. for the first time.

Sept. 27: Randy Johnson becomes a 20-game winner for the second time in his career with a 13-11 win vs. Brewers. During the same game, Johnson ties a Major League record by recording his 23rd double-digit strikeout game of the season, the third consecutive season he has recorded 23 double-digit strikeout games. Johnson also joins Schilling as the first 20-game winning teammates since 1999.

Sept. 28: Luis Gonzalez' 54th homer comes in the bottom of the 11th inning in a crucial 4-3 win vs. Dodgers.

Oct. 5: Behind the complete-game, 3-hitter by Albie Lopez, the D-backs clinch a tie for their second NL West Division crown in 3 years with 5-0 win @ Brewers. Later that night, the Giants lose vs. Dodgers gives the D-backs the title outright.

Oct. 9: The D-backs open the NL Division Series with a 1-0 win vs. Cardinals, behind Curt Schilling's complete-game, 3-hitter.

Oct. 12: Craig Counsell's 3-run homer in the seventh gives the D-backs a dramatic 5-3 victory @ Cardinals and a 2-1 lead in the best-of-5 Division Series. The Cardinals attempt to rally in the ninth but falls short as pinch-hitter Mark McGwire grounds into a game-ending double play.

Oct. 14: Tony Womack's ninth-inning single scores Danny Bautista with the game-winner as the D-backs post their first ever playoff series win, defeating the Cardinals, 2-1, in Game 5 of the Division Series. Curt Schilling tosses his second complete game of the series, limiting the Cardinals to 6 hits, while striking out 9.

Oct. 16: The D-backs are victorious in their first ever NL Championship Series game, defeating Braves, 2-0. Randy Johnson ends a personal 7-game postseason losing streak with a complete-game 3-hitter.

Oct. 19: Arizona takes a 2-1 lead in the best-of-7 series with a 5-1 win @ Braves. Curt Schilling throws a complete-game 4-hitter and singled and scored as part of a 3-run fifth inning.

BIG UNIT HAS A PERFECT NIGHT IN ATLANTA

Adept at setting records throughout his Major League career, Randy Johnson added something new to his impressive resume when he retired all 27 Atlanta Braves he faced on May 18, 2004, in Turner Field. At 40 years, 251 days, he became the oldest pitcher in history to record a perfect game, bettering Cy Young, who was 37 years, 37 days on May 5, 1904. Johnson's gem was the 15th in modern day regular season history, the 16th including Don Larsen's perfect effort for the Yankees in the 1956 World Series.

Johnson fanned 13 in the 117-pitch performance which concluded with a 98-mph pitch to Eddie Perez to end the game. It was the first no-no in franchise history and first perfect game in the Majors since the Yankees' David Cone on July 18, 1999, vs. Montreal. It was also the first perfect game in the National League since the Expos' Dennis Martinez retired all 27 batters he faced on July 28, 1991 @ Dodgers.

Sept. 15: Brandon Webb throws his second consecutive complete game, fifth of the season, in 5-1 win vs. Rockies.

Sept. 16: The D-backs' 16-inning win vs. Rockies, 7-6, tied the record for the longest game (innings) in Chase Field. Arizona use a franchise record 9 pitchers.

Oct. 1: The D-backs say goodbye to Luis Gonzalez, Craig Counsell and Miguel Batista as they drop a 7-6 decision vs. Padres. A franchise-record crowd of 48,946 witnessed the game and postgame ceremonies. The game is also the last for two members of the D-backs' coaching staff, as hitting coach Mike Aldrete and bench coach Jay Bell announce their intentions to leave.

Oct. 28: Kevin Seitzer, a veteran of 12 seasons as a Major League player, is hired as D-backs' hitting coach.

Nov. 1: Daron Sutton joins the D-backs as the club's television play-by-play broadcaster, replacing Thom Brennaman, who leaves to take a play-by-play post with the Cincinnati Reds.

Nov. 3: For the second consecutive year, second baseman Orlando Hudson is the winner of a Rawlings Gold Glove award for defensive excellence. He earned the award in 2005 in the AL while a member of the Toronto Blue Jays.

Nov. 8: The D-backs unveil new team colors and uniforms in a celebrity-filled event at the Hotel Valley Ho resort in Scottsdale. The new colors are Sedona Red, Sonoran Sand and black.

Nov. 10: Kirk Gibson, a veteran of 17 Major League playing seasons, joins the D-backs as bench coach. Chip Hale, who guided the D-backs' Triple-A Tucson Sidewinders to the Pacific Coast League and Triple-A Championship, joins the Major League staff as third base coach.

Jan. 9: The D-backs re-acquire LHP Randy Johnson from the Yankees for RHP Luis Vizcaino and three minor leaguers.

April 2: The D-backs open the regular season with an 8-6 win vs. Rockies. Eric Byrnes' 2-run single and a sacrifice fly from Orlando Hudson capped a 3-run rally in the eighth inning. Four relievers combined for 3.0 scoreless innings.

April 9: The D-backs' 4-game sweep @ Nationals completes a 5-2 season-opening road trip.

April 25: Stephen Drew hits a 2-run, walk-off homer off all-time saves leader Trevor Hoffman as Arizona defeats San Diego at Chase Field, 3-2. The win offsets a 16-strikeout performance by Padres' Jake Peavy.

April 30: Brandon Webb limits the Dodgers to 1 run on 4 hits over 7.0 innings for the club's sixth consecutive win, 9-1. Arizona closes the month with a 16-11 mark and a half-game lead in the NL West.

May 19: The D-backs come back from a 7-2 deficit with a 5-run seventh inning and a 2-run eighth inning in a 9-7 win @ Pirates. Tony Clark's pinch grand slam tied the game in the seventh.

May 24: Rookie Micah Owings tosses his first career complete game in a 9-1 win vs. Astros.

May 25: Rookie Mark Reynolds goes 5-for-5 with 2 homers and 5 RBI in a 13-3 rout vs. Astros, just nine days after his contract was purchased from Double-A Mobile.

June 7: Right-handed pitcher Jarrod Parker of Norwell High School in Bluffton, Ind., is the D-backs' first-round selection (ninth overall) in the 2007 First-Year Player Draft.

July 10: Orlando Hudson makes his first career All-Star game appearance, taking over at second base in the seventh inning. Brandon Webb was selected to the mid-summer classic, as a replacement for Colorado's Brian Fuentes, for the second straight season, but did not see action in the game at AT&T Park in San Francisco.

July 11: Rick Schu replaces Kevin Seitzer as D-backs hitting coach.

July 26: Longtime Major League Baseball executive Roland Hemond returns to the D-backs' organization as a special assistant to President Derrick Hall. Hemond was with the D-backs from 1996-2000 as Senior Executive Vice President.

July 28: Conor Jackson's 10th-inning single seals its second consecutive walk-off win, 4-3, vs. Braves. Jackson's heroics stretch the D-backs' winning streak to 8 games and move them back into a tie for the NL West lead. The night before, Tony Clark's 11th-inning home run defeated the Braves, 8-7.

Aug. 1: Arizona surrenders a 4-run eighth inning but scores 4 runs in the top of the 11th for a 9-5 win @ Padres. Chris Young robbed Mike Cameron of a fifth-inning grand slam when he reached over the center field fence to catch Cameron's blast with the bases loaded and 2 outs.

Aug. 2: The D-backs purchase the contract of Justin Upton, who makes his Major League debut in the eighth inning @ Padres.

Aug. 5: Brandon Webb outduels Brad Penny, tossing a complete-game 7-hitter, 3-0, to complete a sweep @ Dodgers. The shutout ran Webb's scoreless streak to 24.0 innings.

Aug. 11: Brandon Webb limits the Nationals to 5 hits with 10 strikeouts for his second consecutive complete-game shutout, 1-0. Webb's consecutive scoreless inning streak reached 33.0 innings. Justin Upton's fourth-inning RBI triple proved to be the difference.

Aug. 17: Brandon Webb tosses his third consecutive complete-game shutout, 4-0, @ Braves to extend his scoreless streak to 42.0 innings.

Aug. 18: Playing in his home state, Micah Owings records a 12-6 win @ Braves. He allows 3 runs on 3 hits with 7 strikeouts over 7.0 innings and goes 4-for-5 with 2 homers, a double and 6 RBI.

Aug. 22: Brandon Webb's scoreless streak is halted at 42.0 innings on the Brewers' Prince Fielder's RBI single in the first inning. The streak ties for the 12th-best in Major League history. Webb posts a 3-2 win @ Brewers for his 14th win.

Sept. 5: In their final meeting of the year, the D-backs post a 9-6 win vs. Padres and eventual Cy Young winner Jake Peavy. Pitching on three days' rest, Peavy allows 8 runs over 4.0 innings, the highest run total and shortest outing for Peavy in 2007.

Sept. 5: Justin Upton is named Minor League Player of the Year by USA Today.

Sept. 27: Micah Owings and three relievers combine for a 8-0 shutout @ Pirates. Notified shortly before game time that he would start in place of Brandon Webb, Owings allows only 4 hits over 6.1 innings while going 4-for-4 with 3 RBI. The win allows Arizona to maintain a 1-game lead in the NL West with 3 games to play.

Sept. 28: The D-backs clinch their fourth postseason berth in 10 years of existence with a 4-2 win @ Rockies. Brandon Webb allows 2 runs on 8 hits over 7.0 innings for his 18th win. Jose Valverde earns his Major League-leading 47th save, striking out the side, the last 2 coming with the tying runs on base.

Sept. 29: Prior to that night's game in Denver, the D-backs secure their fourth NL West title in franchise history, as the Brewers rally to defeat the Padres.

Oct. 3: The D-backs' record a 3-1 win vs. Cubs in the NL Division Series opener. Brandon Webb allows 1 run on 4 hits over 7.0 innings with 9 strikeouts. Mark Reynolds' solo homer and Conor Jackson's sac fly break a 1-1 tie in the seventh inning.

Oct. 4: Arizona moves to a 2-0 series lead with an 8-4 win vs. Cubs. Chris Young's 3-run homer in the second inning stakes Arizona to a 4-2 lead as Doug Davis and four relievers preserve the victory.

Oct. 6: Arizona scores its first postseason series win since the 2001 World Series by completing a sweep of the NL Division Series with a 5-1 win @ Cubs. Livan Hernandez allows 1 run on 5 hits over 6.0 innings. Chris Young hits a leadoff homer. The Cubs hit into 4 double plays.

Oct. 15: The D-backs' season ends where it began, as the Rockies' 6-4 win completes a sweep of the NL Championship Series. Arizona rallies from a 6-1 deficit on Chris Snyder's 3-run homer in the eighth and had the tying run at the plate at game's end.

Nov. 6: Despite missing the final three weeks of the regular season, Orlando Hudson earns his third consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

Nov. 14: The Baseball Writers' Association of America names Bob Melvin as NL Manager of the Year. Melvin earns similar honors from The Sporting News and the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum.

2001 WORLD SERIES - NOTEBOOK

- ◆ The D-backs entered the World Series with Craig Counsell as the only active player in possession of a World Championship ring while the Yankees were 3-time defending champs.
- ◆ Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling were the second co-MVP's in World Series history joining the Los Angeles Dodger trio of Ron Cey, Pedro Guerrero and Steve Yeager...it marked the 20th and 21st time a starting pitcher won the award, first since Florida's Livan Hernandez in 1997.
- ◆ It was the third time in World Series history that the home team won every game, joining the Twins against St. Louis in 1987, and Twins against Atlanta in 1991.
- ◆ The D-backs outscored New York 31-5 in the 4 wins, and were outscored 9-6 in the trio of 1-run losses in Bronx.
- ◆ The D-backs were the fastest expansion team to get to the Fall Classic a year quicker than Florida in 1997...other expansion clubs to make the World Series and the year they qualified - Mets (eighth year), Royals (12th year), Seattle Pilots/Milwaukee Brewers (14th year), San Diego (16th year), Toronto (16th year)...remaining expansion clubs that have not appeared in the Series include the Angels, Senators/Rangers, Colt 45's/Astros, Expos, Mariners, Rockies and Devil Rays.
- ◆ Arizona pitching held the Yankees to .183 team average (42-for-229), the lowest average ever in a 7 or 8 game World Series...previous low was .185 by St. Louis vs. Kansas City in 1985.
- ◆ Arizona's overall staff ERA of 1.94 was lowest in World Series play since Cincinnati's 1.70 mark in a 4-game sweep of Oakland in 1990 and lowest in a 7-game set since Kansas City had a 1.89 mark in '85 vs. the Cardinals.
- ◆ The D-backs were the first team in 80 years to win the first 2 games they ever played in the World Series, the fourth team overall joining the 1914 Boston Braves, 1919 Cincinnati Reds and 1921 New York Yankees.
- ◆ The walk-off finish to Game 7 was the 11th overall "sudden death" ending to a World Series, the third in a row that involved a 7-game series...the last was the 1997 finish when Craig Counsell scored the tie-breaking run in the 10th inning as Florida defeated Cleveland...the other was Minnesota's 10th inning win over the Braves in the Metrodome in 1991.
- ◆ The D-backs are the 19th team to win the series after trailing 3 games to 2...it was also the 11th time a team won Games 6 and 7 at home.
- ◆ It was the first time the Yankees were involved in a Game 7 of any postseason series since the 1964 World Series went to the limit against St. Louis.
- ◆ The D-backs snapped New York's postseason series streak at 11, handing the Bronx Bombers their first series loss since the 5-game Division Series with Cleveland in 1997.
- ◆ When Curt Schilling and Roger Clemens hooked up in the final game, it marked the sixth time 20-game winners squared off in the seventh game, first since John Tudor (St. Louis) and Bret Saberhagen (Kansas City) in 1985.
- ◆ The 15-2 win in Game 6 alone was worth the following tidbits:
 - ...The D-backs recorded a World Series-record 22 hits.
 - ...The 15 runs tied with Toronto for third highest in a World Series game.
 - ...The 13-run margin of victory tied for second best ever matching the Yankees' 16-3 win over Pittsburgh in Game 2 of 1960 World Series, and was the second-highest ever, just behind an 18-4 Yankee win in Game 2 of the 1936 win over the Giants.
 - ...The 15-0 lead after 5 innings tied the biggest lead by any team at any time in World Series game...the Yankees had a 16-1 lead in Game 2 of the '60 series against Pittsburgh.
 - ...Arizona's 8-run third inning marked the best inning since Game 6 of 1968 series when Detroit scored 10 times in third inning of 13-1 win over St. Louis.

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

BASEBALL OPERATIONS

BILLY RYAN

Assistant General Manager

Billy Ryan begins his first season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 after joining the organization on Nov. 15, 2010 as Assistant General Manager. He primarily focuses on the D-backs' 40-man roster management with General Manager Kevin Towers in addition to other duties in the Baseball Operations Department.

Ryan spent the previous three seasons (2008-10) in the Commissioner's Office for Major League Baseball as the Senior Coordinator of Salary & Contract Administration, working directly with all 30 clubs and acting as a liaison with respect to Major League rules, the Basic Agreement and other contractual and industry practices. He also was a key administrator in MLB's Salary Arbitration Support Program, in which he provided recommendations to clubs and helped to manage the salary arbitration signing process across the entire industry. Ryan was also directly involved in MLB's Draft Support Program, acting as a resource for all clubs throughout the signing process and helping to manage the flow of signing bonuses related to amateur players selected in the First-Year Player Draft.

Prior to joining the Commissioner's office, Ryan was a Scouting Supervisor for the Cleveland Indians throughout the 2007 season and worked in the Baseball Operations and Scouting Departments for the Texas Rangers from 2005-06.

Ryan graduated in 2002 with a degree in Psychology from Davidson College in Davidson, N.C. He was a four-year letterman and team captain on the Wildcat baseball team, earning All-Southern Conference and team Most Valuable Player honors in 2001. He and his fiancée, Sara, reside in Phoenix.

BILL BRYK

Special Assistant to the General Manager &
Major League Scout

Bill Bryk begins his first season with the Arizona Diamondbacks as a Special Assistant to the General Manager and Major League scout after joining the organization in November 2010. Bryk will primarily scout Major League players in the American League and also serve as an advisor to General Manager Kevin Towers.

Bryk started his professional career 42 years ago when he was drafted and signed by the Washington Senators as a right-handed pitcher, also going on to pitch in the Mets organization. His coaching career started in 1974 when he was named head coach at South Suburban College in South Holland, Ill. He guided the Bulldogs for five seasons and also started managing independent ball during the summers in 1977, when he was signed as player/manager of the Beeville Bees of the Texas-Louisiana League.

In 1978, Bryk managed an independent club in Grays Harbor, Wash., to the league championship and was named Manager of the year. This led him back to affiliated ball with the San Diego Padres organization in 1979. He worked full-time as a scouting supervisor and in player development as a short-season manager. In 1982, he left the Padres to work for the Pittsburgh Pirates, both in scouting and player development. Over the next 18 years, Bryk would work as a scouting supervisor, special assignment scout, assistant scouting director, assistant farm director, national crosschecker and pitching coordinator. Among the players he drafted and signed were Tom Prince, Rob Mackowiak, Keith Shepherd, Mark Thurmond, Lou Collier and Paul Wagner. In the fall of 1999, he returned to the Padres as a Special Assistant to the General Manager under Towers, also doubling as minor league field coordinator.

Bryk has been honored with numerous awards for his contributions to baseball over the last four decades. In 2009, he was inducted into the Midwest Scouts Association Hall of Fame in Kansas City and was also honored with the George Genovese Lifetime Achievement Award in Scouting in January 2010.

Bryk and his wife, Jackie, reside in Schererville, Ind., and have four children: Kari, Erica, Billy and Nick.

JUNIOR NOBOA

Director, Latin America Operations

Junior Noboa begins his 17th year with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011, including the past four seasons as the club's Special Assistant to the General Manager and Director, Latin Operations. Noboa also held the title of Director, Latin America Operations from 2003-06 and oversees the D-backs' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic.

Noboa was the organization's first international hire in August 1995 and a month later signed the organization's first two players. In 1997, he was the first recipient of the Roland Hemond Award, bestowed upon a member of the Baseball Operations Department who best exemplifies the "D-backs" approach to their work. In 1999, Noboa signed Geraldo Guzman, a carpenter who had not played professionally since 1992 but went on to pitch in 17 games for the D-backs from 2000-01. Noboa was also the hitting coach for the Dominican Republic team in the World Baseball Classic tournaments in 2006 and 2009.

MIKE BELL

Director, Player Development

Mike Bell enters his fifth season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 and first as Director, Player Development. Bell was promoted to Director, Player Development in November 2010 after serving as Field Coordinator in 2010 and three seasons as a minor league manager in the organization.

Bell posted a combined record of 131-146 (.473) as manager at Single-A Visalia from 2008-09 after making his managerial debut with short-season Yakima in 2007, when he led the Bears to a 33-43 record and finished only four games out of first place after posting an 18-16

Bell was a first-round selection (30th overall) of the Texas Rangers in the 1993 First-Year Player Draft. His only time in the big leagues came in 2000 when he batted .222 (6-for-27) with 2 home runs and 4 RBI in 19 games with the Cincinnati Reds. Overall, he compiled a .265 batting average with 135 homers, 684 RBI, 262 doubles and 32 triples in 1,231 games in 13 minor league seasons (1993-2005) with the Rangers, New York Mets, Reds, Colorado Rockies, D-backs, Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Cardinals organizations.

Bell comes from a rich family history in professional baseball, which his grandfather Gus started in 1950 as a member of the Pittsburgh Pirates. His father, Buddy, also enjoyed a 19-year Major League career while his brother, David, spent 11 seasons in the big leagues with six different teams. His other brother, Ricky, was a first-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1997.

MIKE BERGER

Director, Pro Scouting

Mike Berger begins his third year with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 and first season as the organization's Director, Pro Scouting. Berger will now oversee all of the D-backs' scouting efforts throughout Major League Baseball and the minor leagues.

Berger, who enters his 32nd year in professional baseball in 2011, joined the D-backs in June 2009 and assumed the player development duties vacated by A.J. Hinch after he was promoted to D-backs' manager in May 2009. Berger has spent his time in professional baseball as a minor league player, minor league coach, minor league manager, scout and front office executive since being selected in the fourth round of the 1980 First-Year Player Draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Berger posted a combined .261 batting average with 91 home runs as an outfielder, infielder and catcher in 1,038 career minor league games with the Pirates, Montreal Expos and Texas Rangers organizations from 1980-93. He also served as the hitting coach as a player/coach during his final three minor league seasons with Triple-A Oklahoma City from 1991-93. He continued as the hitting coach with Oklahoma City in 1994 before becoming the manager for Single-A Charleston (S.C.) in 1995.

After one season as a minor league manager, Berger transitioned into the scouting department where he was an area supervisor for the Expos from 1996-98 covering amateur talent in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia. He was promoted to East Coast crosschecker in 1999, Assistant to the General Manager in 2000 and Director of Professional Scouting in 2001. Berger became a professional scout with the Houston Astros in 2002 and then served in the same capacity with the Colorado Rockies from 2003-05. He was been a Major League scout with the Toronto Blue Jays from 2006-09.

Berger's father, Jack, was the Director of Group Sales and Promotions as well as the Public Relations Director during a 33-year career with the Pirates. His grandfather, Jack, was a member of the Baseball Writers' Association of American and a sports cartoonist for the Pittsburgh Press. Berger and his wife, Leslie, reside in Pittsburgh with their children, Nick, Matthew and Caitlyn.

CARLOS GOMEZ

Director, International Scouting

Carlos Gomez enters his fourth season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 and first as the organization's Director, International Scouting.

The Puerto Rican native will now oversee the scouting of amateur players in Latin America, Europe and Asia after he had served as a professional scout in the organization since joining the club in November 2007. Gomez filed reports on Major League players and high-level minor leaguers as well as taking trips to Latin America to scout international players as a professional scout.

Gomez played baseball while attending Purdue University from 1996-2001 to obtain a Bachelor's degree in Industrial Engineering. After graduation, the right-handed pitcher posted a 2-2 record with 3 saves and a 4.25 ERA in a combined 56 relief appearances for Independent league clubs in Illinois, Pennsylvania and New Jersey from 2002-04. He also played for Caguas in the Puerto Rican Winter League during the 2003-04 season.

After retiring as a player, Gomez wrote for The Hardball Times and Baseball Think Factory from 2006-07, where he developed a following on the Internet for breaking down the pitching mechanics of some of baseball's best pitchers.

Gomez and his wife, Amy, reside in Orlando, Fla.

MACK HAYASHI

Director, Pacific Rim Operations

Makoto (Mack) Hayashi enters his fourth season with the Arizona Diamondbacks as Director, Pacific Rim Operations. Hayashi scouts players in Australia, Japan, Korea and Taiwan while also maintaining relationships with teams in professional baseball leagues in those countries.

Prior to joining the D-backs, Hayashi spent eight years working for agent Alan Nero, who had an inroad among agents for advising players from Japan. Hayashi was credited with maintaining Nero's strong client base in Japan with players such as catcher Kenji Johjima and infielder Akinori Iwamura and American and Latin players that played in Japan.

The Japanese-born Hayashi attended the prestigious Keio University in Tokyo. He and his wife, Eriko, reside in Aliso Viejo, Calif., with their daughters, Lily and Sakura.

RYAN ISAAC

Director, Major League Scouting &
Assistant to the General Manager

Ryan Isaac begins his first season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 after joining the organization on Nov. 1, 2010 as Director, Major League Scouting & Assistant to the General Manager. Isaac focuses on the D-backs' Major League transactions and assists in the management of the 40-man roster. Isaac also supports General Manager Kevin Towers with various responsibilities including the supervision of the Major League scouting efforts.

Isaac spent the previous six seasons (2005-10) with the San Diego Padres, most recently as Manager, Pro Scouting.

Isaac graduated in 1998 with a degree in English from Haverford (Pa.) College, where he played baseball. He resides in Phoenix.

RAY MONTGOMERY

Director, Scouting

Ray Montgomery enters his first season with the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2011 after joining the organization on Oct. 22, 2010 as Director, Scouting. Montgomery oversees the assignment and evaluations of all of the D-backs' amateur scouts leading up to the First-Year Player Draft each June.

Montgomery completed his eighth season with the Milwaukee Brewers, including his second as Assistant Director of Amateur Scouting, in 2010 before joining the D-backs. He also served as the Brewers' Midwest crosschecker from 2007-10. Montgomery joined the Brewers as an area scout for South Texas and Louisiana in December 2002. In that role, he was responsible for the scouting and signing of Brewers' second baseman Rickie Weeks in the 2003 First-Year Player Draft. Montgomery also played pivotal roles in later drafts that included the selections of Yovani Gallardo (2004), Ryan Braun (2005), Jon LuCroy (2007) and Jake Odorizzi (2008).

Montgomery enjoyed a 12-year playing career from 1990-2001, including three seasons in the Major Leagues with the Houston Astros from 1996-98. He compiled a .241 career batting average in 47 big league games as an outfielder. Montgomery also played for the Pittsburgh Pirates (1999-2000) and New York Mets' (2001) organizations after being selected by the Astros in the 13th round of the 1990 First-Year Player Draft.

Montgomery was a first-team All-America selection at Fordham University in 1990 and was inducted into the university's Hall of Fame in 1999. He and his wife, Daniela, reside in Simsbury, Conn., with their children, Jack and Emma.

SHIRAZ REHMAN

Director, Player Personnel

Shiraz Rehman enters his sixth season with the Arizona Diamondbacks and first as the organization's Director, Player Personnel. Rehman was the club's Director, Baseball Operations from 2009-10 and Manager, Baseball Operations from 2007-08 after joining the club in December 2005 as a Baseball Operations Assistant.

Rehman's primary responsibilities are with the Major League team, supporting General Manager Kevin Towers on potential player acquisitions and providing scouting, financial and statistical information to support trade and player evaluation. He also assists in the maintenance of the club's 40-man roster and Major League rules compliance. Rehman plays a key role in the arbitration process, contract structuring and negotiations while also overseeing baseball analysis efforts for the team. He also spearheads the D-backs' development of the Baseball Operations Department's technology and video solutions, and coordinates the department's internship program. Before joining the D-backs, Rehman interned for the Boston Red Sox during the 2005 season in Baseball Operations.

Rehman is a 1999 graduate of McGill University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in Finance and Accounting and was a starting infielder on the baseball team for four years, captaining the squad in his junior and senior seasons. He spent time as both a commodities trader and financial consultant for more than five years at Enron and Deloitte & Touche before obtaining his MBA from Columbia Business School in 2006. He and his wife, Beth, reside in Phoenix with their newborn daughter, Eden.

QUINTON MCCRACKEN

Assistant Director, Player Development

Quinton McCracken enters his first season in the Arizona Diamondbacks front office in 2011 as Assistant Director, Player Development. McCracken will assist Director, Player Development Mike Bell in all aspects of the player development system and serve as a liaison to all of the organization's minor league affiliates throughout the country.

McCracken posted a .274 batting average with 21 homers, 244 RBI and 89 stolen bases during a 12-year Major League career from 1995-2006, including a four-year stint with the D-backs from 2002-03 and 2004-05. The outfielder also had a .241 average as a pinch-hitter during his career with the Colorado Rockies (1995-97), Tampa Bay Devil Rays (1998-2000), Minnesota Twins (2001), D-backs, Seattle Mariners (2004) and Cincinnati Reds (2006). McCracken was selected in the 25th round of the 1992 First-Year Player Draft by the Rockies out of Duke University.

Senior Advisor, Pacific Rim Operations

Jim Marshall continues to serve as the club's Senior Advisor, Pacific Rim Operations, a role he has filled since coming on-board in 1996. His main duty is to maintain relations with baseball organizations in Australia, Japan, Korea and Taiwan while also working as a Major League and advance scout for the D-backs.

Marshall played in the big leagues from 1958-62, logging time with the Baltimore Orioles, Chicago Cubs, San Francisco Giants, the original 1962 New York Mets and the Pittsburgh Pirates. He managed the Chicago Cubs from 1974-76 and the Oakland Athletics in 1979.

His first visit to Japan was in 1960 as part of a goodwill tour with the Giants. Three years later, he signed with the Chunichi Dragons of the Japanese Central League and hit .268 with 78 home runs and 252 RBI over three campaigns.

D-BACKS ALL-TIME FIRST DRAFT PICKS

The D-backs did not take the field until March 31, 1998, but started stocking their minor league system beginning with the 1996 draft. In the 15 years that the D-backs have drafted, nine players have been selected from four-year universities while eight have been drafted straight from high school. In 1998 and 2000, Arizona did not have a first-round selection and made their first pick in the third and second-rounds, respectively. In 2003 and 2009 they secured a second first-round pick to go with their own, most recently taking infielder Bobby Borchering with the 16th pick and outfielder A.J. Pollock with the 17th pick in the 2009 draft. Below is a list of the D-backs all-time first draft selections:

2005 ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR

The Arizona Diamondbacks were named the Topps Organization of the Year for 2005 during the annual Baseball Winter Meetings held in December 2004 in Dallas. It was the first such award for the D-backs, who have had a minor league system in place since 1996, with the big league club beginning play two years later.

The Topps Baseball Organization of the Year Award is presented annually to a Major League organization based on the number of players in their system who have received Topps awards during the season. Points are awarded for four different minor league categories including All-Star players, Players of the Month, the Trautman and Taylor Spink Award recipients, and for Major League rookies who made the Topps Rookie All-Star team.

The D-backs' individual winners were: Phil Avlas (August P.O.M. - California League); Lorenzo Cain (Trautman Award - Arizona League); Matt Elliott and Carlos Gonzalez (Single-A All-Star Team - Midwest League); Andy Green (Triple-A All-Star Team/Trautman Award - Pacific Coast League); Conor Jackson (Triple-A All-Star Team - Pacific Coast League); Miguel Montero (May P.O.M. - California League); Dustin Nippert (August P.O.M. - Southern League); and Dan Uggla (Double-A All-Star Team - Southern League).

D-BACKS BROADCASTERS

DARON SUTTON

Television Play-by-Play

Daron Sutton enters his fifth season in 2011 as the Arizona Diamondbacks' primary play-by-play announcer on FOX Sports Arizona with color analyst Mark Grace.

Sutton came to the D-backs in 2007 after five years in a similar capacity with the Milwaukee Brewers. During his tenure in Milwaukee, Sutton won a 2003 Emmy Award in the category of Individual Excellence on Camera from the Chicago/Midwest Chapter and has been nominated for regional Emmys on four other occasions. Sutton has also served as a reporter for MLB Network, done play-by-play on FOX Saturday Baseball broadcasts and has served annually as the voice of the nationally televised Aflac All-American Baseball Classic.

The son of Hall of Fame pitcher Don Sutton, Sutton spent two seasons as a radio play by play announcer for the Anaheim Angels. Prior to that, he spent two seasons calling Atlanta Braves games occasionally on FSN South. While in Atlanta, Sutton handled SEC telecasts of men's and women's basketball, swimming and diving, gymnastics, track and field and volleyball.

Sutton completed his third season as the play-by-play broadcaster for Arizona State's men basketball games on FOX Sports Arizona this past offseason while also broadcasting games for the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee men's basketball team, which he has called for the past seven years.

Sutton pitched two seasons in the Angels and Braves organizations, and graduated from Auburn University-Montgomery in 1992 with a degree in communications.

Community involvement is a high priority with Sutton. He and his wife, Kristin, host the annual "Sutton Strokes for Little Folks" golf tournament in the Valley to benefit the Southwest Autism Research and Resource Center (SARRC). He also has regular involvement with Arizona Quest for Kids, Make-A-Wish Foundation of Arizona, Special Olympics Arizona and the Tempe Sports Authority Courage Awards. Sutton regularly visits local schools to speak on the importance of reading and education.

Sutton and his wife are the proud parents of two daughters, Abbey and Lilly.

MARK GRACE

Television Analyst

Mark Grace enters his eighth season in 2011 as the Arizona Diamondbacks color analyst on FOX Sports Arizona with play-by-play announcer Daron Sutton. Since 2007, Grace has also served as a color analyst for select FOX Saturday Baseball broadcasts and as a studio analyst on FOX's pregame shows at the World Series. Grace's previous broadcasting experience was as an analyst for ESPN Radio during the 1999 and 2000 National League Division Series.

Grace made a smooth transition to the broadcast booth after retiring from a distinguished 16-year Major League playing career following the 2003 season with the D-backs. He ended his career with 2,445 hits, a .303 average, .383 on-base percentage, 511 doubles, 173 home runs and 1,146 RBI in 2,245 Major League games and never finished a season with more strikeouts than walks. He was a three-time All-Star and four-time winner of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award, anchoring first base for both the D-backs and Chicago Cubs. His 1,754 hits and 364 doubles during the 1990s decade were the most of any Major League player. Grace's 511 doubles and .990 career fielding percentage are better than any other first baseman in the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

After 13 seasons with the Cubs from 1988-2000, Grace joined the D-backs in 2001 and was an integral part of the club's World Championship team that year. His single to lead off the ninth inning of Game 7 ignited the rally that led to a 3-2 victory over the New York Yankees. He also went 6-for-16 in the 2001 National League Championship Series against Atlanta.

Grace also volunteers his time in the community for noteworthy causes. He held the second annual Mark Grace Celebrity Golf Invitational this past offseason to raise funds for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Scottsdale. Grace also was the grand marshal for the Fort McDowell Fiesta Bowl Parade prior to the 2008 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl between West Virginia and Oklahoma.

Grace is the father of two boys, Jackson and Preston, and resides in Paradise Valley.

JOE GARAGIOLA

Television Analyst

Any baseball team would love to have a member of the broadcasters' wing of the National Baseball Hall of Fame available to pinch-hit, and the D-backs have got just that as Joe Garagiola returns for his 14th season as a color analyst on select team broadcasts on FOX Sports Arizona.

Garagiola signed with his hometown St. Louis Cardinals at age 16 and made his Major League debut at age 20 in 1946. A left-handed hitting catcher, he was 6-for-19 in five World Series games in 1946 as a rookie, including going 4-for-5 with 3 RBI in Game 4 against the Red Sox. Garagiola went on to bat .257 with 42 home runs and 255 RBI in 676 games during a nine-year Major League career with the Cardinals, Pittsburgh Pirates, Chicago Cubs and New York Giants.

Garagiola turned to broadcasting following his retirement as a player, calling Cardinals radio broadcasts on KMOX with Harry Caray and Jack Buck from 1955-62. In 1961, he started his nearly 30-year association with NBC and teamed with Bob Wolff, By Saam and George Kell on national baseball broadcast for the network during the 1960s.

Garagiola called New York Yankees games with Red Barber from 1965-67 and alternated play-by-play duties with Curt Gowdy on NBC from 1974-76. He teamed with analyst Tony Kubek on NBC from 1976-82 before shifting to color commentary when Vin Scully joined the network in 1983. Garagiola and Scully were NBC's No. 1 baseball broadcast team from 1983-88, calling each Saturday's "Game of the Week," three All-Star Games, three National League Championship Series and three World Series. He later had a brief stint as a color analyst for the California Angels.

Besides calling baseball broadcasts, Garagiola was a panelist on NBC's "Today" from 1967-73 and again from 1990-92. He occasionally guest-hosted the "Tonight Show Starring Johnny Carson" and hosted numerous game shows in the late 1960s and 1970s, including "He Said, She Said," "Joe Garagiola's Memory Game," "Sale of the Century," "To Tell the Truth" and "Strike It Rich." Garagiola also hosted the "Baseball World of Joe Garagiola" and the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show.

For his numerous contributions to baseball broadcasting, Garagiola was enshrined in Cooperstown as the Ford C. Frick Award recipient in 1991. The D-backs also renamed the broadcast wing of the press box at Chase Field in Garagiola's honor on Sept. 20, 2009. The broadcasting section of the press box now includes a 50-foot photo timeline of Garagiola's career and the home broadcast booth is called the "Joe Garagiola Broadcast Booth." Garagiola was also inducted into the Arizona Broadcasters Association's Hall of Fame in October 2010 and received the Bud Selig Award for lifetime achievement in the game of baseball from the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation in January 2011.

Garagiola has been extremely active in the community and was honored as the 1998 recipient of the Children's MVP Award presented by the Jim Eisenreich Foundation. He works tirelessly for the Baseball Assistance Team, and is very visible at Major League Spring Training camps, educating players on the evils of spit tobacco. Garagiola was honored in 2001 by the Arizona Chamber of Commerce for his work in the community, which includes his efforts on behalf of the St. Peter's Indian Mission in the Gila River Indian Community. Nicknamed "Awesome Fox" by the staff of St. Peter's, the baseball field at St. Peter's School is named "Awesome Fox Field" in his honor.

Garagiola is the author of several baseball books, including "Just Play Ball," with the forward written by his lifelong friend, Yogi Berra.

Garagiola and his wife, Audrey, reside in Scottsdale. His son, Joe Jr., was the D-backs' General Manager from 1995-2005 and is currently a Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations for Major League Baseball, while his other son, Steve, is a reporter and anchor for WDIV-TV in Detroit. His daughter, Gina, has worked as a reporter for KTVK-TV in Phoenix and is currently a freelance writer for numerous publications.

JOE GARAGIOLA BROADCAST WING & BOOTH ♦ Dedicated Sept. 20, 2009

GREG SCHULTE

Radio Play-by-Play

Name a memorable moment in the history of the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Greg Schulte has described it as it happened.

Schulte, whose voice will forever be linked with one of baseball's greatest moments as he delivered the call of Luis Gonzalez's ninth-inning single to win the Game 7 of the 2001 World Series, has been the link between D-backs' fans and their team since the club first took the field in 1998. Like the D-backs themselves, Schulte embarks on his 14th season of calling Major League Baseball in 2011.

Schulte's passion for the game of baseball comes through in every broadcast, and has earned him praise from fans and fellow broadcasters alike. His unique home run call of "deep drive...warning track...wall...you can touch 'em all" is symbolic with D-backs' radio broadcasts. The organization honored Schulte for calling his 2,000th D-backs' game by distributing bobbleheads in his likeness to the first 15,000 fans at the July 10, 2010 game against the Florida Marlins.

A part of the Phoenix radio scene since 1979, Schulte joined the organization after spending 14 years at the D-backs' flagship radio station KTAR. Over that time, Schulte was involved with nearly every major sports entity in the market. He served for 15 seasons with the Phoenix Suns, working with Al McCoy first as a producer and as a color commentator for the last two seasons. He also served as an analyst for Arizona State football and men's basketball, and shared play-by-play duties for ASU baseball. In addition, Schulte was the original pre- and post-game host for Arizona Cardinals broadcasts from 1988-90. Prior to his arrival in Arizona, Schulte was sports director at WQUA in Moline, Ill., and also handled play-by-play duties for University of Iowa men's basketball.

Schulte is also active in the community, working with the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. He and his wife, Nancy, have two children, Scott and Stephanie, and reside in Glendale.

TOM CANDIOTTI

Radio Analyst

Former knuckleball pitcher Tom Candiotti enters his sixth season in 2011 as the D-backs' radio color analyst, offering tremendous insight on the team's broadcasts on Sports 620 KTAR and on the D-backs' radio network throughout Arizona. Candiotti also fills in as a color analyst on the D-backs' television broadcasts when Mark Grace is on assignment with the FOX Saturday Baseball broadcasts.

Candiotti was originally drafted by the Kansas City Royals in 1980, but was later claimed in the Rule 5 Draft by the Milwaukee Brewers that year. He went on to compile a 151-164 record, including 10 or more wins in seven different seasons, and 3.73 ERA with 1,735 strikeouts in 451 games during a 16-year Major League career with the Brewers (1983-84), Cleveland Indians (1986-91, 1999), Toronto Blue Jays (1991), Los Angeles Dodgers (1992-97) and Oakland Athletics (1998-99). He posted a 72-65 record with the Indians during the 1980s, including his best season when he was 14-8 with a 3.28 ERA in 1988. Candiotti was traded to the Blue Jays midway through the 1991 season and went 6-7 with a 2.98 ERA during the pennant stretch while also making two starts in the American League Championship Series for the team. He signed with the Dodgers as a free agent prior to the 1992 season and compiled a 52-64 mark despite having a 3.57 ERA in six seasons in Los Angeles.

Following his playing career, Candiotti served as a Special Assistant to the General Manager with the Indians (2000-01), and established his broadcasting credentials as an analyst with ESPN, both during MLB game coverage and on the set of "Baseball Tonight" from 2001-05. While with ESPN, Candiotti also served as an analyst for the network's coverage of the Little League World Series and wrote a column for ESPN.com. He also was a color television analyst for the Blue Jays from 2002-05.

An accomplished bowler, Candiotti regularly participates in Professional Bowlers Association Tour events in Arizona and was named to the Professional Bowling Hall of Fame's celebrity wing in 2007. He also appeared briefly in Billy Crystal's 2001 movie "61*" as pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm, who like Candiotti was known for throwing knuckleballs. Candiotti and his wife, Maggie, reside in Paradise Valley and he is the father of a daughter, Julie, and three boys, Brett, Casey and Clark.

D-BACKS CELEBRATE SCHULTE'S 2,000TH GAME

D-backs broadcaster Greg Schulte's passion for the game of baseball comes through in every broadcast, and has earned him praise from fans and fellow broadcasters alike. His unique home run call of "deep drive...warning track...wall...you can touch 'em all" is symbolic with D-backs' radio broadcasts. The organization honored Schulte for calling his 2,000th D-backs' game by distributing bobbleheads in his likeness to the first 15,000 fans at the July 10, 2010 game against the Florida Marlins. Schulte, whose voice will forever be coupled with one of baseball's greatest moments as he delivered the call of Luis Gonzalez's ninth-inning single to win the Game 7 of the 2001 World Series, has been the link between D-backs' fans and their team since the club first took the field in 1998. Like the D-backs themselves, Schulte embarks on his 14th season of calling Major League Baseball in 2011.

MIKE FETERS

Radio Analyst

Mike Feters returns in 2011 for his second season on the Arizona Diamondbacks broadcast team as a part-time color analyst on Sports 620 KTAR and the D-backs' radio network throughout Arizona.

Feters compiled a 31-41 record and 3.86 ERA with 100 career saves over 620 games as a right-handed pitcher during a 16-year playing career with the California Angels (1989-91), Milwaukee Brewers (1992-97), Oakland Athletics (1998), Baltimore Orioles (1999), Los Angeles Dodgers (2000-01), Pittsburgh Pirates (2001-02), D-backs (2002, 2004) and Minnesota Twins (2003). He had his best season in 1996 with the Brewers when he finished fifth in the American League with 32 saves. Feters was a fan favorite during his two stints with the D-backs because of quick head movement after taking a deep breath to relax himself prior to making each pitch as a late-inning reliever.

Feters is of mixed ancestry, being half-caucasian and half-Samoan, and graduated from Iolani School in Honolulu, Hawaii in 1983. He was the Angels' first-round selection, and 27th pick overall, in the 1986 First-Year Player Draft out of Pepperdine University. Feters is one of 36 players from Hawaii to have played in the Major Leagues.

Feters had a brief stint as an agent for Beverly Hills Sports Council following his retirement from baseball in 2004 and now works as a throwing coordinator for Physiotherapy Associates in Tempe. He and his wife, Tanya, reside in Chandler with their children, Bryant, Micah, Tyana and Breanna. His son, Micah, plays basketball for Grand Canyon University.

JEFF MUNN

Radio Play-by-Play/Pre- & Post-Game Radio Host

Jeff Munn enters his 11th season as a member of the Arizona Diamondbacks broadcast team in 2010, serving as the secondary radio play-by-play announcer and pre- and post-game show host on the team's broadcasts on Sports 620 KTAR and the D-backs' radio network throughout Arizona. In January 2011, Munn was named the Arizona Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association for his work with the D-backs and other teams in Phoenix.

In addition to his work with the D-backs, Munn has been the radio play-by-play voice for Arizona State women's basketball since 2004 and filled in for Hall of Famer Al McCoy on select Suns' road broadcasts during the 2010-11 season. He has also been heard as a fill-in play-by-play announcer on ASU men's basketball and baseball broadcasts and served as a play-by-play announcer for MLB Radio's coverage of the Arizona Fall League in 2006.

Munn began his broadcasting career as a senior at Carl Hayden High School and later announced games at Phoenix College in the late 1970s. He was the Phoenix Suns in-arena announcer for 12 seasons from 1991-2003 and has been the stadium announcer for the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl since 1991, including five college football national championship games. Munn has announced at several major sporting events, including the 1993 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, 1995 NBA All-Star Game, 2000 WNBA All-Star Game and 2001 World Series. In 1996, he was selected as one of four announcers for the basketball competition at the Summer Olympics in Atlanta and handled the announcing duties for the Men's gold medal game.

Munn majored in history at ASU and resides in Tempe with his two children, Patrick and Hayley.

OSCAR SORIA

Spanish Radio Play-by-Play

Oscar Soria is one of the most respected baseball commentators in the Hispanic community as he enters his 13th full season in 2010 as the play-by-play voice on Arizona Diamondbacks' Spanish broadcasts. He works alongside Miguel Quintana on the team's Spanish radio broadcasts on ESPN Deportes 710 AM.

Soria is a veteran of 23 seasons as a broadcaster with the Mexican Pacific League's Hermosillo Naranjeros and also covers the D-backs by writing a daily column for El Imparcial, Hermosillo's daily newspaper. He also writes a weekly column for La Estrella de Tucson. For four years, Soria has called Mexican Pacific League and Caribbean Series games for ESPN Deportes and also provided play-by-play for the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006 for the network.

Soria finished second in the general balloting for the Mexican Pacific League's "All Century Team" and was voted as the best television broadcaster. In 2005, he received the Carlos Vazquez Award as the best announcer in Sonora. Soria has also covered basketball, boxing, soccer, tennis and football for Telemex in Sonora. He also recorded the Spanish-language narration for the MLB video game in 2005.

Born in Tijuana, Mexico, Soria graduated from Universidad del Noroeste with a degree in accounting. He and his wife, Benny, have a daughter, Paula, and a son, Oscar Gilberto, and make their home in Phoenix.

MIGUEL QUINTANA

Spanish Radio Analyst

Miguel Quintana enters his 13th season in the Arizona Diamondbacks broadcast booth as a color analyst, working alongside Oscar Soria on the team's Spanish radio broadcasts on ESPN Deportes 710 AM.

Quintana began his career as a 15-year-old sportswriter for El Sol in Agua Prieta, Sonora, Mexico. In 1981, he joined KIFN Radio (now KVVA) in Phoenix as a sports commentator, and later moved to KTVW (Channel 33), eventually becoming sports director. Quintana also worked in Los Angeles for KVEA-TV, before returning to Phoenix in 1995 to serve as play-by-play voice for the Arizona Sandsharks indoor soccer team.

Quintana's work in baseball has earned him notice from baseball officials, as he was selected to be one of the stadium announcers for the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006, announcing games at both Chase Field and Angel Stadium in Anaheim, Calif.

Quintana has been a baseball commentator for the Mexican Pacific League and has done play-by-play for the Arizona Rattlers. He and his wife, Karoly, have four boys, Miguel Jr., Khalid, Kyle and Kevin. Miguel also has three daughters, Lisette, Jasmine and Jennifer.

LOS D-BACKS HONOR HISPANIC HERITAGE

Los D-backs™

The D-backs have worn their alternative black jerseys with "Los D-backs" across the front on Hispanic Heritage night for the past three seasons since 2008, creating a tradition to honor their Hispanic fans. The club has raised more than $15,000 in the last three years by selling the autographed game-worn jerseys in online auctions to benefit the Arizona Diamondbacks Foundation. The San Francisco Giants (Gi-gantes), Milwaukee Brewers (Cerveceros), New York Mets (Los Mets) and the Florida Marlins (Los Marlins) have also worn alternative Latin-themed jerseys in the past.

RICHARD SAENZ

Spanish Radio Analyst

Richard Saenz returns for his ninth season in the Arizona Diamondbacks radio booth, working as a fill-in color analyst with Oscar Soria and Miguel Quintana on the team's Spanish radio broadcasts on ESPN Deportes 710 AM.

Saenz oversaw the D-backs' marketing efforts in the Hispanic community from 1996-2008 and now works as a consultant to the organization. Prior to joining the D-backs, he spent 18 years with the Arizona Electric Power Cooperative in his native Benson, eventually becoming the company's Director of Business Development. Saenz also served four years as Mayor of Benson from 1989-93.

Saenz played baseball for two years at Cochise College in Douglas, then continued his education and played baseball at Eastern Oregon State University in LaGrande, Ore.

Saenz and his wife, Sheri, reside in Phoenix with their son, R.J., and daughter, Katherine. He also has a daughter, Alisha, and four grandchildren, Jayden, Kendall, Carson and Elias.

JODY JACKSON

FOX Sports Arizona

Pre- & Post-Game Host/In-Game Reporter

Jody Jackson joined FOX Sports Arizona in May 2000 and has been covering sports on television and radio for the last 15 years. She won an Emmy in 2006 for Best Live Sports Reporter from the Rocky Mountain Chapter of the National Association of Television Arts & Sciences and was named the second-best reporter in Phoenix for 2000 by the Arizona Republic.

During the Arizona Diamondbacks season, she can be seen working the telecasts as the pre- and post-game show host as well as the in-game reporter. Jackson also serves as host for the weekly "Maximum Cardinals" program and anchors "Maximum Cardinals, the Pre-game Show" for the Arizona Cardinals during the pre-season and handles sideline duties for those games. She has covered many of the biggest games and events in Arizona sports since 2000, including the 2001 World Series (D-backs), Super Bowl XLIII (Cardinals), Phoenix Suns and Phoenix Coyotes post-season appearances.

Jackson has also covered almost every aspect of Arizona State athletics during her time in the Valley. She is the host of "Devilball with Herb Sendek," is the sideline reporter during ASU's football and men's basketball games and hosted "Sun Devil Insider" from 2006-2008. In addition, she handled the interviews for the critically acclaimed "In My Own Words" with Larry Fitzgerald, Anquan Boldin and Kurt Warner.

A versatile media personality, Jackson has filled in as a sportstalk radio host on XTRA Sports 910 in Phoenix and has a weekly Friday segment on The FAN 1060.

Prior to landing in Arizona, Jackson worked in Buffalo, N.Y. at CBS affiliate, WTVB, where she covered the NFL's Bills, the NHL's Sabres and the Triple-A Buffalo Bisons. In working with the Bills, she was a co-anchor for post-game shows, a half-hour Sunday night show and contributed numerous pre-game features for the team's radio network (WGR) called "Jody's Journal." She also anchored WTVB's weekend sportcasts and covered upstate New York college and high sports as well.

Before her stint in Buffalo, she was a reporter, anchor and producer for Sportsradio 560 WQAM in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. from 1995-97. She was the station's primary reporter for the Miami Dolphins, covering the team at home and on the road as well as contributing to the pre- and post-game shows. Jackson also covered the Florida Marlins during their 1997 World Championship season, as well as the NHL's Florida Panthers, the NBA's Miami Heat during a pair of playoff runs and the University of Miami's football, basketball and baseball teams. At WQAM radio, she also hosted a weekly talkshow with local sports writers, filed pregame reports and organized two NFL Draft weekends for the station.

A 1995 graduate of the University of Miami, she received her bachelor degree in broadcast journalism and political science. At Miami, she served as a writer and assistant news editor for the student newspaper – the Miami Hurricane. She was also vice president of the UM chapter of Women in Communication and was the feature twirler for the University of Miami Band of the Hour.

Born in Hollywood, Fla., Jackson now resides in Tempe with her husband and children. She enjoys distance running and has run in a number of marathons and half-marathons.

MARK McCLUNE

FOX Sports Arizona

In-Game Reporter

Mark McClune joined FOX Sports Arizona in 2006 and in his time with the network, has won three consecutive Emmy Awards for the best on-camera talent for sports in the Rocky Mountain Southwest region (2007-09). This past year, he won two more Emmys, including one for the best on-camera sports reporter, giving him his fifth Emmy Award in four years.

McClune can be seen on FOX Sports Arizona as a host of the Arizona Diamondbacks pre-game show, is an in-game reporter for both the D-backs and the Suns telecasts and handles play-by-play duties for the network's high school football package. McClune came to Arizona after three years in Spokane, Wash. He was the weekend sports anchor at KREM-TV where he followed the Seattle Seahawks to Super Bowl XL and Eastern Washington University to the NCAA basketball tournament. Prior to working at KREM, he was the Sports Director at KTVL-TV in Medford, Ore.

He played football and baseball at Cypress Creek High School in Houston, Texas, and is a graduate of the University of Texas, where interned at CNN-SI and News 8 Austin.

McClune and his wife, April, became parents in 2010, to their son, Greer Patrick. The entire family enjoys hiking with their dog Merton. McClune is also involved in the community as he has volunteered as a counselor at the MDA Camp the past two years and mentored at-risk youths as a participant in the Special Friends Program.

BRAD STEINKE

FOX Sports Arizona

Post-Game Host/In-Game Reporter

Brad Steinke joined FOX Sports Arizona in 2001, and in his time as an anchor and host with the region's leader for local sports television coverage, he has established himself as one of the best in the business. He serves as the host for Arizona Diamondbacks post-game shows and also works as the in-game reporter.

Besides his anchoring duties for the "Qwest Diamondbacks Live" and "Qwest Suns Live" post-game shows, he is also part of the other original programming offerings the network produces. Steinke has also conducted the interviews for many of FOX Sports Arizona's acclaimed "In My Own Words" programs, profiling such local sports stars as Luis Gonzalez, Steve Nash, Steve Kerr, Grant Hill and Sean Miller.

A nine-time Emmy Award winner, Steinke has won an Emmy for the best sports anchor in the Rocky Mountain Southwest Chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences in 2006, 2005 and 2003. At the latest Emmy Awards event, he took home an Emmy for his work on "In My Own Words - Grant Hill" which was named Best Interview/Discussion Program/Special or Series.

He has covered the Arizona sports scene for 19 years, working as an anchor in both the Phoenix and Tucson markets with FOX Sports Arizona, KNXV and KGUN. In 2002, the Arizona Republic named him the top anchor in the Phoenix market.

He joined FOX Sports Arizona after working for three years as an anchor for WAMI-TV in Miami, Fla., where he was the lead anchor for a nightly 30-minute sports show called "Sportstown." In addition to his anchoring duties in Miami, Steinke worked on Miami Heat basketball telecasts as its pre and post-game show host, and was the sideline reporter as well. He was also the pre and post-game host for Florida Marlins baseball telecasts on WAMI.

Steinke worked in Phoenix from 1996-98 as the sports director and anchor for KNXV-TV (Ch. 15) and was a sports reporter and anchor for KGUN-TV in Tucson from 1985-90. During his time in Arizona, he covered the debut seasons of three of the four professional sports teams in the Valley -- the D-backs, Coyotes and Cardinals. He also reported on the Phoenix Suns trip to the 1993 NBA Finals, the University of Arizona men's basketball team's 1997 national championship run and 1988 Final Four and Arizona State's 1997 Rose Bowl appearance.

Steinke was the sports anchor for KSL-TV in Salt Lake City from 1990-96. He hosted a weekly sports show entitled "Sportsbeat Saturday" and was often joined on that show by former Utah Jazz all-star forward Karl Malone. In addition to that duty, he hosted the Brigham Young University football and basketball coach's shows, did play-by-play for BYU basketball and hosted a sportstalk radio show for KSL radio.

He started in the television profession as a sports anchor and reporter at KTXS-TV in Abilene, Texas, after graduating from Southern Utah University in 1983. A four-time letterwinner for the Thunderbirds basketball team, he played for the Utah Jazz summer pro league team in 1983. A native of Salt Lake City, he attended Brighton High School where he was an all-state basketball player. He is also a member of the school's first-ever Hall of Fame induction class.

TODD WALSH

FOX Sports Arizona

Pre- & Post-Game Host/In-Game Reporter

Todd Walsh has worked with FOX Sports Arizona since 2001 and fills many roles at the network, including its pre-game/post-game host and in-game reporter for Arizona Diamondbacks and Phoenix Coyotes telecasts. He also has worked as a sideline reporter for the Phoenix Suns and University of Arizona football and basketball telecasts when his busy schedule allows.

A five-time Emmy Award winner, he was most recently recognized in 2010 with the Emmy for best sports anchor. He was also named "Favorite Sportscaster" in Arizona Foothills Magazine "Best of Our Valley Poll" in November 2010. In 2008, he won Emmys for work done in conjunction with not only his coverage of the Arizona Diamondbacks, but the Phoenix Coyotes as well. His work on the "Diamondbacks Live" pre-game show was also honored with an Emmy Award in 2007, as it was the winner in the "News Producer" division. In September 2002, the Phoenix New Times honored him as the city's best sports television interviewer. The Arizona Republic named him the top sports reporter in Phoenix in 2001 and again in 2002.

In what was one of the top highlights of his career, D-backs pitcher Randy Johnson allowed him to become the first reporter to ever be invited inside his home to profile his baseball and rock 'n' roll memorabilia collection. The visit was for the critically acclaimed "In My Own Words – Randy Johnson" episode Walsh hosted. The show was awarded with an Emmy in 2008.

A fixture as well in Phoenix and Tucson sports radio, he has been the host for the Phoenix Coyotes radio pre-game broadcasts since 1996. He has also done weekday sports updates for KSLX radio (100.7 FM) in Phoenix and was the sports director for KDKB radio (93.3 FM).

Walsh worked for KTAR radio in Phoenix from 1988-93 as a sports reporter, talk show anchor and co-host of the pre and post game radio broadcasts for the Arizona Cardinals and Phoenix Suns. From 1991-93, he was the color commentator for Cardinals games.

From 1988-91, Walsh served as the play-by-play announcer for the Phoenix Firebirds of the Pacific Coast League (Triple-A minor league baseball) and in 1987, he did the play-by-play duties in Tucson for the Triple-A Tucson Toros and the University of Arizona Ice Cats hockey team.

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Walsh graduated from the University of Arizona in 1986 with a degree in radio and television. He got his start in the business while at the UA, hosting a nightly sports talk show and serving as the pre and post-game host for Arizona Wildcats football and basketball games on KNST radio. Also during his time at Arizona, he served as a basketball manager for Lute Olson and had a role as a sports reporter in the 1987 movie "Can't Buy Me Love."

REMEMBERING OUR FRIENDS

JOHN MICHAELSON RADIO BOOTH

The Sports 620 KTAR Radio booth at Chase Field was named after John Michaelson prior to the 2001 season, honoring the veteran producer/engineer who passed away in the winter of 2000. A veteran behind the scenes in radio broadcasting for years, including three seasons on D-backs broadcasts, Michaelson was a tireless worker and friend to all who came in contact with him.

STEVE PASCENTE MEMORIAL PRESS LOUNGE

Steve Pascente was one of the most dedicated at his craft and died while on location covering football in Washington D.C. His wife, Julie, has kept his memory alive with the Steve Pascente Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of foundations including Widowed With Children, The Steve Pascente Memorial Scholarships at Arizona State University and The Andre House. When the D-backs opened the 1998 season against the Colorado Rockies, Nick Pascente, the son of Steve and Julie, served as honorary batboy.

DICK DOZER MEMORIAL PRESS BOX

Dick Dozer spent the majority of his life covering Major League Baseball for the Chicago Tribune, but he was hardly a stranger to the Valley. After leaving the beat of the big leagues, he arrived in Phoenix and wrote for the Phoenix Gazette, while also contributing his time in organizing the annual "Dream Game," an oldtimers contest that benefitted the Phoenix Memorial Hospital Foundation, and working with the Mesa Ho-Ho-Kams. Dozer was BBWAA Chapter President in 1976. He passed away in 1994, yet his memory lives on daily in the D-backs' front office. His son, Rich, was an integral player in the D-backs inception serving as team president from 1995 through 2006 and has an executive conference room named in his honor.

MEDIA COVERAGE POLICIES

It is once again a privilege for our staff to be of assistance as you cover the Arizona Diamondbacks. Following are the Player & Media Relations policies for the 2011 season. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask any member of our staff and we will make every effort to fulfill your needs.

WORKING PRESS CREDENTIALS: Pursuant to Major League Baseball policy, all season credentials issued by the Arizona Diamondbacks will include a laminated picture identification. Due to security issues, no member of the media will be allowed access to Chase Field without showing a photo ID. Daily passes will be issued to media members who do not qualify for season credentials. Media who qualify for daily credentials include: freelance writers on a specific assignment for a publication, representatives of weekly and monthly publications working on special coverage, and additional radio and television representatives when the need arises for extra pre-game personnel (i.e. live shots, etc.). Requests from representatives of blogs/Web sites, collegiate/high school media (radio, television, print) will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis, according to MLB policies. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer, or director, at least 24 hours in advance of the game being requested. All daily credential requests must be submitted via: <https://credentials.mlb.com/Credential/login.do>.

PHOTO CREDENTIALS: Daily photo passes will be issued to photographers on assignment for legitimate news gathering organizations, and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests for photographer credentials must follow the procedure detailed above. The Arizona Diamondbacks will not issue credentials to freelance photographers. Please remember that priority in all photo areas will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. Field photo space at Chase Field is at a premium and priority for space will be given to daily publications and wire services. There is also a small space designated for in-game photography in the front row of the press box. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products only. Any other use of photographs taken will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and bar future use.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: All credentials will list specific locations in Chase Field where access is permitted. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. The clubhouse is the dressing and preparation area for the players for that day's game and is not a place for the media to congregate. The clubhouse will close one hour prior to the first pitch, and there may be times where the clubhouse will close earlier for team meetings. Generally, no more than a 10-minute "cooling off" period is applied after games. Post-game access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined by the individual club's policies.

FIELD ACCESS: All members of the media with field access provided on their credential will be allowed to conduct interviews during specified times prior to the start of the game. The field must be cleared 50 minutes prior to the beginning of the game, and at no time is the media permitted in fair territory, or outside the first and third base bags. These precautions are for the safety of all involved while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS: Non-rightsholders are permitted to transmit live reports from Chase Field prior to and after every game. All television live shots must be done in designated areas outside the clubhouse due to space limitations, or on the warning track area outside either dugout. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out of town reports are allowed to give inning or half inning score updates. At no time can they file reports once play is under way. Any violation of these policies will result in immediate revocation of credentials.

CELLULAR PHONES: The use of cellular phones is prohibited on the field or in either clubhouse. The only time a radio correspondent can use a cellular phone for an interview would be in either dugout after receiving advance permission from the player or staff member. Any other telephone interviews must be arranged through the D-backs' Player & Media Relations Department.

ROVING CAMERAS: Television stations are prohibited from using a camera light in the seating area of the ballpark. Should a light come on, the game could be stopped by the umpiring crew and any stoppage in play due to a camera light will result in revocation of the credential. Separate credentials will be available for "roving" the stands prior to games. For the comfort of our fans, interviews are to be conducted on the concourse, not in the stands while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX: The press box at Chase Field is located directly behind home plate. The writers' wing is on the first base side, while the broadcast booths are behind the plate and towards the third base side. The front row of the Working Press Box is for members of the BBWAA. All electronic media seats are in the second and third rows. Game notes and statistics will be available for pick-up at least two hours before game time in the area immediately behind the working press box. The D-backs also offer additional working space, with television monitors, in the area behind the press box. A fax machine and copier are available in the press box should the need arise. The press box is an active working area and cheering and loud conversation will not be permitted. At no time will guests be permitted in the press box. The Arizona Diamondbacks prohibit any person under the age of 18 from entering the press box level on game days.

PRESS DINING: The press dining room is located behind the press box. As is consistent with all National League clubs, pre-game meals for the media will be available for a cost and will be served two hours prior to game time through the end of the second inning. Media members must be properly credentialed for admittance to the dining room.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Arizona Diamondbacks are fortunate to have an ample supply of Charge Call phones in the press box. If for some reason media members feel there are not enough lines available, they should investigate installing their own line for use during the season. To have a phone extension installed for the season, or for a single visit to Chase Field, please contact Vicki Berryman at 602.462.6099.

COMMUNICATIONS STANDARDS

The Arizona Diamondbacks respectfully request your cooperation in adhering to our communication standards, which are an important factor in building a consistent brand.

DEPARTAMENTO DE COMUNICACIONES

Vicepresidente de Comunicaciones	Shaun Rachau
Gerente de Relaciones de Prensa y Jugadores	Casey Wilcox
Coordinadora de Relaciones de Prensa y Jugadores	Morgan Ballard
Coordinadora de Comunicaciones	Mallory Conger

REGLAS PARA LA MEDIA

Una vez mas, es un privilegio a poder asistirlos en cubrir los Arizona Diamondbacks. Siguiendo son las reglas del Departamento de las Relaciones de la Prensa y los Jugadores. Si tiene alguna pregunta, por favor comuníquese con alguien de nuestro departamento.

CREDENCIALES DE TRABAJO: De acuerdo con la política del Béisbol De Grandes Ligas, todas las credenciales de temporada completa de los Arizona Diamondbacks incluirán una foto personal. Es requerido que los miembros de la prensa carguen la credencial en todo momento ya que pueden ser pedidas por miembros de seguridad, sobre todo en la entrada al Chase Field ya que sin ellas no podrán entrar. Para calificar a los pases para juegos individuales deben ser: escritores independientes en una asignación específica para alguna publicación, representantes de una publicación semanal o mensual trabajando en una cobertura especial, y representantes adicionales de radio y televisión cuando las necesidades ameriten personal extra. Solicitudes de representantes de blogs/sitios Web, prensa universitaria (radio, televisión o revistas) serán revisadas caso por caso, de acuerdo a políticas de MLB. Credenciales para juegos individuales deben ser pedidas por el editor, productor o director por lo menos 24 horas antes del partido. A partir del 2010, todas las peticiones de credenciales para juegos individuales deberán ser enviadas a <https://credentials.mlb.com/Credential/login.do>.

CREDENCIALES DE FOTOGRAFIA: Pases de foto serán dadas a fotógrafos que estén reuniendo información para algún noticiero reconocido y representantes de compañías que estén licenciadas por el Béisbol De Grandes Ligas. Pedidos para credenciales de fotografía tendrán que seguir los mismos pasos ya mencionados bajo. Los Arizona Diamondbacks no autorizan credenciales para fotógrafos independientes. Por favor recuerde que noticieros con fecha tope tendrán prioridad en todas las áreas dedicadas a fotógrafos. Aparte de las áreas a nivel de campo, también hay un espacio chico designado para fotógrafos que deseen tomar fotos durante el partido en la primera fila en el cuarto de prensa. Todas las fotografías tomadas deben ser utilizadas para algún noticiero o para productos oficialmente reconocidos por la organización. Cualquier otro uso de estas fotografías serán consideradas como violación de marca registrada. Fotógrafos están prohibidos entrar a los vestidores, excepto cuando se haya hecho otros arreglos con un representante del departamento.

MEDIOS DE INTERNET: Solamente aquellas personas que estén licenciadas por el Béisbol De Grandes Ligas tienen el derecho exclusivo de reportar las descripciones y jugada por jugada del partido por Internet. Ninguna transmisión de parte de cualquier otro medio será permitido que origine dentro del estadio, incluyendo video de alguna cámara que este situada dentro del estadio. Infracciones tendrán como resultado revocación de credencial y puede ser susceptible por medio de la ley. Los Arizona Diamondbacks no autorizan credenciales a personas de sitios web, excepto que el sitio sea una organización de noticias nacionalmente reconocida.

POLICE DE AUTOGRAFOS: Esta prohibido que miembros de la prensa con credenciales pidan autógrafos o equipo en el terreno de juego, dugout o vestidores. Cualquier infracción tendrá como resultado revocación inmediata de la credencial e impedirá el uso futuro.

ACCESO AL VESTIDOR: Toda credencial listara localidades específicas dentro del Chase Field en donde acceso sea permitido. Miembros de la prensa tendrán que tener una razón específica para tener acceso al vestidor. El vestidor no es lugar para que la prensa congregate. El vestidor cerrara una hora antes del primer lanzamiento, y habrá ocasiones donde cerrará antes para juntas del equipo. Generalmente, un periodo de no más 10 minutos es permitido después del partido para que los jugadores se relajen. Acceso después del partido al vestidor del equipo contrario será determinado por las reglas individuales del equipo.

ACCESO AL CAMPO: Todos los miembros de prensa con derecho de estar en el campo de juego tendrán la oportunidad de obtener entrevistas en tiempos designados antes del inicio del partido. La prensa debe salir del campo 50 minutos antes del inicio del partido. La prensa en ningún momento es permitida en terreno bueno (dentro las líneas de foul), o detrás de la primera o tercera base. Estas precauciones son por motivos de seguridad.

TRANSMISIONES EN VIVO: Estaciones sin derechos de transmitir el partido en vivo pueden transmitir informes desde el Chase Field antes y después de todos los partidos. Todo el video de televisión que sea transmitido en vivo tiene que ser desde áreas designadas afuera del vestidor o desde la franja de advertencia afuera de cualquier dugout. Transmisiones en vivo durante el partido son prohibidas a las estaciones de televisión que no tengan el derecho de transmitir el juego por medio de contrato directamente con los Arizona Diamondbacks. Estaciones de radio y corresponsales para reportes fuera de la ciudad son permitidas para dar información del partido entre o después de las entradas. En ningún momento pueden dar información durante el partido. Cualquier infracción tendrá como resultado revocación inmediata de la credencial.

TELEFONOS CELULARES: El uso de teléfonos celulares esta prohibido en el campo y en los dos vestidores. Para que un corresponsal de radio pueda hacer una entrevista por teléfono, el corresponsal debe tener autorización del jugador o de un miembro del departamento. Cualquier otra entrevista por teléfono debe de ser coordinada por medio del Departamento de las Relaciones de la Prensa y los Jugadores de los Diamondbacks.

CAMARAS DE TELEVISION: El uso de luces para cámaras de televisión esta prohibido en el área de asientos del estadio. El juego podría ser parado por los umpires y cualquier parada en el juego debido a esta causa tendrá como resultado revocación de la credencial. Fotografías desde el área de los asientos están prohibidas y todas las entrevistas de televisión deben ser conducidas en el área de los restaurantes detrás de los asientos durante el partido.

AREA DE PRENSA: La tribuna de prensa del Chase Field esta localizada directamente detrás de home. El área de escritores está al lado de la primera base, mientras los puestos emisores están detrás de caja de bateo para el lado de tercera base. La primera fila de la tribuna de prensa de trabajo es para miembros del BBWAA. Todos los asientos de medios electrónicos están localizados en la segunda y tercera fila. Notas y estadísticas del juego estarán disponibles por lo menos dos horas antes del inicio del partido en el área inmediatamente detrás de la tribuna de prensa. Los Diamondbacks también ofrecen un área adicional de trabajo, con monitores de televisión, en el área detrás de la tribuna de prensa. Una maquina de fax y una copiadora está disponible en la tribuna de prensa. La tribuna de prensa es un área de trabajo activa y vitoreando y conversaciones fuertes no se permitirán. Personas que no tengan credencial para la tribuna de prensa en ningún momento serán permitidas. Los Arizona Diamondbacks le prohíben a cualquier persona menor de 18 años la entrada a la tribuna de prensa los días de juego.

SALA DE COMEDOR: La sala de comedor esta localizada detrás de la tribuna de prensa. Comida para los miembros de prensa estará disponible por un costo y será servida 2 horas antes del inicio del partido y finalizará después de la segunda entrada. Los miembros de medios deben tener credencial para poder entrar al comedor.

TELEFONOS PARA LOS MEDIOS: Los Arizona Diamondbacks tienen el lujo de tener una abundante cantidad de teléfonos para llamadas de carga en la tribuna de prensa. Si por alguna razón miembros de la prensa sienten que no hay suficientes líneas disponibles, ellos deben investigar instalar su propia línea para el uso durante la temporada. Para tener una extensión de teléfono instalada para la temporada, o para una sola visita al Chase Field, por favor comuníquese con Vicki Berryman al 602.462.6099.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

DISABLED LISTS:

(1) 15-DAY DISABLED LIST--The minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be on the list at one time.

(2) EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST--The minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. There is no limit on the number of players on this list at one time, but his list may only be used when the club is at the maximum limit of 40 players under control. Players on the 60-day list do no count against the 40-man roster.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR: 172 days constitutes a full year of Major League service.

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

- (1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues, or
- (2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or
 - (b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
 - (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

WAIVER REGULATIONS: From 30 days after the start of the season, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire. Otherwise, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings at the close of the preceding season. With respect to trades, no waivers are necessary from 5 p.m. (ET) the after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.
